of her small son, Nor-
The party was for grownups as well, mothers of the kiddies being included for the afternoon. Kewpie ice cream and a birthday cake which the small host himself helped to carve delighted the youngsters, and Mrs. J. H.

Dumphy assisted Mrs. Hill. The party was at the Dumphy home, those hidden being Mrs. E. A.
Dorote with Beverly Dorote, Mrs.
Arthur Bushman with Betty, Mrs.
Fred Moxley with Edith Marie, Mrs. Herald White with Herald Wellington, Jr., Mrs. Grover Cordz and Nancy, Mrs. Chester Stevenson with Chester Lee, Jr., Mrs. Audrey Fraedericks with Ronald, Mrs. C.
S. Huntington with Barbara and Charles, Jr., and Mrs. Lawrence Manerud with Andree Louise Manerud.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers entertained with a family luncheon party at their home yesterday, planning the gathering for the pleasure of Mrs. John Brockel-bank who arrived in Eugene at noon, and Miss Maude I. Kerns, who after almost a year's absence from Eugene on a trip around the world, also reached her home in Eugene at noon yesterday.

Mrs. T. H. Mehl has left for Lake Tahoe, Cal., accompanied by members of her family. While in the south, she will be a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. Stanley Dollar. She will be away several weeks.

More than usual interest attaches to the lecture by Dr. Grace Fernald, which will be given tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock in Guild hall under the sponsorship of Pi Lambda Theta.

The lecture is open to the public, and will be on the "Atypical Child." Dr. Fernald is on the Oregon campus as a member of the summer session faculty, and has been conducting most interesting classes and clinics for the underprivileged child. She is associate professor of psychology at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Another flutter of interest was created among campus circles the past week when Miss Andree Pel-lion's engagement to William P.
Maddox was announced at a charmingly appointed tea for which Miss Margaret Clarke was hostess.
The wedding date was announced as September 3, the marriage to be celebrated in Baltimore, Md.

Both Miss Pelion and her fiance have been members of the university faculty during the past year, the former in the romance language department and Mr. Maddox in the department of political science. Miss Pelion is a graduate of the university with the class of 1924, having come here to college from her home in France. Mr.
Maddox is a graduate of St. John's college, Indianapolis, and later took his degree at Oxford university, England. They have been among the most popular of the youngest faculty set during their stay on the Oregon campus.

Following their marriage, Mr.
Maddox will take his bride to Virginia to reside, where he will be on the University of Virginia faculty the coming year. Miss Pelion will leave Eugene about the middle of August.

For the announcement tea, about two dozen friends of the honor guest were bidden. Mrs. Marion McClain presided at the attractively appointed tea table.

Mrs. Herald White and her two children, Addie Jane and Herald Wellington, Jr., left on Friday for Long Beach, Wash., where they will join Mrs. White's parents for a month's stay at their summer home.

Mrs. C. A. Burden has as her guest for a time her sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred Burden of Mill Valley, Cal. Mrs. Burden is remembered as a charming visitor of several summers ago by many Eugene friends, and will be informally welcomed here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pratt are entertaining as their guest for a time Mrs. H. F. Hollenbeck, formerly of Eugene, who has just returned from a six months residence in California. Mrs. Hollenbeck is being welcomed by numerous friends.

Among the interesting visitors who are being welcomed in Eugene this week are Mr. and Mrs. L.
J. Gay of Seattle, and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Wm. W. Heuser (Gertrude Elverson) who arrived yesterday. Mrs. Heuser, accompanied by her small son Billy, came west from her home in Evanston, Ill., to visit with her mother in Seattle, and the party will spend some time in Eugene as guests of Mrs. Gay's father, A. E. Wheeler.

They are former residents of Eugene and have a wide circle of friends here to whom their visit will be a pleasure.

Mrs. Chester Starr of Toronto, Canada, and Mrs. John Brockel-bank and daughter Frank Leslie of Paris, arrived in Eugene this weekend to spend several of the remaining summer weeks in a visit at their former home. Mrs. Starr is the guest of her sister, Miss Elma Hendricks, and will be joined later by Mr. Starr, while Mrs.
Brockelbank is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
F. L. Chambers.

Mrs. Bruce Bogart planned one of the pleasurable informal gatherings of old friends which have marked the past week, when she entertained at her summer home at McKenzie bridge on Thursday.
Guests for the day were Major and Mrs. C. C. McCormack and Mrs.
Creed C. Hammond of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Harvard C. Moore of Honolulu, T. H., and Mr. and Mrs.
P. M. Wilkins. They motored up for noon-day dinner, enjoying the remainder of the day at the attractive cottage. Mrs. Hammond is spending the summer as Mrs. Bo-gart's guest.

