

NOMINEE IS LAUDED BY TAMMANY HALL LEADER

Olvany Says People to Love All When They Know Him

OTHERS EXPRESS VIEWS

Franklin Roosevelt Says It Has Taken Eight Years to Persuade Country of Certainty

HOUSTON, Texas, June 28. — (AP)—George W. Olvany, leader of Tammany Hall, declared in a statement tonight after the nomination of Governor Smith for president that "when the people of the whole of the United States know him as New York does, they will love him and give him their suffrage."

He expressed the thanks of the party in New York for the confidence manifested in the governor by the convention.

Similar sentiment came from Smith's nominator and champion, Franklin D. Roosevelt, who said: "It has taken eight years to persuade the country of what it was certain in 1929. It goes without saying that I am more happy tonight and I am very firmly of the belief that Governor Smith will see growth and increase in the good wishes of the country that he will be elected by a large majority next November."

Van Namee Lends Voice
George R. Van Namee, the Smith manager, who issued a statement as soon as the governor's vote total had crossed the necessary two-thirds mark. He said there were many reasons why Smith's nomination was a foregone conclusion.

Four of the reasons he listed were that Smith is the outstanding man of his party and country; that his gubernatorial service has proved him a man of exceptional ability; that his legislative record has never been equaled and that he has always been constructive and sane in every respect and sound in judgment."

whose producers are benefited by such assistance.

Finance and taxation: A further reduction of the internal taxes of the people; administration of the federal reserve system for the benefit of the farmer, wage earners, merchants and manufacturers and to the advantage of "stock market speculators."

Tariff: Enactment of a measure designed to maintain legitimate business and a high standard for American labor with duties that will permit effective competition, insure against monopoly and from the tariff commission from "the executive domination which has destroyed the usefulness of the present commission."

Foreign policy: Outlawry of war; freedom from entangling political alliances with other nations; protection of American lives and rights; reduction of armament and non-interference with the elections of other internal political affairs of any foreign nation, including "Mexican, Nicaraguan, and all other Latin-American nations."

Water power, water ways: Deep water ways from the Great Lakes to the gulf and to the Atlantic ocean and the expeditious construction of flood relief works on the Mississippi and Colorado rivers.

Labor: Collective bargaining, exemption of labor from operation of the anti-trust laws, and correction of the abuses in the leasing of injunctions in labor disputes.

Veterans: Generous appropriations, honest management, removal of vexatious and administration delays, and sympathetic assistance for the veterans of all wars.

Unemployment: Correction of this misfortune by adoption of a scientific plan for construction of necessary public works during periods of labor depression.

Women and children: Equality of women with men in all political and governmental affairs and protection of children through their infancy and childhood.

Immigration: Preservation of the civil law, but with elimination of provisions that separate husbands from wives and parents from infant children.

Radio: Government control must prevent monopolistic use of radio communication and guarantee equitable distribution and enjoyment thereof.

Congressional elections reform: Abolishing "lame duck" sessions of congress by advancing the date for the new congresses to meet to two months after the general election.

Campaign expenditures: Improper and excessive use of money in elections is condemned and a pledge made for publicity of Democratic campaign receipts and expenditures in the coming election every 20 days beginning with August 1.

Merchant marine: Continued government operation, but with the gradual sale of ships and lines to private owners.

Education: Federal offers to the state of such counsel, advice, report of research and aid as may be made available through the federal agencies for the general improvement of schools.

Monopolies and anti-trust laws: Strict enforcement of the anti-trust laws and the enactment of others to control monopolies and protect the small merchant and manufacturer.

Flood control: Endorsement of the Jones-White bill for Mississippi river and Sacramento river flood control.

Rights of states: Constitutional rights and powers of the states shall be preserved and bureaucracy and the multiplication of offices and office-holders sharply checked. Economy and reorganization: Business-like organization of all government departments; elimination of all duplication, waste and overlapping and substitution of modern business methods.

Transportation: Encouragement of the development of air transportation; continued federal aid for good roads and the provision of common carriers, whether by land, water or rail, in an equal opportunity to compete.

Insular possessions: Development of self-government for Alaska and Hawaii with appointment of only bona fide residents to office in the territories.

Philippines: Immediate independence.

Porto Rico: Territorial government or government as would best meet the islands' needs with a view to ultimate statehood.

Two Cabinet Vacancies Loom
President Coolidge will have two vacancies in his cabinet to fill July 1 when Secretary Hoover vacates the commerce department to start his presidential campaign and Secretary Work resigns from the interior department to devote himself to the chairmanship duties. It was generally understood that E. C. Finney, at present assistant secretary of the interior probably will be selected as Dr. Work's successor.

At the commerce department, Walter S. Brown, now first assistant secretary, William P. McCracken Jr., assistant secretary in charge of aeronautics and Dr. Julius Klein, chief of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, were mentioned as Hoover's possible successors.

enforcement of the prohibition enforcement laws along with all others. Both wells and Jrys took the speaker's stand to ask the convention to accept the plank as submitted, and for the first time in years a Democratic platform was approved without a floor fight.

Nomination of a running mate for the new party standard bearer will be accomplished at a final session of the 1928 convention tomorrow. As the delegates separated late tonight, it was the expectation of most of the leaders that the vice-presidential choice would be Senator Robinson of Arkansas, his party's leader in the senate and chairman of this convention.

LOGS KILL TWO LOGGERS

McMINNVILLE, Ore., June 27. —(AP)—Troy Levy, 27, and Lewis Leach, 54, were killed yesterday in two logging accidents. Levy was crushed by a rolling log at the Flora logging camp near here. Leach met death when a tree glanced on another as it was falling and struck him while he was at work in a camp near Tillamook.

Rival Rum Runners Killed
DETROIT, Mich., June 27. —(AP)—August J. (Gus) Nykiel, 23, reputed rum baron and Michael Dupla, alleged leader of a rival rum running faction were shot to death and a constable and a woman bystander were seriously wounded during a pistol battle here tonight.
