

ARAWAY'S

The Sparklets Speak

SHE: Sparkus! I'm afraid that boy suspects something—he's so grumpy.

HE: Darling! If you want to avoid suspicion you'll have to close your eyes and cover your wedding ring. They both sparkle like diamonds.

SHE: I can't help that. My eyes are visioning the happiness that the white roses on my ring promise.

Seth Laraway
Diamond Merchant and Jeweler

Caught in the Rounds

at Coquille—L. L. Grainger, freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific at Coquille on business.

holders here—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gilmore are here on their annual vacation.

ed $10—G. R. Frey, accused of impersonating during the Fourth of July celebration, appeared before Judge yesterday and was fined $10.

Manager Arrives—Mrs. W. D. Gilmore are here on their annual vacation.

It Always Pays To Trade At Gray's

We are particularly proud of the quality of our Hams, Bacon, Sausages and Wienies—all made and smoked in our own kitchen.

Pure Pork Sausage Per lb. 20¢
Pork Steaks Per lb. 22¢
Loin Pork Chops Per lb. 30¢

Expected Steer Pot Roast, per lb. 20¢
Breakfast Bacon, per lb. 35¢

Walnuts per lb. 20¢
Kellogg's Corn Flakes 3 for 25¢
Bread Board With 10 bars Peets Soap 59¢

OFFEE—Maxwell House or Schilling's, per lb. 52¢

emonstration Alpine Milk by Miss Seely. See the mechanical w in our Park Street window.

Fruits and Vegetables

Golden Bananas 4 lbs. 25¢
Ripe Tomatoes 3 lbs. 25¢
Lemons per dozen 29¢

DEPARTMENT—EASTERN OR WESTERN OIL
Bring Your Own Container and SAVE ½

Prices Good on Motor Stores

GRAY'S CASH CARRY

will conduct it along the same lines as Mr. Franklin. This is one of the best country stores in Lane county.

Handy Given Bail—T. E. Handy, arrested in Portland on a charge of non-support, preferred here, yesterday gave $1000 bail and was released.

Forest Official on Trip—E. J. Grete, in charge of construction work in the Cascade national forest, went to Fall Creek yesterday to inspect some construction work there.

Oklahoman up McKenzie—F. C. Tower of Mansfield, Okla., accompanied by Fred Flisk of Eugene, yesterday went on a fishing trip up the McKenzie river. Mr. Tower is an old friend of Mr. Flisk, visiting in Eugene.

Oakridge Druggist Here—Charles Croner, Oakridge druggist, was in the city yesterday. His store was robbed a few nights ago. Nearly $100 in cash and a small quantity of goods were taken but the robber overlooked $100 in currency.

Scottish Rite Reunion Dated—The Scottish Rite bodies of Eugene are planning their semi-annual reunion November 8, 9 and 10 at Maxon temple. It was announced yesterday. They have not held one for a year. It is expected that a large number will be initiated at that time.

Open House to Be Held—Open house is planned at the Westminster house at Fourteenth avenue east and Kincaid street for the summer school students at the university Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. It was announced yesterday. Mrs. P. M. Carter, hostess at the house, has charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Berry and John Alexander of Belmont, N. D., were here yesterday visiting Mrs. Della Walker, 645 Madison street. They are on their way to Bremerton, Wash. They expressed themselves as being much impressed with Eugene and this part of the state.

Fruit and Vegetable Business Bought—H. C. Kuppenbender, known to the fruit and vegetable trade of Eugene and Lane county as "Hub" yesterday took charge of the fruit and vegetable at Stanley's, corner Broadway and Olive streets, having purchased it. He formerly held positions at both Haskell's and at Ax Billy's.

Woman Becomes Insane on Stage—Mrs. Jennie Harvey, on her way from Los Angeles to Seattle on a motor stage, became insane near Eugene late Thursday night and was taken off here by the police. She was turned over to the county authorities and was committed to the state hospital at Salem yesterday by County Judge Barnard.

Visit at Ragan Home—Mrs. E. P. Eastman and son, Fred of Pomona, Cal., accompanied by Mrs. E. M. Spaulding of Bellingham, Wash., were guests at the Lee Ragan residence over the Fourth. They were driving through from California to Bellingham and Mrs. Ragan and daughter, Eleanor, joined them here for the rest of the trip. They Daisies DO Tell!

In this instance they tell a story of what's chic in summer sports costume. The basic color is red, the material silk; there's a neckerchief, wrist ties and several other decorative touches. And for that matter, Renee Adoree's decorative, too.

