Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps Her So Much

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I was just completely run-down. I had tired, heavy, sluggish feelings and I could not eat. I was losing weight. I read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what a good medicine it is, that I started taking it. I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and about the same as tablet form. This is one medicine a woman should have in the house all the time. I am improving every day and I sure am able to eat. I am willing to answer any letters asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ELLA RICHARDS, 21 Chautauqua St., N. S. Pittsburgh, Pa.

ceived earlier in the day in a motorcycle accident near Prescott, Jones, riding with a companion, was thrown to the pavement. The other lad was uninjured.

The crowd, most of whom appeared as if they had come off the farms of the middle west, staged demonstrations in the principal hotel lobbies and went so far as to shout their message with the Hoover headquarters on the mezzanine floor of the Baltimore hotel.

At one stage of their pilgrimage to the convention center, the farmers stopped in the Curtis headquarters, and shouting "anybody but Hoover," demanded a speech from the Kansas senator.

Patriotism Given
BADGES ARE GIVEN
Community Service
Award Made
By G. W. M.
Patriotism, an important part of the Scout life, is being taught to the boys
of the organization.
That was last night at the McMoran Washburne store as a major event of the year.
The room was filled with an exciting crowd of smiling boys and their mothers and their aunts who had gathered to see the award of the badges and the other major ceremonies of the evening.
It was found that the boys were surprised in store, and the surprise was whispered of what was to be had filtered out, and they were surprised, and of applause greeted the event.
After the award of the badges, which were presented by the
W. R. C., the boys
began to excitement to be seen.
Home
nurses
were found, and
the badges are all satisfactory surprises are much more than are presented.
The
thrill of the evening was at the last, when at eight o'clock
boys played on the piano, a number of members of the Eugene
auxiliary marched to the stage.
The
procession was in
the
color bearing of the national and league and as they passed
the badges
the Girl
Scouts
rose to attention.
Then
came
the award
of each troop
brilliant
and
exciting ceremony which had just been held
front
the
W. R. C.
parade
organization
of Eugene.
They
went back
young girls with
new
colors
made a most impressive sight
be seen.
Miss Wintler,
president
the Eugene
Legion
auxiliary,
charge
the
organization,
presented
troop
the equipment
the troops
like.
Mrs.
Wintler
stated that in all
years
the
organization,
auxiliary
has worked beyond its work
to aid
the
troops
for
various causes.
But
this
their interest
civil affairs
the community
gift
support
the

from
other scout
officials,
is
the
award
the letter
of
commendation.
Mrs.
Baker,
who presided at
the
meeting,
put it, "This
the
award
