CHALLENGER RESTS AS HEAT FLOODS HIS CAMP

Tom Will End His Intensive Workouts Saturday

FAIRHAVEN, N. J., July 20.— (AP)—The broiling heat today caused Tom Heeny, challenger for the world's heavyweight championship, to suspend all training activities. Instead of walloping his sparring mates, Heeny deserted the camp as early as 8 o'clock and spent the entire day on the Atlantic ocean in search of a cooling breeze. He was the guest of a rich Rumson resident on his private yacht.

Heeny was absent from camp from morning until night and did not even take his customary run on the road. He was up, however, at 4:30 o'clock to have a long walk in the cool of the morning.
Rain this afternoon served to cool the atmosphere but it still remained stifling hot. The heat has been a constant annoyance to the challenger. He dreads working in the gymnasium because he drops off weight so rapidly. He melted off nearly five pounds yesterday.
"And I lost about six pounds just watching him," said Jimmy Hennessy, his trainer.

Playground Service Plans Rifle Competition

The boys' rifle shoot to be held at the fair grounds on Thursday, July 26, has brought a large number of requests from the girls of the community for a similar shoot for the fair sex, so the Playground Community service which is sponsoring the boys' shoot, has arranged for a shoot for the girls to be held on the same day at 10 o'clock in the morning. The girls will shoot under the same rules as the boys and through the courtesy of Arthur Hendershott, of Hendershott's Gun store, prizes will be awarded to winners of first and second place in each division.
The rifles and ammunition will be furnished by the Peters Cartridge company, through Henders-
second place in each division.
