

The Maupin Times

Published Every Friday at Maupin, Oregon,

A. L. BARNES, EDITOR

Subscription: One Year, $1.50, Six Months 75cts, Three Months 50

With this issue of the Times a change in the management is taking place which we hope is for the betterment of the publication.

We will try to issue a paper worthy of your support, on which it will depend on for its existence, and we will put forth our best endeavors to further the interests of all its readers.

All those who were subscribers will receive the paper until their time is out, and we extend an invitation to all who are not subscribers to send in their names and fall into line with us in our boosting for all territory tributary to Maupin.

We want you to make personal calls, write letters or phone to us whenever you have an item you think will be of interest, and when you can, don't fail to call and make yourself at home, for we like company and will not let you wish you were home if we can help it.

In our next issue we will have more reading matter, even if we have to borrow it, but we have had too much cleaning up to do to make this week's paper what we would wish.

The mechanical end of the paper is just as important as the news, but it has been so sadly neglected that it is slow work getting it back to any thing like normal.

We are going to give you all we can afford in the way of a paper and hope you will abide with us in our hours of grief and make your kicks in the form of more business, Amen.

SCHOOL LOCALS

Grace Tunison, a member of the ninth grade, has dropped from school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harpan have been in Wapinitia causing Nellie to be absent from school for the past three days.

Helen Locke has been out of school on account of sickness.

Lincoln's birthday Feb. 12th, was honored by an hour and a quarter's joint celebration by the two rooms, consisting of biographical sketches, readings, and two earnest debates on the questions: who did more for his country, Washington or Lincoln? The Primary pupils had the first question, and won. The advanced pupils had the second question, and the debaters for Lincoln won.

Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays are legal holidays, but not for schools which are however, required to set apart a portion of these days for appropriate exercises.

A part of the program of the Literary Society this week is a debate on the question: Which is more benefit to the community, the farmer or the manufacturer?

Quite a number of the pupils are planning to have gardens, and are sending off for flower and vegetable seeds.

To Build More During this Year

Many new buildings on farms and in the cities to be built in this vicinity during the present year

A great many more new buildings for Maupin are predicted both in town and in the country. The general feeling of better times is rapidly spreading and with the advent of spring, new jobs are opening up.

Many modern step-saving Homes are being contemplated. A general improvement in the architecture of the homes of this vicinity is being noticed. The plan book which the Tum-a-Lum Lumber Co. loan to prospective home builders contains over one hundred designs of homes, all of which have been built in the Northwest before, and have been designed by Northwest Architects, so they are appropriate for this part of the country.

Barns, General Purpose Barns, Horse Barns, and Dairy Barns, are being contemplated. In the two story barns, the special Tum-a-Lum Circle Roof or Gambrel roof, seem to be the two styles most favored. Both of these are self-supporting, and will be found in the special Tum-a-Lum Plan Book.

The Tum-a-Lum Silo has been designed by their Engineers, to be built of stock lumber from their free plans. They have proven very satisfactory and are recommended over stave silos for hot, dry climates. By reason of absence of patents, they cost about one-half the cost of patented stave silos.

Hogsheds, Chicken Houses, milkhouses, etc., will make up a large part of the smaller types of buildings. Many of the designs of these buildings which have proven most satisfactory elsewhere, are to be found in the free plans of the Tum-a-Lum Lumber Co., as well as a number of model school-houses, of one room up.
