ON WAY TO CRATER LAKE

Public Service Body Hosts to Oregon Visitors on Short Week-end Excursion

R. H. Meyer, member of the Interstate commerce commission together with a large party including eastern and middle western railroad officials, members of the public service commission of Oregon and other prominent persons were guests of a group of Eugene residents at an informal banquet at the Eugene hotel last night.

The party arrived in Eugene last evening from Portland and will leave early this morning for a tour of the southern part of the state.

Mr. Meyer is now in Portland attending the hearing of the Columbia basin rate case. Several of the others on the short tour are there for the interests of their respective lines.

Medford Next Stop—The party will go first to Medford and from there to Klamath Falls. Sunday will be spent at Crater Lake and the return trip will be made by the way of Bend and The Dalles-California highway.

It is the aim of the public service commission members, sponsors of the trip, to give the Oregon visitors a short but comprehensive view of the many attractions of the state.

Speakers at the dinner last night included E. Bean, chairman of the state public service commission, Arthur R. Mackley, examiner for the interstate commerce commission and J. A. Ormsby of the Southern Pacific company.

Included in the party are the following: B. H. Meyer, member of the interstate commerce commission; Arthur H. Mackley and George J. Hall, examiners for the interstate commerce commission; J. J. Murphy, member of the state railroad commission of South Dakota, and his wife; James Neal, of the Washington department of public works; R. J. Hagman, St. Paul, Minn., attorney representing the Great Northern and Northern Pacific; A. B. Enoch, representative of the Kansas City board of trade; S. J. Watrick and wife of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wilkinson, San Francisco; George J. Hall and Arthur R. Mackley, Washington, D. C.; F. E. Dolle, Seattle and H. E. Marty, Portland.

Return to Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Mitchell of Seattle, who have been visiting Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hoppe, are returning home this morning accompanied by Angie Bogart and Mrs. Dolph Howard, who will spend their days in Seattle, Vancouver, B. C. and other points north before returning to Eugene.

Umpqua Fishing Popular—Fishing on the north Umpqua river in the Steamboat region is proving popular with local fishermen. Al Cook and later Woodin visited the north Umpqua earlier in the week and yesterday Bruce B. Brundage and a visitor from Los Angeles left for the river. Hugh Earle and Dr. M. Day are scheduled to leave today.

Three Marriage Licenses Issued—Three couples were licensed to wed yesterday. License was issued by County Clerk Leland to the following: James Kenneth Bell of Eugene and Garnett Lloyd Burkhardt of Marshfield; Charles Edward Seaver of Eugene and Cecelia Sullivan of Portland; O. Philmon Northing of Eugene and Martha Lois Everson of Creswell.

NEWS OF CANARY

CANARY, Ore., July 19.—Henderson is home from the U. S. navy on a month's leave of absence, starting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Risenhuber, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bus and family and Mr. and Mrs. Kolor and family drove over the mountain to spend Sunday on Sweets creek. Their car broke down just after coming down from Sunset mountain, and a neighbor brought them home.

Maxine Harrington of the Maple Dale farm drove into Florence Monday on a business trip. She was accompanied by Miss Ivadell Trouty of Berrydale.

Quite a number of the young folks of Canary attended the Grange dance at Glenada Saturday night.

Mr. G. P. Fisk returned from Shasta, Marion county, Monday. She was accompanied by her ten-year-old son, Harold Grover, who has made his home with his grandparents in the past, but will stay at the Willowbrook farm from now on with his mother and stepfather.

C. A. Bester, who is operating a logging camp at Mapleton, came home to spend Sunday at the home ranch.

L. N. Austin drove to Eugene last week on business connected with the roadwork. Mr. Austin is road patrolman of district No. 53.

G. P. Fisk of the Willowbrook farm, and Burt Wilkins, who also owns a large farm on Maple creek, have each had new milking machines installed this week. The machines cost from $455 to $489 according to the style, but Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. Fisk both say they are well worth the money as they save time and labor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Baker were shaking hands with old friends at Canary Sunday. Mr. Baker was on his way to Ada Grange, where he spoke on the income tax question.

About 40 young folks from Canary, Ada and Berrydale spent Sunday afternoon at Whoaik lake, swimming.

Mrs. Jessie Stevenson of Kroll is spending a few days at the old home ranch at Canary.

Francis Austin, who works for the S. P. company, went to North Bend Sunday to spend the day with his cousin, Lloyd Stone.

Paul Boyles and wife and son, Wallace, of Berrydale, have moved to Eugene where Mr. Boyles expects to find work. They made the trip to Newport and Waldport in hopes of seeing "Uncle Peggy" Boyles, as they have not heard from him since they first received the news of his cart being wrecked and it is feared that Uncle Peggy's injuries are more serious than they were first thought to have been.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastman Severy and their daughter, Neva and little son, Drew Eastman, of Pawn were visitors at Mrs. Severy's former home, the Prouty berry farm at Berrydale, Wednesday.

Mrs. W. F. Cronister, formerly Eunice Carl of Maple creek, now of Vernonia, spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. G. W. Mortin, and the sisters and brother attended a family reunion at the home of their sister, Mrs. Fred Hewitt at Cushman Thursday.
