ARE LED BY GHOST

Russians See Skobelev at Their Head.

Belief Said to Be in the Ranks That Great Commander Directs the Movements of the Armies of the Czar.

Some Russian soldiers have declared they saw the figure of Skobelev on his white horse, leading their forces, as of old, into battle. To those who know the profound impression that wonderful man made on the Slavonic mind, there is no improbability in such a suggestion. Drawn so largely from a primitive peasantry, the vast host marshaled by the czar must contain multitudes whose childlike imaginations are quite capable of conjuring up their legendary hero in visible form once more, warding off defeat and pointing to victory. Even with the less simple there may well be a longing to have so famous a fighter at their head in that great struggle he predicted would happen, and in which he would so dearly have loved to play his part.

It was while the Russo-Turkish war in 1877 was raging that, from the midst of official incompetence and corrupt favoritism, Skobelev emerged as the magician to whose wand victory was ever obedient. Entirely by his own merits, without the advantage of illustrious birth, and against the opposition of a prejudiced court, he had won his general's epaulettes before he was 33. After the fall of Plevna, his rapid passage of the Balkans in mid-winter brought about the surrender of Turkey's last army in the field and this was speedily followed by the capture of Adrianople. He was already at the gates of Constantinople when Lord Beaconsfield intervened to prevent its occupation, and in the Berlin treaty that ensued Skobelev ever professed to see the seeds of the harvest we are gathering today.

As a soldier he created among his men an enthusiasm for his leadership comparable only to that won by Napoleon himself. A strict disciplinarian, visiting any breach of commands with merciless severity, he was the friend and companion of every rank, a comrade who shared their privations, fed from their camp pots and merrily chaffed one and all.

He did not know the sensation of fear, and faced the utmost dangers with cool contempt. Yet always he bore a charmed life. Horses were killed beneath him, his staff fell shot at his side, his sword was broken in his hand, but no missile ever found in him its billet. The story grew in the army that he could not be wounded, and some were found to declare they were hit by bullets that could only have passed through him first. It was facts and fables like these, losing nothing in the telling, that made him the darling of the Russian people.

Latest Talking-Machine Sensation

The equal in tone-quality of any $200 model insult to the Bee.

An insult to the bee is to use the name to denote a crazy or erratic person, as the bee is possibly the most methodical of all insects, with the possible exception of the ant. Therefore the expression "He has been in his bonnet" is an offensive phrase except that it may mean a buzzing in the head, such as president and other political aspirants are said to be afflicted with. "She's whines crack-brained and has a bee in her head" was not worthy of Walter Scott, though.

Gwen had been on a visit at her grandmother's. Several days after, for disobedience, her mother said to her, "Sometimes, when little girls are naughty, their mothers give them away." Little Gwen looked troubled, then suddenly, with a bright smile, said, "Well, mother, if you are going to give me away, please give me to grandma."

Landlord Bars Childless.
Supercilious landlords may refuse to rent houses to families with children, but not Frank McDonnell of Detroit. In fact, Landlord McDonnell will not rent his houses to childless parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Allen, who have just celebrated their first wedding anniversary, found an ideal cottage on Bagg street, belonging to Mr. McDonnell. Everything seemed satisfactory to both parties until the owner learned that the Allens had no children. "You cannot have the place," the landlord said. "I learned long ago that young couples without children move often. They never stay long in one place. It doesn't pay to rent to them. Only couples with children can live in my houses. Sorry, but that's my rule."—Detroit Dispatch to Los Angeles Times.

Too Witty for the Lawyers.
A man was excused from a jury on his plea that he was a pharmacist. The next man asking to be excused said he had a similar reason, for he was a "farm assistant." He was not excused, but he got to hear no cases. The lawyers were afraid of him. He was too witty.

Testing Precious Stones.
The science of optics has in the last year or so given much aid to jewelers in making tests that are said to be absolutely conclusive as to the nature of a gem. The refractive index, or the power of bending light rays, is determined as to precious stones in the same way as that of the spectacle lenses which the opticians sell.

More Dire Threat.
There was trouble in the back yard. Six-year-old Billy had thrown a stone at a boy in the next yard, who was making vociferous threats. "If you throw another stone," he yelled, "I'll sick my dog on you!" "Huh!" replied Billy. "If you come into my yard I'll sick my mother on you!"—Youth's Companion.

The Real American.
America is the land of labor and by no means what the English call Lubberland and the French Pays de Cocagne, where the streets are said to be paved with half peck loaves, the houses tiled with pancakes and where the fowls fly about ready roasted, crying, "Come, eat me."—Franklin.

The Aurora.
The Northern Lights, or Aurora Borealis, are caused by the flow of positive electricity, off from the earth, through the icy mists or clouds that float above the poles, toward the planetary spaces. There is a close causal connection between the aurora and the "sun spots."

First in Resurrection.
In some districts of India the eastern parts of cemeteries are regarded as the most desirable. The choice is based on the belief that the dead in the eastern section will be the first to leap from their graves, brush the dust from their bones and proclaim their readiness to ascend.

NO DOUBT THAT RESINOL DOES HEAL SICK SKIN

When you know physicians have prescribed resinol for 20 years in the treatment of eczema and other itching, burning, unsightly skin eruptions, and have written thousands of reports saying: "It is my regular prescription for itching," "Resinol has produced brilliant results," "The result it gave was marvelous in one of the worst cases of eczema," etc., etc., doesn't it make you feel that "this is the treatment I can rely on for MY skin-trouble?"

The moment resinol ointment touches itching skins, the itching stops and healing begins. With the aid of resinol soap, it almost always clears away every trace of eczema, ringworm, pimples, or other tormenting eruptions quickly, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.

Wonderful Blood Remedy That Works in the Tissues

The Very Latest Theory About How and Why the Blood is Disordered.

S. S. S. Means Pure Blood Which Insures Long Life and Health.

The great experts in Chemistry and Physiology now declare what has all along been contended by the Swift Laboratory that the germs of blood disorders find lodgment in the interstices of the tissues.

And herein is where S. S. S. goes to work rapidly, effectively and with wonderfully noticeable results.

This famous blood purifier contains medicinal components just as vital and essential to healthy blood as the nutritive elements of wheat, roast beef, and fats and the sugars that make up our daily ration.

As a matter of fact there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. That is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming eczema, rash, pimples, and all skin afflictions.

And in regenerating the tissues S. S. S. has a rapid and positive antidotal effect upon all those irritating influences that cause rheumatism, sore throat, weak eyes, loss of weight, thin pale cheeks, and that weariness of muscle and nerve that is generally experienced, by all sufferers with poisoned blood.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store, and in a few days you will not only feel bright, and energetic, but you will be the picture of new life.

S. S. S. is Swift only in the laboratory of the Swift Specific Co., 291 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Who maintain a very efficient Medical Department, where all who have any blood disorder of a stubborn nature may write freely for advice.

S. S. S. is sold everywhere by all drug stores.

Beware of all attempts to sell you something "Just as good." Insist upon S. S. S.
