TRAFFIC OFFICER WEDS

GENEVA AKERLEY AND MR. CURRIE GIVEN LICENSE

If wary motorists notice the absence of Arthur Currie, vigilant traffic officer, from the streets during the next two weeks, it will be because Currie has himself turned motorist and is out traversing the state's highways on a honeymoon trip.

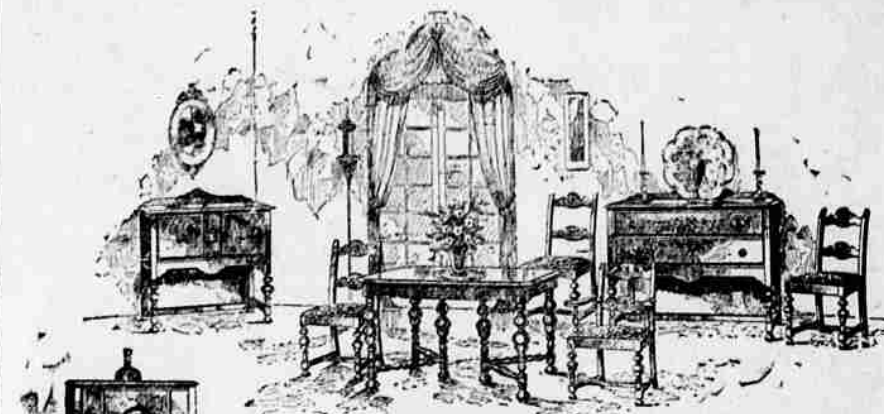

The officer last night admitted the truth—namely, that Miss Geneva Akerley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Akerley of Minerva, is to become his bride on next Tuesday evening. Miss Akerley is a member of the staff at the Kennel-Ellis studio, and is well known in Eugene. After a two-weeks honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Eugene.
