

NOTES

Notable among the week's events was the Assembly club dance of Monday night, which was by way of observing the arrival of St. Patrick's day.

As a variation in the former program, the committee members received at the Campa Shoppe, and the good music and congenial surroundings added much to the pleasure of the dance. Several St. Patrick's day features were introduced during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Moxley head the committee for the next dance, which will probably be an informal dance during April.

Wednesday evening the Weehavah club group were entertained for dinner and cards by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ingalls, at their home.

Mrs. John Seavey invited Inter So club members to be her guests for a one o'clock luncheon on Thursday at her home.

The hostess for Wednesday bridge club's meeting the week past was Mrs. R. M. Pratt, who entertained at her home.

Monday Book club met the first of the week at the home of Mrs. A. E. Roberts, who entertained at her home with a one o'clock luncheon which preceded the afternoon program. For this Mrs. Walter Barnes gave an interesting talk on the progress of fiction.

Four plans were completed for the club's annual guest day, which will be an event of April 12 at the home of Mrs. J. B. Bell, and Mrs. L. T. Bean is chairman of the committee on arrangements for this annual club affair. An additional interesting event of this spring will be the May day party at the home of Mrs. W. R. Collins. Funds were voted to the juvenile hospital in Portland.

The next meeting will be on March 29 at the home of Mrs. C. J. Tschoner, with Mrs. C. L. Collins as assistant hostess.

Sans Souci club members met Wednesday, being guests of Mrs. E. M. Schaefer, with Mrs. C. L. Collins as assistant hostess.

N. U. A. club met Thursday night as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaefer, who entertained at their home.

Mrs. P. H. Crosby, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. M. M. Davis, Mrs. E. A. Drost and Mrs. E. H. Ford were joint hostesses for Daughters of the Nile club meeting on Wednesday at the Sabrin Hotel.

The tea room was arranged with spring flowers, and on the luncheon table were gay motifs suggestive of St. Patrick's day. The same note being carried out in the afternoon program, which followed early hours of needlework.

Mrs. F. M. Bettis was a guest of the club.

During the afternoon, the outgoing officers, who numbered Mrs. L. E. Bean, Mrs. Fred Walters, Mrs. David Jones, Mrs. Wayne Green and Mrs. John Ketels were presented with beautiful gifts from the club.

Misses Ruth and Beulah Wynd and Roy Ford played a group of musical numbers.

The next meeting in April will be at Cotnam Grove, with Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. Garroute, Mrs. Earl Hill and Mrs. Roy Shurt as hostesses.

Carnegie club members met Friday afternoon for a most pleasurable session as guests of Mrs. J. F. Crandall.

Mrs. Vern Seibert was a luncheon hostess at Hotel Eugene Friday at 1 o'clock, bidding us her guests the group of friends who make up Friday-America bridge club. After the luncheon hour, Mrs. Seibert's guests played bridge at her home.

Friday afternoon Mrs. C. N. Johnston entertained most pleasantly for the Westside bridge club group at her home.

Wednesday afternoon at her home, Mrs. F. A. Baker entertained for the members of College Street Neighborhood club, the members enjoying the usual afternoon of needlework, supplemented by interesting program study and club discussion.

Wicklow, Mrs. C. Stroome, Mrs. J. Hart, Mrs. J. J. Nicolle, Mrs. Walter Campbell, Mrs. S. J. Gray, Mrs. C. H. Howard, Mrs. J. R. Liles, Mrs. L. W. Rollins, Mrs. J. T. Bennett, Mrs. C. Baker, Guest hostess Mrs. J. O. Luesler, Mrs. J. W. Woodruff, Mrs. L. O. Howard. The new members are Mrs. C. Kammerer and Mrs. H. Tolle. Next meeting will be April 21 at the home of Mrs. Cora Emerson.

At Santa Clara (Register Lake County Special) OAKIDGE, March 20.—A dance Saturday night March 20 was the main week-end function here. It was given by the grade school, the proceeds went to the fund for building a play shed on the school grounds.

The women of the district furnished light refreshments which were sold. The money realized from the lunch also went to the school.
