THIS CIRCUS HIPPO IS 52 YEARS OLD

The largest hippopotamus in captivity, so far as the records show, is coming here Friday next, August 24, in a giant tank in the menagerie of the Sells Photo circus.
He weighs nearly two tons, is 14 feet long and was captured in the remote interior of West Africa, by a venturesome explorer and hunter in the employ of the big traveling carnival institution.

His name is "Tam" and natural historians estimate his age at fifty-two years. In his special hunt for California with his sister, Mrs. E. V.

Stoell and family the latter part of the week.

Henry Bedford, E. W. Stoell and Ben Hershey were business visitors at Westlake Saturday.

Isabel Prouty drove to Paren-th with Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson to spend a week with her sister, Mrs.
Eastman Severey and family.

The Groves and Shollenburg families attended the Seventh Day Adventist services at the Sauter hall in Cushman Saturday. There was an extra song service and the speaker was Prof. George E. Johnson, who has been holding services at Canary Tanners' Union hall for the past two weeks with an unusually large attendance.

H. E. Bedford, manager of the Farmers Union store and his son-in-law, E. U. Stowell and daughter, Beulah, made a trip out to Eugene and back Tuesday by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beator of Mapleton spent the week-end on their ranch at Canary.

Miss Pearl Truettson of Canary was taken to Florence by motor Sunday and again on Monday to have Dr. Edwards care for an infection caused by an insect bite on the arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kyle and family of Florence made a short motor trip out through Berrydale and Canary and over the Fiddle creek mountain Sunday.

James Lewis came in recently to pack shingles for the E. and B.
Shingle company which is rushing the work on account of a rush order for a carload of shingles for the Twin Oaks Lumber company.

"Blackie" Berkshaw, who was at one time a partner in the E. and B. company, is again sawing shingles for them.

County Commissioner Clinton Hurd and Judge Barnard are expected in the latter part of this week to look over the road situation, according to word received from L. N. Austin, road patrolman of road district No. 53. Mr. Austin also stated that two more carloads of gravel would finish the allotted amount for the upper Fiddle creek this year and that the crew and equipment had been moved Tuesday from the west side of Sunset mountain over to the Maple creek side, where they will do some more blasting and straightening up of the road bed and from there will do some much needed work on the road between Westlake and Glen-ada.

O. E. Crowe and three children of Eugene were at Canary recently on their way to Reedport. It was from Mr. Crow that Mr. Austin purchased the new Holt tractor for the roadwork in district No. 53. Mr.
Crowe said that he also sold the tractors to Gates, the road contractor who is running the day and night shift on the road work north of Gardiner.

Ben Hershey, Eldon Bedford and his sister, Mrs. E. W. Stoell, drove to Florence Monday on a combination business and pleasure trip.

The D. C. Harrington family entertained as house guests over the week-end Mrs. Williams and her son from Eugene. They also had as guests Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Groves and family, Frank Titus and family and Jerry Fox, all of Berrydale, last week.

Jared Scott of Cushman was at Canary on official business Saturday.

Mrs. Lloyd Knepper spent the week-end at Mapleton with her husband who is employed in a camp at that place. The Kneppers are contemplating moving to Mapleton this fall.

Theodore Stanwood and wife and brother-in-law, Henry Schnack, who reside at Gold Hill, drove up from Crescent City to Canary in one day, spent the night with relatives on Maple creek, called at the F. A. Titus home at Berrydale the next day and drove from there to Florence and Heceta Beach and to Cape Heceta where they expect to camp for a week. Mr. Stanwood is a son of Oren Stanwood, who formerly owned the Florence Telephone company.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Squire and Charles Fredrickson arrived at Berrydale from Ashland Saturday for a few hours' stay. The Squires own a strawberry farm at Berrydale.

They had lunch with old friends, the Titus family, while at Berrydale.

Harold Jones and Vernon Austin are camping on the top of Sunset mountain while on the road work.
Austin Caylor and Loren Harrington drive back and forth morning and evening from the work to their homes.
