

MODERNIZING, by the Traub process, involves neither cutting your wedding ring nor harming the inside surface. The same ring you wore on your marriage day will be returned to you, with the Traub Genuine Orange Blossom pattern overlaid in hard iridio-platinum or 18 K. special white gold, as you prefer. It likewise costs little to have your engagement diamond reset in a mounting to match.

STUDENT LUNCHEON HELD

MEMBERS OF DRIVE COMMITTEE ARE GUESTS
Final Preparations for Collection of Delinquent Pledges of Over $9000 Made

More than 150 members of the student union drive committee of the University of Oregon were entertained at luncheon at Hendricks hall, at which meeting the final preparations for the spring vacation drive to collect delinquent pledges were made.

Dr. Henry D. Sheldon, chairman of the executive committee of the university, talked to the group, giving the history of the drive and the gift campaign, which was inaugurated by the late President P. L. Campbell.

"The initial success of the student union drive," he said, "gave a great impetus to the whole gift campaign. The gift campaign is to be carried on to its conclusion, and this fact, which you have set for yourselves, will have a most beneficial effect."

"The sum of over $200,000 which was originally pledged," explained Walter Malcolm, president of the student body, "for the purpose of constructing a student union building, but these funds which we are to collect are to be loaned to the basketball pavilion fund."

The outstanding pledges which are due now, it was stated, amount to $450,000. Under the general chairmanship of Romayne Brand, committees have been appointed according to home towns, and each person is given a list of several names of persons whom he is to solicit.

The committee heads are: Arthur Hamilton, Salem; Doris Brophy, Medford; Marion Horsfall, Marshfield; Edna Murphy, Pendleton; Ward Cook, Astoria; Glenn Radabaugh, Roseburg; Beatrice Harden, The Dalles; Dick Hoyt, Portland; Rupert Gilbert, Eugene, and Peter Ermler, outside of state.

Members of the Eugene committee are: Campbell Church, Ted Van Gulder, Eugene Slattery, Benoit McCroskey, Willmet Getty, Lester Olson, Arthur Blair, Max Robinson, Clarence Lidberg, Lee Withrow, Roger DeBusk, Robert Giffen, Alice McKinnon, Ruth Larsen, Catherine Sarrafin, Lyle McMurphy, Edna Stewart, Marie O'Connell, Wilbur Hays, Geraldine Spence, Florence Radabaugh, Harold Hunnicutt and Clair Kneeland.

BANK INSTITUTE PLANNED

LANE COUNTY CHAPTER TO BE FORMED SOON
Committee Appointed Last Night at Meeting of Association in Cottage Grove Hotel

Organization of a Lane county chapter of the American Institute of Banking will take place just as soon as a committee of the Lane County Bankers' association can work out details and arrange for a meeting, it was announced last night following a meeting of the county association in the Hotel Bartel at Cottage Grove.

Those appointed on the committee by Frederick N. Egan, of the Lane County Bankers' association are: C. D. Rorer, chairman; F. N. McAllister, O. A. Hougum, M. W. Starbuck and Claude Washburne.

S. F. White, agricultural instructor under the Smith-Hughes system and member of the high school faculty at Cottage Grove was also a speaker at the meeting. Music was provided by a local orchestra and George Mathews sang several vocal solos.

NEW UNIFORM ORDERED

NATIONAL GUARD OFFICERS TO MAKE CHANGE
Present Coats to Be Remodeled and Will Have Low Collar and Lapels, Low Word

Order to remodel uniform coats to conform with the new type, which has been received by local national guard officers, according to Major William G. White, post commander.

Under the order it is presumed by the guardsmen that the present uniform can be transformed into the new type and army tailors at Vancouver barracks have been instructed how to do this without impairing the uniform, it was said.

These coats are to be worn for field and dress service until such time as a new uniform is needed, when the officers will be required to spend their annual clothing allowance on a complete new outfit, said Major White.
