

LES, TEARS, IN 'GOLDEN COCOON'

Deals with Problems of Young Girl Who Comes to Large College from a Small Country Town

Chadwick and Frank Campeau in "The Golden Cocoon" which Comes to the Rex.

The story is a picture of a young girl who comes to a large college from a small country town, where she finds happiness after much suffering and humiliation, only to be faced with the necessity of sacrificing it all for her husband.

ORIA STARS IN "STAGE STRUCK"

Film Vehicle for Display of Miss Swanson's Extraordinary Talents Depicts Sequences in Natural Colors

Swanson and Ford Sterling in "Stage Struck," Coming to the McDonald.

The story concerns the romance of a woman who came to the gold country by water from Boston; who after adopting three motherless children, proceeds to face the rigors of a rough mining life with a determined smile. Miss Swanson does heroic work as the lovable woman pioneer. Co-starring with her are Robert Frazer and Lionel Barrymore.

Charleston Dancers Kept High for Contest

to Win Title of "Charleston King" Animates Shakers' Nimble Feet Even More in List of Prizes.

At 9 o'clock tonight will get its first contest in the history of the city. The contest is a contest of the Charleston dance, and the winner will receive a prize of $100.

Notes on the Styles

Rose, silver and black striped taffeta makes very lovely robes do style. In this design the very current vogue for stripes is manifest.

Notes on the Styles

The bouffant frock that is so a part of the mode is sometimes made of satin taffeta combined with tulle or exquisites lace.

Notes on the Styles

A recent development of the quilted vogue in coats is the quilted bag and draped toque.

Notes on the Styles

At Coburg (Register Lane County Special) COBURG, Ore., Feb. 20.—The ladies aid society of the Methodist church of Coburg met at the home of Mrs. D. A. Lower, of 943 Washington street in Eugene on Wednesday, February 17 for a covered dish luncheon. The afternoon was spent in celebration of Washington's birthday.

Barber Miss Cross; Messrs. Dale, Lesley, Allyn, Stoneburg, and Ray, Garbenden the pastor.

At Junction City (Register Lane County Special) JUNCTION CITY, Ore., Feb. 20.—Mrs. Louis Kaping entertained on Tuesday afternoon from four to six for her small son, Delbert's 10th birthday anniversary. Games, prizes and refreshments were served to nine of Delbert's schoolmates.

At Lower Fern Ridge

(Register Lane County Special) LOWER FERN RIDGE, Ore., Feb. 20.—The women of the Thursday club entertained their husbands families recently with a valentine party at Alvarado. The women of the north side put on a 30-minute play that was received with much enthusiasm and the women of the south side provided the games, etc. for the rest of the evening.

At Lone Pine

(Register Lane County Special) LONE PINE, Ore., Feb. 20.—Thursday afternoon, February 11, the Lone Pine sewing circle was entertained by Mrs. Albert Dale at her home on Spring creek drive.

At Irving

(Register Lane County Special) IRVING, Ore., Feb. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grimm entertained Sunday with a birthday anniversary dinner for Mrs. Grimm's father, B. W. Dorkis of Eugene.

At Elmira

(Register Lane County Special) ELMIRA, Ore., Feb. 20.—The Ladies Aid Society of the Elmira Christian church held its monthly business meeting and social Wednesday at the home of Mrs. P. P. Colgaard.

At Jasper

(Register Lane County Special) JASPER, Ore., Feb. 20.—A pleasant surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Henrietta Jacoby at her home near Jasper, Sunday, February 14. The occasion of the party was her seventy-second birthday anniversary.

At River Road

(Register Lane County Special) RIVER ROAD, Ore., Feb. 20.—The River Road Women's club met at the home of Mrs. E. Taylor February 18 with Mrs. Coleman as joint hostess. Thirty-three members were in attendance. The afternoon was spent in sewing on quilts for quilt and discussion of the program and supper to be given at the school house Friday evening, February 26. A very interesting and amusing evening will be looked forward to, and further announcements will be given concerning this at the next meeting. Watch for the news. At the conclusion of the business meeting, the hostesses served refreshments.

At Cottage Grove

(Register Lane County Special) COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., Feb. 20.—Mrs. C. A. Bartell of Cottage Grove was hostess to the Daughters of the American Revolution. Members attending from this city were Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. R. E. Short, Mrs. Earl Hill, Mrs. W. J. White, Mrs. K. K. Mills and Mrs. W. A. Garoutte.

At Harriessburg

(Special to the Register) Harriessburg, Ore., Feb. 20.—The girls' Junior and Sunbeam classes of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school were entertained at the A. H. Weber home Saturday afternoon by their respective teachers, Mrs. A. H. Woner and Miss Lucile Spurling. The young folks indulged in heart games that were conducted by a point system that resulted in prizes. These were won by Zena Grimes, James Weber and Selma Simmons. Cakes, banana fello, and lemonade were served. The scholars attending were as follows: Selma Simmons, Esther Saites, Zelma Miller, Mildred Thomas, Zena Grimes, Mary Neuchick, Helen Reece, Elsie Reece, Margaret Reece, Violet Burnett, Minnie Langdon, Edith Morgan, James Weber.

At Harriessburg

(Special to the Register) Harriessburg, Ore., Feb. 20.—The marriage of Roy Nemchick and Miss Edna Sherrill occurred in Albany Thursday forenoon with Judge B. M. Payne officiating. The wedding came by way of a surprise to the parents and many friends of the young people here. The bride is the youngest and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sherrill, almost life-long residents here, and was educated in the Harriessburg schools. She is also an accomplished musician, having taught music several years. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nemchick, also old residents here. The young couple will make their home in town here for the present at least. A charivari was given them Thursday evening.

At Harriessburg

Friday evening was the day chosen by the freshmen to give the sophomores a return reception. The assembly room of the school house was neatly decorated in the valentine colors of red and white. Card games and other customary games were enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served just before the dispersal. Sophomore guests were Margaret and Catherine and Mrs. Clifford Boggs entertained a number of friends recently in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Boggs' father, F. W. Titus. The evening was spent in cards and dancing. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Invited guests included: Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Titus, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swagor, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Verdon May.

At Harriessburg

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. D. A. Forbes entertained informally Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Lawton of Medford, who is here visiting.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Loren Harvey entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home recently. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework after which dainty refreshments were served.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. J. H. Chambers was hostess to the Past Matrons' club in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon.

At Harriessburg

Twenty-two new members were reported at the last meeting of the local W. C. T. U. Rev. Mr. Cameron was the speaker for the day and gave a highly interesting and educational talk on the evils of narcotics.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Fred Beldier was hostess recently at her home to the young married women's sewing society of the Christian church. There were 26 members present and after a pleasant afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Roy Meeks entertained Thursday, February 11, with an afternoon of bridge. The rooms were decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and the same idea was carried out in the luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Geo. Knowles, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. Geo. McQuisen, Mrs. J. Q. Willetts, Mrs. Merville Veitch, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. George Scott, Miss Belle Burkholder, Mrs. S. R. Vesich, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Tom Ball, Mrs. Claud Kurze and Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

At Harriessburg

Mrs. Morris was hostess to the Marion Sewing club at her home on Wednesday afternoon February 10. Following the regular business meeting, the guests enjoyed a sewing hour. Mrs. Dull assisted in serving refreshments. The club was presided over by Mrs. Alvin Price.