Entered in the post office at Maupin, Oregon, as second class mail matter.

The strained relations between this country and Germany have had the effect of making a large number of aliens, Germans especially, take out naturalization papers. That was a wise step and it indicates that in time of storm the United States makes a safe harbor, and it also shows appreciation of this country. Those who have become American citizens may be depended upon to be loyal to the land of their adoption.

The Saturday Evening Post of this week contains a very striking cartoon of China as a big dragon beast with her front feet on Uncle Sam's shoulders, and with her serpent-like tongue licking him in the face. Perhaps indicating that since the difficulty with Japan, she is more desirous than ever of the friendship of our big neutral country.

If you really love your home town don't flirt with the mail order houses.

Jack Staats came down from Nathan Saturday, returning Tuesday. He says they have a ledge of rock up there that looks good, and further work will probably bring its value into evidence. It is also said that some gold has been found in a watering trough on the other side of the river, which would give evidence of the mineral at some point up the river.

THAT YOUNG CORN LOOKS GOOD.

Those sweet, juicy leaves and stalks, swelling with sugary sap, soft and palatable, and easily chewed—what a feast they would make for a hungry steer! How they would distend the udder of a gentle milker!

Take a hint from the cattle themselves and persevere all the goodness and all the succulent food values of the June forage together with the body building corn for winter feed by storing the entire crop, from stem to stem, in the air tight walls of a

Every one in Southern Wasco county should subscribe for the Maupin Times. This is a wide-awake journal devoted to our local interests and deserves all possible support. Fifty cents for three months, or 75 cents for six months is a small amount and for this you can know every week what your neighbors in all this part of the county are doing. Let's all pull together and make this a permanent official organ for that part of the state in which we are most interested.
