

HARLOW-TANDY REUNION IS HELD

Large Number Attend Annual Event at Desmond's Ferry On Sunday, August 12

The annual Harlow-Tandy reunion was held August 12, at Desmond's ferry, on the J. H. Brabham place. There were 126 relatives and 13 visitors present. The morning was spent in greeting friends and in finding out what relation each was to the other. With the group again this year were Henry C. Harlow and wife from Farmington, Wash. Mr. Harlow will celebrate his 90th birthday September 7th. Mrs. Malvina Gruelle from Everett, Wash., an own cousin of Henry and Mahlon Harlow and Mrs. Margaret Penza, who was present. It was the first time she has been in Eugene since 1859. She has a brother, Jack Henderson, living at Loraine.

At two o'clock a basket dinner was spread on the tables, a fete style, and all helped themselves. The older ones present were seated at a table. After dinner group pictures were taken, and a short business meeting was held. The same officers were re-elected for next year, except that Mrs. Virginia Taylor was elected secretary. Food no longer spoils, nor does milk sour. Left-overs keep to attain usefulness when placed in a General Electric refrigerator. A modern servant that works for less than the cost of ice. Etkins Electric Store.

For a healthful sandwich butter slices of whole wheat or white bread. Spread one side with mayonnaise. Put in 2 cabbage leaves and trim to fit the bread. They are ideal for picnics and can be varied with green peppers, crisply fried bacon or countless other ways.

When you are choosing a place to eat, how do you pick it out? First of all by the food. That is always of chief importance and at Lee-Duke cafe it is the chief attraction. Besides being of the best quality it has been prepared excellently by experts. Food at Lee-Duke's hasn't a lukewarm temperature to make you wonder whether it should have been hot or cold. Food that is to be hot is really hot and cold foods are crisp and icy. You will enjoy a meal at Lee-Duke's.

Chile Sauce Chutney. Chop separately and put in a kettle, 4 lbs. tomatoes, 2 onions, 2 sweet red peppers, 1/2 lb. dried figs and 1 cup dried currants. Add 2 cups vinegar, 1 tsp. each of cloves, allspice and cinnamon and 2 tsp. nutmeg. Mix well and let boil gently 1 hour.

From now until the first of September, Shop Petite, 573 East 15th, will be closed. See what new frocks you will need so that you may enjoy the fall activities to their full extent. The dresses made for you at Shop Petite will have a charm and individuality so suited to you that you will be delighted.

Ice Cream Rice Pudding. Wash 4 tbsp. rice and add to 4 cups milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup raisins and pour into a greased baking dish. Bake for 3 hours in a slow oven, stirring occasionally. Serve cold.

When Eve bit the apple in the Garden of Eden, she took a lot of responsibilities upon her shoulders. But one of them wasn't washing and ironing. If Eve had ever thought about the necessity of wearing clothes—much less laundering them, she would have been more careful what she ate. But the modern Eve eats her cake and has it too, as the saying goes. She calls 325 and the New Service Laundry does her washing perfectly. And when it comes back—so neatly ironed she figures that perhaps the apple didn't taste so bitter after all.

Bride's Salad is really worth trying. Mix 1 lb. white grapes, 1 lb. quartered marshmallows and 1 lb. almonds blanched. Make a dressing of 4 egg yolks and 1 cup milk cooked until thick. Add the juice of 1 lemon and 1 cup whipped cream. Let stand at least 12 hours. This serves nearly a dozen people.

Summertime is the time of pickles. Sweet pickles, sour pickles, dills—just anything so they are pickles. Underwood and Elliott, 12th at Patterson, carry the complete line of Crosse and Blackwell, the famous English brand. In pickles they put up several kinds: piccalilli, pickled gherkins, branshop pickle, Chutney pickle and pickled onions. Of course there are the Crosse and Blackwell jams and jellies. Two new pickles just put out by Knights are the sweet burr gherkins and the preserved cucumber. Ever since 1797 Dundee's of England have put out their well-known wild bramble jelly. It has a flavor that is obtainable only from wild berries. There you will find countless brand and kinds of jams, jellies and marmalades from which to make your choice.

Blackberry Sponge. Soften 1 tbsp. gelatine in 2 tbsp. cold water, then add 1-3 cup boiling water, 1 1/2 cup blackberry juice, 2 tbsp. lemon juice, and 1 cup sugar and bring to a boil. Set in ice water and when beginning to thicken beat until frothy. Then add the stiffly beaten whites of 2 eggs and a cup of whipped cream. Pour into a wet mold and chill.

No longer will woman have to wobble on an extreme high heel to be in style. Heels are to be more modified in the report from the shoe department of McMorran and Waahburne. Dark blue will lead the vogue in velvet and kid leather pumps. Sport oxfords for early fall in tie effects are fashioned with the new walking heel in mocha beige and santos. There are the winged tip, straight and braided effects, all equally good for fall wear. An ideal golf oxford is built on an English last or imported grain leather with an overweight sole. For the men are oxfords of full double sole of imported grain in dark brown and tan. When it is shoes you are seeking you will save time and expense and will be better satisfied by going to Eugene's Own Store.

Grape Iced Tea. Make three cups of tea and let cool. Add 1 pt.

grape juice, juice of 2 lemons, 4 tbsp. sugar, and serve very cold—with a sprig of mint perhaps.

At Aladdin Gift shop are some Frankart studies modelled from life in bronze with a Roman finish. There are lamps and ash trays. Such well-designed, graceful figures that you are rightfully proud of them.

Apple Fluff. Peel and core 8 sour apples and steam until soft. Mash. There should be one cup of apple pulp. Sweeten to taste with powdered sugar and add 1 tsp. vanilla and the juice of 1/2 lemon. Beat the whites of 3 eggs until stiff, add the apple pulp and continue beating until well blended. Chill, and serve in glasses garnished with a custard or cherries.

How often when you have been setting the table have you wished for something a little different to hold pickles, sweets, nuts, lemon or candied ginger—something that would brighten the table up and give a more festive air? An excellent dish for this purpose would be the new Japanese pottery that just came to Quackenbush's, 160 East Broadway. It is on crackle ware and is decorated with large conventional flowers of a brilliant hue. The handle is of bamboo and is stained a dark brown. In this same ware come bowls, tea pots, little covered tubs and several different sized candy jars.

Something different for your waffles is to melt some honey slowly and add an equal amount of melted butter. If honey comb is used, strain the honey. Serve warm.

Before Signing on the Dotted Line—

The next time you are given an opportunity to buy some high dividend-paying stock and get in on the "ground floor" of a startling new enterprise, just suggest to the stock salesman that you would like to talk the proposition over with your banker before signing on the dotted line. If the proposed investment is a sound one your salesman friend will be glad to have you take advice before buying. But if that procedure appears to be distasteful to him and he grumbles something about all bankers being "conservative, unprogressive and out-of-date," then the chances are pretty good that what he has to sell is of questionable value.

This bank has neither stock to sell nor corporations to promote. It does, however, have an interest in the matter of its customers' investments. The beneficial use of money placed in ill advised enterprises is lost to the owner and to the community.

Our free investment service is always at your disposal. We invite you to make use of it.
