MANY DRIVE TO COAST
ROADS TO FLORENCE ARE SLIPPERY FROM RAIN

(Register Lane County Special)
FLORENCE, Ore., July 5.—Notwithstanding the slippery roads leading from the valley to Florence, about 50 automobiles arrived here on the Fourth, the occupants going to the beaches and the different resorts in this locality.

The recent rains made the roads between here and Mapleton slippery and somewhat dangerous to travel, but most of the cars came over them without serious mishap.

ELMIRA ITEMS
(Register Lane County Special)
ELMIRA, Ore., July 5.—The excavating at the high school is finished and now waiting for Perrie and son of Springfield to lay the cement floor.
Clifford Wilson spent the Fourth in Bandon, visiting with friends. Steve Rowles spent a quiet Fourth at home nursing a broken rib.

The weather man must have forgotten that Elmira is in Oregon, as he fails to send us rain.
The revival meeting will continue until Sunday. The gospel is presented in sermon and song.
