J. E. DISBROW, Publisher.

Subscription: One year, $1.50; six months, 75 cents; three months, 50

Entered in the postoffice at Maupin, Oregon, as second class matter.

With this issue of the Times a change of management is taking place. We will try to continue to make the Times the news sheet it has been the last three months, and worthy of your support. We solicit your hearty cooperation with our endeavors to rightly represent the promising city of Maupin and Southern Wasco county.

Smock News

Mr. Grant is talking of leaving the country.

The road grader has been doing some nice work on the Smock roads.

A. R. Thornton is employed on the F. E. Spoor farm.

We have witnessed a little rain and wind on the prairie this week.

Mrs. Julia Driver is soon to return to her homestead.

Planting corn seems to be the work on Smock now.

M. P. and G. W. Thornton made a hurry-up trip to Maupin Saturday. Among those in attendance at Sunday School were F. E. Spoor and Mrs. Pierce.

John Farlow and family made a trip to The Dalles this week.

Geo. Ledford who is employed in the forestry service left for the mountains Tuesday morning. He expects to be gone all summer.

We lead—Others follow. Listen! At enormous expense we have secured a limited number of large hand painted OIL PAINTINGS of Landscape and Marine Views, which we are giving absolutely free to our customers. See us about it.—W. H. Staats & Co.

Messrs J. R. Keep, who is largely interested in the Clear Lake Irrigation proposition, W. B. Keene, superintendent and E. E. Miller, legal adviser of the company passed through here Friday evening enroute to Portland, Mr. Keene returning Sunday.

The money order receipts for April of this year at the Maupin postoffice amounted to $1311.92, a gain of $424.50 over April of last year. Postmaster W. H. Tallcott stated that this month, May, is starting off with a big lead over any previous month.

J. G. Dollarhide who is contractor on the big cut at the head of the new irrigation canal passed through here Wednesday on his way to Portland, where he will purchase a large steel cable.