Mrs. Homer Rowling and small daughter Janice of Kalamazoo, Mich., have arrived in Eugene and are guests at the home of Mrs. L.
W. Rowling on Motor Route C.
Later in the summer they will be joined by Mr. Rowling.

Eugene friends of Miss Caroline Whitney of Portland and Wylie Bent of Eugene, have been widely interested the past week to learn of their engagement and coming marriage, which will be a large event of August 1 in Portland.

The betrothal was announced Friday evening last at an attractive dinner party for which Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Underwood of Portland were hosts. Miss Whitney is the daughter of Mrs. Edgar H.
Whitney of Portland, and attended the University of Oregon the past year, being pledged to Pi Beta Phi. She is a charming and talented girl, and will be an interesting acquisition to the younger married set of Eugene.

Mr. Bent, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler Bent of Whitlaw, Alberta, Canada, is in business here at Eugene representative of Bond, Goodwin and Tucker, bond company. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Leland S. Johnson of Eugene, and was graduated from Stanford university where he was an Alpha Delta Phi.

The third birthday anniversary of small Mabel Louise Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Jenkins, was the occasion for a jolly birthday party for a group of her young friends on Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents. Games on the lawn and refreshments made a happy time for the children, guests numbering Anne Wright, Nancy Cordz, Frances Jones, Janet, William and Peter Tugman, Robert Duke, and Kenneth Wadleigh, Jr.

Friday evening marked the advent of the last summer session dancing party, the affair being given in the woman's building, and attended by quite a large number of faculty and students from the University of Oregon.

The coming week is the final week of summer session activities, save for the post-session, and social affairs on the campus are practically at an end until the annual fall rush-week opens.

Miss Mozelle Hair is expected back in Eugene about the first of the month, after several weeks' absence during which time she has attended the national convention of Business and Professional Women's clubs, held recently at New Orleans. Miss Hair has also visited several other cities since leaving here.

The July meeting of College Crest Neighborhood club on Wednesday came as one of the pleasa-rable club affairs of the past week.
Mrs. Donald Young was hostess for the meeting, and assisting her were Mrs. E. L. Coffin and Mrs.
W. E. Young.

A group of about forty members enjoyed the gathering, with musical numbers by Mrs. Young and Mrs. E. A. Stacks, and a study hour on France to make up the program.

Mrs. Frank Zimmer and Mrs. A.
West contributed the papers on France, the program being part of the club study on foreign countries.

Mrs. F. E. Kreutz will entertain at her home for the meeting on the third Wednesday in August.

Eugene friends of Miss Caroline May Whitney of Portland and Wylie Bent of Eugene have received cards to their marriage, which is to be solemnized August 1 at eight-thirty o'clock at the First Presbyterian church in Portland.

The wedding will be a large social affair of the early month in Portland, with a reception following at 1214 Cumberland road.

Euphemia Laraway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Laraway, will again be presented in a complete piano recital by Reuben Charlye Goffreiere, on Thursday evening at eight o'clock, July 26, at Laraway music hall. This concert, it is announced, will be free and open to the public who are cordially invited to attend.

This will be the fifth complete recital that this 15-year-old pianist has presented to the public, having made all her public appearances exclusively under Mr. Goffreiere's direction, reflecting much credit to herself, as well as Mr. Goffre-iere, whose work in music as a teacher and player is well known.

The program follows:
Gopak Moussogsky
Bridal March Grieg
Anitra's Dance Grieg
Butterfly Grieg

For the pleasure of Dr. and Mrs.
Homer I. Keeney and their daughter Jean, of Mill Valley, Cal., who are their house guests for the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L.
Chambers were at home most informally last night, inviting about a dozen old friends to meet them.

Dr. and Mrs. Keeney are former residents of Eugene, many years ago, and are making their first visit here in some years.

Miss Geneva Ackerly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ackerly was married to Arthur Currie on Tuesday evening, July 10, at a very quiet ceremony read at the home of the bride's parents, at eight o'clock.

Misses Mildred Reynolds and Edith Pearson entertained with a small luncheon and theatre party at the home of Mrs. T. A. Pearson on Friday. Guests for the afternoon numbered Misses Evelyn Hollie, Amy Porter, Mary Walker and Mildred Vaughn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cockerline, Mrs. Hazel Barker and Mr. and Mrs. William Barjer and children are among many Eugene folk spending the week-end out of town, having motored to the Cockerline home at Triangle lake for the time.

