They were accompanied by their wives, both of whom displayed their pride at having shot tigers in India. Theodore and Kermit expressed their elation over the fact that they had collected between 60 and 70 rare specimens of the zoological and ornithological order.

MANY TOURISTS LIKELY JANUARY SHOWS INCREASE OVER OTHER YEARS

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 12.—With an increase of 236 per cent over January, 1924 and of 71.5 per cent over the same month of 1925, the prospects for a record breaking harvest of tourists and home-seekers travel to Oregon by motor vehicle for 1926 is very auspicious. If the non-resident motor vehicle registration with the secretary of state for the month of January, 1926, can be regarded as an augury, the registration of foreign motor vehicles in Oregon during the month of January, 1926, amounts to 3442, as compared to 429 for January of 1924 and 841 for the corresponding month of 1925. January visitors to Oregon by motor vehicle registered from states as far east as Ohio and Virginia, from as far as Kentucky, North Carolina, and Texas representing the states of the south, while two sojourning motor vehicles were registered from Alaska and 27 from Canada.

NEW ORCHESTRA TO PLAY

EUGENE SYMPHONY TO APPEAR AT HELIG THIS MONTH

Organization Holding Practice Each Night to Prepare for First Concert

The new Eugene symphony orchestra, 25 pieces of local talent, will hold its first public appearance in the Helig theater, February 16 and 17, it was announced last night.

This orchestra is composed of the best musicians in the city, it is stated, and it has been practicing slightly for the past two months in preparation for the opening appearance. It is acclaimed as the first symphony orchestra to be gathered in the city and with the rehearsal it has done the members expect to take the audience by storm.

Charles Runyan, orchestra leader of the Helig, has expended his time and care in developing the orchestra. The members are local residents and expect to play at regular intervals following its first appearance. The program will be announced later, it is stated.

ROLL RECALLS HISTORY

OLDEST ODD FELLOW IS J. S. LUCKEY

The oldest living member of the Spencer Tuttle lodge No. 9, I. O. O. F., is J. S. Luckey of Eugene, 78th man to sign the constitution. Yesterday, S. W. Minturn, scribe of the order, going through the old records of the lodge found the signature, "Mr. Luckey" who is known to present day residents as a jeweler, gave his occupation then as a blacksmith. He was 23 years old.

Those were early days in the history of fraternal orders, and of the city of Eugene, and now Mr. Luckey, whose age is about 83 years, is still attending lodge occasionally and often visits the club rooms in the daytime. Mr. Luckey signed the roll November 26, 1866.

LODGE SPEAKER COMING

ODD FELLOWS PLAN MEETING HERE MARCH 9

Jerry S. Green, commissioned lecturer of the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows, will give a lecture on "Odd Fellowship" in one of the local churches, Tuesday night, March 9, according to plans announced at the lodge headquarters yesterday.

The location of the meeting, at which all Odd Fellows, friends and families will be invited, has not been chosen and a committee will report to the lodge within a few days in this connection. The meeting will be open to the public and there will be no admission fee charged.

Plans also include a short music program and the introduction of the speaker.