(International Illustrated News)

will visit Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Spaulding and also Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., before returning to Eugene.

Ayres Goes to Spokane—W. A. Ayres, secretary of the Lane County Farm and Loan association, will attend a meeting of the district farm loan officials of this district to be held in Spokane next week. He leaves today.

Dr. Haas Is Speaker—Dr. J. Franklin Haas, pastor of the First Methodist church, was the speaker at yesterday's meeting of the High Twelve, his topic being "Prefluence." H. R. Gould, new superintendent of the local schools, was a guest.

Miss Barnard Leaves—Miss Margaret Barnard, retiring secretary of the Lane county chapter of the American Red Cross, will go to Portland today where she will have charge of a course for Red Cross secretaries given under the extension service of the University of Oregon.

Visit Canning Plant—The plant of the Eugene Fruit Growers association was visited yesterday by 50 Four-H club members of a canning class which held a demonstration at the chamber of commerce yesterday. All phases of the canning process used at the plant were inspected by the youngsters.

Forest Officials Return—A. O. Waba, assistant district forester, E. W. Lovelidge, inspector out of the Washington, D. C., office of the forest service, and Nelson F. Macduff, supervisor of the Cascade national forest were scheduled to return last night after a trip of 10 days into the McKenzie region.

Bend Chamber Is Invited—The Eugene chamber of commerce has sent an invitation to the Bend chamber to come to Eugene Sunday to attend two competitive events between the two cities—a

from PARIS STRAIGHT

PARIS (AP)—A silk fabric with two faces, one plain and the other printed, is a favorite for lightweight serviceable summer coats. Paul Caret sees the material in crushed raspberry shade for a straight line coat with loose bands which pass under an indicated belt to reappear in narrow, gathered panels on the skirt of the coat.

baseball game and trapshoot. The shoot will be held at the airport with the Eugene and Bend gun clubs competing. The ball game will be in the afternoon.

Marriage License Issued—A marriage license was issued yesterday at the office of County Clerk Dilard to Harold C. Taylor of Wendling and Edna M. Vaughan of Eugene.

Vacation Starts Monday—Vacation starts Monday for Traffic Officer Arthur Currie of the city force. Currie will travel over Oregon and probably will go to California on his motorcycle.

Funeral to Be Today—The funeral of Leslie A. Walker will be held at the Veatch chapel this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Fred Hornshuh officiating. Interment will be at the new L. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mrs. Osburn in Vienna—Mrs. Rose Osburn of this city, who is touring Europe, was in Vienna when last heard from and she stated in letters to friends that she was thoroughly enjoying the fine music to be heard there.

Are Wed at Study—Miss Edna M. Vaughan, Eugene, and Harold C. Taylor, Wendling, were married at the study of the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon by Dr. C. L. Trawin. Members of the families witnessed the ceremony.

Gospel Meetings to Be Held—Gospel meetings will be held by the Bible Standard mission at North Sunday at 2:45 p. m. It was announced yesterday. The Lord's supper will be observed. Rev. Vernon Haley will speak and Miss Tullen Clark will sing.

Beets Will Soon Be Canned—The first run on beets will be started at the cannery of the Eugene Fruit Growers association July 15. It was announced yesterday. The same grades as prevailed last year will be used. The last run on rhubarb will be started Monday, July 2.

School Building Work Rushes—Work of erecting the gymnasium for the Creswell high school is being rushed, according to Mrs. Grace Kirkham, teacher in the school there. Besides the gymnasium four additional class rooms and other rooms are being provided.

Mrs. Handsaker Suffers Stroke—Mrs. Sarah J. Handsaker, Lane county pioneer, who is over 90 years old, suffered a stroke on July 4 and is now at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Guley, at 749 Fourteenth avenue east. She is able to sit up but cannot get around alone.

Initiation Is Held—Miss Ruby Ann Lorence, a graduate of Barnard college, who is teaching this summer at the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth, was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary society, at ceremonies at the woman's building on the University of Oregon campus last night.

Lawn Social Planned—A lawn social is being planned by the women of the Central Presbyterian church at the manse, next door to the church, Thursday evening at 6:15. It was announced yesterday. The ladies' aid society will have charge and will serve coffee. Brief reports covering the first quarter of the year from all organizations will be made and discussion of important plans will come up.

Printers to Have Picnic—The third quarterly meeting of the Willamette Valley Typographical conference will be held at Riverside park, on the Coast Fork, Sunday, July 15, in connection with the annual picnic of Eugene printers. A full program is being arranged by the printers, and a baseball game between the Guard and the Register is scheduled.