Mrs. J. B. Bell has returned to Eugene after spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. J. E. Shelton at the latter's summer home up the McKenzie river.

For the pleasure of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Taylor of Vancouver Barracks, Wash., Mrs.
Bryant DeBar entertained with an informal bridge luncheon which was one of Friday's interesting affairs.

Gladioli in orange and yellow formed the decorations, and covers at the luncheon tables were arranged for Mrs. Frank Carlil, Mrs.
Lillian Seaton, Mrs. David Auld, Mrs. John J. Rogers, Mrs. J. M.
Miller, Mrs. Arthur Miner, Mrs. G.
S. Beardsley, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. N. F. McDuff.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hopkins have left Eugene for a few days' visit in Portland with Mrs. Hopkins parents, after which they go to Berkeley for the coming year, where Mr. Hopkins will take up study for his doctor's degree.

A pleasurable party for the younger school set was the swimming and luncheon party which Claire Bryson planned for Margaret Anne Morgan, who is visiting in Eugene.

The group of twelve friends gathered for swimming at the Anchorage during the morning, and at noon were luncheon guests at the home of the hostess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bryson, spending the afternoon together as well.

Bidden were Helen and Alice Tillman, Margaret Agne Morgan, Betty Church, Jane Miner, Margaret Temple, Mary Jane Jenkins, Madeleine Gilbert, Joan Shelley, Helen Gerow, and Katherine Parsons.

For a group of sixteen friends Euphemia Laraway entertained last night with a dinner party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Laraway. Gladioli and other garden flowers were the decorations, and the evening was spent in cards and dancing by the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker were hosts Wednesday evening at their home for an attractive dinner party of the week, entertaining informally for a group of six friends.

Mrs. John Crews of Columbia, S. C., who is spending the summer in Eugene, leaves the first of this week for a few days visit in Portland.

ness and Professional Women's club have started a series of luncheon meetings, during which time members of the clubs executive committee will lunch in town the third Thursday of each month, holding open meetings which may be attended by any member who

DO YOU
PAY YOUR BILLS?

Men Will Do It

It's easy to get into debt—and it's hard to get out.

When temptation calls, it's easy to take the wrong road, painted bright by our own imaginings, and sometimes mighty hard to steer along the straight and narrow path.

On such occasions, CHARACTER is the compass, the adviser that keeps us right in spite of rosy hallucinations.

AND ONCE WRONG—IT'S HARD TO GET

BACK RIGHT.

THEN CHARACTER TELLS. Then the REAL

MAN will out. And it is this everlasting fight, this eternal effort to resist temptation, to resist what is wrong, that makes people strong.

It is easy to get into DEBT and hard to get out—oftimes a task—but a task that CONSCIENCE, GOOD

BREEDING, BLOOD AND CHARACTER imposes and demands filled.

COWARDS WILL SHIRK THE TASK. Weaklings will seek other avenues of escape. MEN WILL FACE THE JOB AND DO IT!

ARE YOU STILL A MAN?

COWARDS SHIRK. And a shirking coward will, in desperation, commit every offense against society listed in the category of crime. There is nothing too low for him to do. A DEAD-BEAT IS A COWARD

WHO HAS SHIRKED HIS OBLIGATIONS, SACRI-FICED HIS HONOR—HIS NAME—AND HIS ALL

RECLAIM YOURSELF

Presuming you, gentle reader, are in debt—and sinking further and further as the days pass—are you looking for the easier way—the DEAD-BEAT ROUTE through the bankrupt court—or have you the courage left to face the music and pay the fiddler—

Mrs. Morgan Watson and Mrs.
Herbert Clarke spent the week-end in Eugene, registered at the Eugene hotel. Both are former residents of Eugene and have a wide circle of friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Wilson entertained informally at their home on Wednesday evening, inviting friends to make up two tables or bridge.

Guests numbered Mr. and Mrs.
C. L. Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rundlett, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dupuis and Mrs. E. B. Ackerman.

For a large family picnic which marks the first gathering of the two families for several years, Mrs. T. G. Hendricks is entertaining today at "Roulette," her summer home up the McKenzie river, for members of the Hendricks and Chambers families. About forty are in the group, and will spend the day there.

Slayer Uses Dynamite
ROCKFORD, Ill., July 20. — (AP) Inquiry into the fatal bombing of Vernon Plager, Rockford radio expert who was blown to death as he stepped on the starter of his automobile, revealed today that dynamite was the explosive used by the slayer. Police said they had learned Paul Reed, accused former sweetheart of Mrs.
Iva Plager, widow of the radio expert, was familiar with handling dynamite.
