

Society

(Continued)

Upper left, Mrs. Walter T. Carroll; upper right, Mrs. Joseph H. Koke; below, Mrs. Harrison Anderson, who were hostesses for a large bridge tea during the past week.

(Continued from Page Five)

Dr. and Mrs. John Bovard were hosts on Thursday evening at their home for one of the most charming affairs of the week, when they entertained with a buffet supper honoring Captain and Mrs. John J. MacEwan, who have recently arrived in Eugene where Captain MacEwan is taking up his duties as football coach of the University of Oregon.

A graceful bowl of daffodils, with yellow tapers, centered the attractively appointed supper table, an unusual and most diverting feature of the later evening was the presence of Anthony Ewuer of Portland, who was a guest on the campus Thursday and who in his most delightful fashion entertained the group of guests with readings and humorous stories told in his inimitable style.

Bidden to meet Captain and Mrs. MacEwan were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Dean and Mrs. Eric Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Delia Walker, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mrs. Clara Fitch, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly and Dr. Osburne Wilmoth.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Fell have taken up their residence at 1157 High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Powers have left for Portland, where they are to make their future home. Mr. Powers assuming his new duties as head of the university extension bureau with headquarters in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Powers have been popular members of the faculty and will be missed by their wide circle of friends.

For the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Church, who are in Eugene spending several months, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Church were hosts at their home on Fairmount Heights last night for a dance which was among the weeks distinctive affairs.

Bidden to meet Mr. and Mrs. Church were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benefield, Mr. and Mrs. Herald White, Mr. and Mrs. Hank, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Marian Clayer and Mac Bell of Portland, Miss Marcella Berry, Miss Marian Linn, Miss Nancy Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walker, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bovard, Captain and Mrs. John J. MacEwan, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready, Jimmy King, Luckey Bonney, and Raymond Lawrence.

Eugene friends of Mrs. Curtis Peterson (Patty French) are welcoming her back in Eugene after an absence of four years, while she and Mr. Peterson have been making their home in New York city where Mr. Peterson has been studying voice. Mrs. Peterson and her two small daughters arrived last week and are guests of Mr. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. August Peterson in their new home on Thirteenth and Pearl streets.

Mr. Peterson will come west about June 1, and together they will visit in California before returning to the East. Mrs. Peterson was with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. French in Fresno, Cal., for several weeks' visit en route to the coast.

Mrs. Al Cook is spending several days in Portland with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins are receiving the felicitations of their friends on the birth of a daughter at Pacific Christian hospital on Thursday, February 18. She has been named Beverly Rae Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Keister have left for California where they will spend some time visiting.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale had as their guests during the Retail Merchants convention Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ellis (Joanna James) of Rainier, Oregon, who were in Eugene as delegates to the convention. Mrs. Ellis sang several numbers as a feature of the banquet program Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Day have returned from a ten days' vacation stay at Newport.

One of the most elaborate and unique affairs ever given on the campus was the court ball, which Chi Psi men presented Friday night as their annual formal dance. The chapter members received their guests in the woman's building, and a large group of Eugene and out-of-town alumni, high school and university guests were bidden for the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher had as their house guest during his stay on the campus Anthony Ewuer of Portland, who came to Eugene Thursday as speaker at the university assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer entertained at supper Sunday night for members of the committee making arrangements for the Assembly dinner dance which will be a smart event of Tuesday night, February 23, at the Osburn hotel.

The group numbered Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Spencer.

Mrs. Herald White entertained at two small and informal affairs of the week, inviting friends to meet Mrs. Curtis Peterson (Patty French) of New York city, who is in Eugene for the spring months.

On Wednesday Mrs. White included a group of eight friends for a delightful buffet luncheon and bridge, and again on Friday afternoon she invited a few friends for tea to meet Mrs. Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Obertueffer have as their guests for the weekend, Mrs. W. B. Obertueffer of Portland.

Members of Delta Tau Delta were hosts last night for their annual formal, a dinner dance given at the Hotel Eugene for which guests, in addition to a large number of college girls, were Eugene and out-of-town alumni of the chapter.

Mrs. J. M. Miller entertained in a most informal manner at her home on Monday bidding eight friends for a luncheon planned to compliment Mrs. John J. MacEwan who is being welcomed in Eugene at various affairs planned for her pleasure.

A recent affair of much enjoyment to a small group of her intimate friends was the dinner at which Mrs. Ucal Moutjoy entertained in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband. Guests numbered Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wintler, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ed-bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Moutjoy.

Several young friends of Katherine Auld were merrily entertained at the birthday party which a few days ago celebrated Miss Katherine's advent into the teens. Mrs. H. C. Auld entertained at dinner for her daughter, sixteen guests being bidden to enjoy the dinner hour and games which followed. Mr. R. H. Pierce assisted Mrs. Auld.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Swan were among the many Eugene hosts who entertain near St. Valentine's day, bidding a group of friends to make up four tables of bridge. Their guests numbered Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Prentiss, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Ventch, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman W. Moody, Mrs. J. W. Kaye, and the hosts.