Marcola Road to Be Oiled Monday—The road through Marcola will be oiled Monday. It was announced by members of the county court yesterday. The road will be oiled for half a mile or more. Oil used by the state in treating the McKenzie highway will be used. All truck travel will be kept off the road for a few days but ordinary automobile traffic will be allowed; it was announced.

County Will Build Bridge—The county court has promised the farmers of Goodpasture island that it will build a 300-foot bridge across the old channel of the river for a new road to be built from "Chuck Town" across the island. It was announced by members of the court yesterday. This road and bridge will accommodate a large number of farmers in that locality and will be a little over a mile long.

T. A. Hill's Brother Injured—Henry C. Hill, capitalist of Galesburg, Ill., was seriously injured in his home town last Monday when his automobile collided with a concrete abutment. He ran his car into the abutment to avoid striking a small boy on a bicycle, according to word received yesterday by his brother, T. A. Hill, manager of the Vetterbee-Powers store in Eugene. He was unconscious for some time after the accident and was recovering at last reports. Mr. Hill visited his brother here last March.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
THE ROSICRUCIAN STUDY CENTER picnic is postponed for a week. Regular meeting Wednesday, and final picnic plans will be made.

THE ANNUAL PICNIC OF THE Texas Ladies' club will be held Sunday, July 8, at Coburg bridge. Come and bring well-filled baskets. All former Texas residents are requested to come. Coffee, sugar and lemonade will be furnished by the club.

Today—We Cut Loose Again For The Second Big Week of Our Gigantic REMODELING SALE

Determined in our effort to force out this stock, we have regrouped many lines—throwing many higher priced sale lots in with lower price groups, as well as creating new low priced sale lots. Right now, while selections are large, is the best time to come and share in this great sale.

Pied Piper Sandals

These shoes we are closing out at less than half price. The sizes run from 1½ to 2 in misses' white pearl elk leather two-strap, buttoned and zandals. $1.85

Children's Patent

Children's patent leather strap slippers grouped at one price regardless of style or former selling price—NOW $1.85

For Women

This season's most stylish numbers in colored kid pumps, ranging in shades from water lily to rose; strap patterns Louis heels. sell regular from $8.50 to $10.00 the pair—

$4.85 and $6.35

Domino Sandals

These sandals sold for $10 the pair. Patent leather parchment calf skin; canary red and eggshell blue, all in 2½-in. French heel covered with wisteria calf. While they last—

$3.45

Novelty Strap Pump

Turned sole, Floret pattern. Sauterne kid, trimmed with Sauterne water snake, 2½-in. French heel. Originally $12.50 value at..... $4.85

Sale
Continues
Daily

GRAHAM'S
FOOTWEAR

In Eugene It's Graham's For Shoes
828 Willamette St.

Another
Big Week
of Bargains

ANNOUNCEMENTS
THE WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS will hold its quarterly dinner today at 12 o'clock at the armory. Invitation is for comrades and wives and comrades' widows, members of the Relief Corps and their immediate families. No one allowed in the kitchen or dining rooms except the helpers until dinner is served.

MR. WHITESMITH, THE MINISTER of the Unitarian church, has sent the Rev. Guy Fitch Phelps a reply to his recently published attack on the modernist ministers. In doing so he has requested that, should he make use of Mr. Whitesmith's reply, he shall read it in its entirety and not selections.

Theatre

Hells—The Manhattan Players in their stage comedy riot, "Why Wives Worry." Two complete performances at 2:30 and 8:30.

Coming: Marie Prevost in "The Rush Hour," the Manhattan Players in that great play "The Cat and the Canary," Lerdo's Mexico orchestra, one day only, Thursday, July 12. Singer's Musical Comedy company in the big success, "Lomardi Ltd."

Insurance of All Kinds
C. L. Sigman, W. P. Fell, Phone 697
7-7-11

Transfer Your Register
Just because you are leaving Eugene temporarily is no reason why you should not continue to enjoy reading the Morning Register. Take it with you on your vacation, no matter whether you are leaving the state or not. All you have to do is phone 1700 and give your new address or write to the circulation department. 6-8-11

"Get them at The Eugene Packing Co. and your wife'll never know the difference."

If you saw the 4th of July parade you will remember that we offered prizes to those who could most accurately estimate the weight of the steer in our entry... Today is the last day to turn in your estimate... The persons who are most skillful in estimating weights will receive prizes. Turn in yours today.

Municipal Inspected Meats

Eugene Packing Co
Telephone 38 675 Willamette St.

ONE FRIEND TELLS ANOTHER