

The Maupin Times

Published Every Friday at Maupin, Oregon,

A. L. BARNES, EDITOR

Subscription: One Year, $1.50, Six Months 75cts, Three Months 50

Entered in the post office at Maupin, Oregon, as second class mail matter.

We wish to correct what appears to be a wrong impression in regard to The Times and the Monitor. There never was any connection between the two in any way.

Sheep shearing began at Maupin yesterday when the crew headed by "Bud" Smith, began removing the wool from the L. W. Mace Sheep. They have a crew of about ten men at present and will shear other bands at these pens, after which the boys will all go to the upper country to finish the shearing season.

T. L. Dunsmore and E. S. Stevens of the Dalles, spent part of the week here writing insurance on farm and town property. They are agents for some of the best companies and have written a large amount in this section.

Mrs. L. D. Kelly has the most up-to-date stock of millinery ever brought to Maupin. You should call and get your choice early.

School Notes

The boys and girls are greatly enjoying base ball on the improved ball ground.

In the removal of the Welter family the Literary Society loses its bright young president.

J. L. VanWinkle, an experienced photographer from White Salmon, Washington, took three views of the school Wednesday, one of each room separately, and one of both rooms together with the school house in the background.

In last week's notes the summit of Mt. Hood should have been located in Sec. 23, T 2 S, instead of T 3 S, R 9 E, Maupin, in Sec. 32, T 4 S, R 14 E, is therefore 28 miles east and 12 miles south of Mt. Hood. From the city limits of Portland, Maupin is 73 miles east and 17 miles south.

E. J. Styer will treat the public to ice cream Sunday.

What do you really think when you get a letter from a business house with a rubber stamp letter head?

Mr. Buzan of the Criterion section captured a family of ten coyote puppies about the size of kittens the first of the week and brought nine of them down, sending them to the county clerk. The coyote bounty is now $3 a piece.

You will always find that a progressive man has neat job work, Letterheads, envelopes, bill heads and cards.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Staats, Mrs. Goetchen, Mrs. Mayhew and Mrs. Harphan went down to Mr. Johnson's, bringing home a nice supply of water cress and green onions. With the abundance of water cress growing along the ravines the people of this place need not want for greens.

It is just as proper for a progressive farmer to use farm stationery as for the business houses where you trade.