Tau Nu girls entertained at a very informal supper party of the week which was planned for the pleasure of Dr. Mary Atwater of Helena, Montana, who was their guest for a few days at midweek.

Guests for the supper numbered a small group of faculty and town friends.

Mr. Atwater departed for her home Friday.

Of interest for the coming week is the tea for which members of Alpha Chi Omega are to be hostesses at their chapter house from three until five o'clock.

In the receiving line will be several Eugene alumnae and patronesses of the group, including: Mrs. Clifford Manerud, Mrs. Arthur Bushman, Mrs. Peter Crockett, Mrs. R. C. Virgil, Mrs. John Larwood, Mrs. Kenneth Moore, and Miss Claudia Broders. Mrs. Frank Whitney (Gwladys Keeney) of Portland will also be in the receiving line.

The musical program will include numbers by Mrs. Whitney, Miss Leota Biggs, Miss Louise Stora, Miss Olive Banks, Miss Frances Morgan, and Miss Alice Southwick.

Announcement was made this week of the marriage of Miss Oleta Sullivan and Reginald Stewart, February 13, in Corvallis. Mrs. Stewart is a senior in the University of Oregon English department and Mr. Stewart is an ex-member of the class of '23.

Miss Vera Hansen, instructor in the art department of the University of California, southern branch, was married to John McGinty, February 3. They are to make their home in Eugene where Mr. McGinty is in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gilstrap have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norton, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. George.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walters entertained Thursday evening for members of the Little Club Around the Corner, when additional guests numbered Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Sco-bert, Mrs. Flora Livermore and Mrs. D. M. Anderson.

Washington birthday suggestions were attractively used in the card table appointments and menu served after the game.

club members Mrs. Kellogg invited Mrs. Lloyd Terrill, Mrs. Donald McDonald, Mrs. Lawrence Manerud, Mrs. Hubert Moor, Mrs. Eugene Kelly, and Miss Carmen Espinosa.

Domestic Art club members will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Koke at her home, with Mrs. R. H. Fields in charge of the program.

Friday Amelia Bridge club members gathered at the Osburn hotel Friday for a one o'clock luncheon, with Mrs. George Keegan hostess to the members.

On Wednesday afternoon the Birthday club spent a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. J. Daniels, with Mrs. C. P. Barnard as an additional hostess.

The decorations in both living and dining rooms were suggestive of spring, with great baskets of jonquils used about the rooms, and yellow and white color note carried out on the table where luncheon was served late in the afternoon. Streamers of yellow extended from the chandelier to the table, and yellow favors and place cards, with burning tapers, completed the effect. Games and sewing occupied the time of the members and one guest, Mrs. George Robbins. Those present were Mrs. Peter Nelson, Mrs. J. W. Pixley, Mrs. Jesse Wells, Mrs. Sally Danner, Mrs. Andrew Hill, Mrs. G. F. Conley, Mrs. Cassie Hyde, Mrs. J. H. Finch, Mrs. W. T. Sherman, Mrs. W. P. Powell, Mrs. Grant Gray and the hostesses.

L. O. E. club met in regular session at the Mks. club Thursday with Mrs. C. J. Daniels and Mrs. Chas. Taylor receiving the club members for early hours of cards. At the tea hour, Mrs. J. L. Heese and Mrs. M. Hutton presided, and daffodils and pussywillows in springtime array decorated the rooms.

Mrs. F. M. Day and Mrs. F. L. Chambers will be in charge of the lawn and tea hour at the next meeting March 4, when officers will be elected following Thursday's nominations.

Mrs. Ralph Crow contributed a most interesting program on the autobiographies of 1925, with also a study of current fiction, for the Fortnightly club meeting on Thursday at the Osburn hotel.

The business meeting was featured by several changes in the club constitution.

Mrs. Harry Hobbs was hostess Friday for a prettily appointed one o'clock luncheon for members of Thursday Sewing club.

Inter Se club members were most pleasantly entertained Thursday by Mrs. H. L. Studley.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Oxner were hosts at their home Wednesday evening for Wednesday club members, who meet for dinner and cards.

Aloha club members were entertained at luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Calkins on Friday.

Mrs. Henry Schwering was hostess Thursday for the regular meeting of Star Boule club, entertaining at her home.

Clubs organized by alumni of various universities and colleges, formed for the purpose of carrying on with the associations, interests, and good times of their college days, are becoming increasingly popular, and the latest of these to add its name to the club realm of Eugene is the Whitman club, organized Tuesday night by sixteen alumni of the college. The organization was completed as a part of the nation-wide celebration of Whitman college founders' day, and an especial part of the program was the radio program broadcast from Whitman, including numbers by the Whitman Glee club and orchestra, and the annual founders' day addresses by Dr. Stephen B. L. Penrose, president of the college.

A greeting was sent from Eugene club, and a short while later the group had the thrill of hearing their greetings read, and reported by Dr. Penrose.

A banquet at College Side Inn started off the organization and later hours were spent by the group of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Milne, Lyle T. Kelling is president of the group, Mafy Lee Kelling vice-president and William Fowler secretary. Several early plans include a spring picnic for the members.

College Crest Neighborhood group met Thursday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. J. King, who entertained in a most pleasurable fashion. A business meeting and study hour were followed by the social tea hour, with needlework, an additional enjoyable diversion for the group.

The Steadfast class of the Presbyterian church, numbering sixty, met at the home of Mrs. J. King, after afternoon for their class party and business meeting. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Ethel Smith re-elected president and Mrs. James Lockberth secretary. Assistant Mrs. J. Walter Clark was elected vice-president. The annual report showed that the membership had doubled during the past year under the able leadership of Mrs. Ethel Smith, for the splendid work and fine spirit of this class. The afternoon passed pleasantly with games and two very entertaining readings by a little "Japanese" maiden, Dorothy Eisenhohn, and beautiful solos by Mrs. W. Haskeville. Delicious home made cookies and tea were served by the hostesses, Mrs. John Jensen, Mrs. Joseph Muhr, Mrs. B. D. Eaton, Mrs. H. D. Smart, Mrs. J. O. Holt, Mrs. Fred Hydrorn, Mrs. J. R. Luckey, Mrs. Belle Smith, Mrs. A. R. Tiffany, Mrs. James Pearson, Mrs. Glen Hill, Mrs. Stewart Fraw, Mrs. E. W. Dunn.

The young peoples society of Grace Lutheran church enjoyed a delightful valentine party Monday evening at the home of its president, Miss Gertrude Deterlein, 1724 Alder street. The evening was spent in playing games, interspersed with confetti, after which a delightful luncheon was served. Those present were, Rev. and Mrs. R. Trautmann and child; Mrs. Chas. Deterlein, Miss Gertrude Deterlein, Florence Libke, Gertrude Libke, Marie, Selix, Emma Zinkler, Marie Zinkler, Paulina Zinkler, Fred Deterlein, Erwin Libke and Edwin Zinkler.

Tomato-Gelatin Salad Simmer for twenty minutes: One quart tomatoes, 1 sliced onion, 1 chopped carrot, with seasonings of a bay leaf, 3 cloves and peppercorns, or a wee share of red pepper. Put this through a sieve; add salt and sugar to taste and while boiling hot add 2 tablespoons add 2 cups of chopped celery and individual molds. Serve on lettuce in cold water, pour into small molds to harden. Use leaf and with boiled or mayonnaise dressing. When just beginning to harden. Aluminum gem tin serve well as ornate dressing.

C. E. F. Hicker, Phone 1622-J, 37 House

The Y. M. C. A. solves the leisure time problem for the boy and the young man. It is worth all it costs, and the best investment our citizens can make. All should boost for the success of Budget Week, February 22 to 28.

RUGS!—RUGS!

Axminsters! Velvets! Brussels! Wiltons!

More than 200 of Them Enter the # Removal Sale

at Remarkable Reductions

The greatest sale of rugs in the history of this department. More than 200 rugs—all grades, all sizes, all kinds—entered in The Removal Sale at prices that speak unheard of economy for those wishing to brighten up the floors for spring. No matter whether you contemplate purchasing a rug now—or in the future—it is certainly worth your while to choose now—while the unheard-of prices prevail this week.

- $60—9x12 "Bigelow-Hartford" Bussorah Axminster $46.85
- $65—Size 9x12 Wilton Dorman Rugs $49.50
- $142—9x12 Domestic Oriental Rugs—Now Priced $98.50
- $55—Size 9x9 Wiltana Seamless Velvet Rugs $41.50
- $74—Clinton Body Brussels Rugs—9x12 Size $39.50
- $80—Cashmere Wilton Velvet Rugs—Size 9x12 $69.50
- 9x12 Slightly Imperfect Winton Seamless Velvet Rugs $32.85
- $46—9x9 Heavy Grade Axminster Rugs $33.75
- $24.50 to $38.50 Tapestry Brussels Rugs—8-3x10-6—Choice $19.75
- $41.50—Genuine "Klearflax" All Linen Rugs—9x12 $19.85
- $32.50—8-3x10-6 "Klearflax" Linen Rugs $16.25
- $28—Extra Heavy Quality Fiber Rugs—9x12 $14.00
- $12—Light Weight Fiber Rugs—2-Tone Tan—9x12 $6.95
- $7.50—Oriental Grass Rugs—Assorted Colors—9x12 $4.95
- $7 and $8—High Grade Carpet Samples—27x54 Inches $4.95

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD—USE IT!

WETHERBEE
- POWERS

WE CHARGE NO INTEREST

WE CHARGE NO INTEREST

1417 NINTH AND OAK