Smock News

Blaine Disbrow was a Tygh Valley business visitor last Friday.

Chas. Cline and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Oglesbe were Wapinitia visitors last Tuesday week.

Very warm days for strawberry picking at C. H. Yockeys, nevertheless, several crates picked today, twenty-three crates picked today, June 21.

Ice cream and strawberry festival at the home of G. W. Bargainholts Sunday afternoon. Some twenty young people indulged in the reception and report a fine time, music and song as well as eats.

Chas. Duncan finished a well for Marion Farlow, about twelve feet in depth, plenty of water.

John Farlow and F. E. Spoor made a trip to Seattle, Wn., last week. Mr. Farlow shipped a carload of fat hogs and F. E. Spoor a carload of young beef stock. Mr. Farlow returned Friday and Mr. Spoor is expected soon, but Frank likes Portland pretty well and we don't blame him.

Wayne Spoor and wife are here from Catalow Valley, Ore., were on the road ten days. Last September they and Deak Gordon and family went to that part, took 320 acre homesteads and are well pleased with same.

T. J. Whitcomb and family of Astoria, are visiting his brother, N. E. Whitcomb, and sister Leone Hull.

John End is building a silo on his place south of Wamic, Sam Mulvaney having manufactured

The sleeper and coach leave Portland on passenger No. 8 at 6 p. m.; westbound from Fallbridge, sleeper on No. 3, coach on No. 5. Nos. 103 and 104 will be mixed and 304 and 305 and O. T. 306 and 307 will be discontinued.

The lumber. Mr. Mulvaney's sawmill runs daily. He has machinery to make any and all kinds of lumber; has in two planers.

Grandma Farlow visited at her son's T. F. Farlow, Sunday, a week.

Sunday School held every evening at the Baptist church, and prayer meeting Sunday evening. Everybody welcome.

Evans Parrish was home Sunday. He is engineer at the Hartman sawmill on White river.

Mrs. Pierce is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stakely.

Those hauling lumber from Mulvaney's saw mill last week are, Amos Johnson, of Wamic, Wilbur Wing of Tygh Valley, Herman Gesh and John End of the Wamic country, also Dee Tallcott.

We often read of hikers in different parts of the world. Well Smock had hikers that left all neighbors and friends in mourning, to think that they had no chance to say good bye—and no word yet, and we are wondering if they are

ARTISANS HAVE GOOD MEETING

Last Friday night was a big event for the local Artisans. Dr. Eshleman was out from The Dalles and delivered a lecture. R. H. Drake, district organizer, was also present.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Dee Tallcott, grand master; J. E. Miller, superintendent; Clyde Oliver, treasurer; Mrs. D. A. Moad, inspector; R. B. Bell, secretary; B. D. Fraley, senior conductor; Gussie Derthick, Jr., conductor; Ica Derthick, master of ceremonies; Andrew Cunningham, warden.

After the transaction of business ice cream and cake were served free to the public and a big dance was enjoyed by all.

still on the hike.

The Woodcock & Kennedy sawmill is running with full crew and filling orders of all kinds.

The young people are looking forward to a pleasant time next Sunday as they are invited to partake of strawberries and after sweets at the home of Miss Lillian Yockey.

F. E. Spoor and T. J. Whitcomb were business visitors at Matpin Tuesday.

M. P. Grant's folks have left for an indefinite time.

T. J. Hill returned from his trip to the Blue Bucket mine.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Russell and son Velle were visitors at the home of Mrs. G. E. Noble yesterday.

Marion and Chas. Farlow have purchased a new header to do their grain cutting with.

J. E. Kennedy has some men on Smock this week mowing the alfalfa.

Ipha Howell returned home Saturday after a short stay at Marion Farlow's.

Beholding is in progress on Smock. Mrs. Geo. Thornton heard a slight sound among her chickens one day and on going to discover the trouble, found a porcupine of immense size, sleeping soundly in her woodshed. She carefully crept upon him severing his head from his body quickly with a sharp axe.

A. F. Russell made final proof on his homestead Saturday at Maupin.

Chas. Farlow went to Maupin Saturday returning with a large load of swine feed the same day.

M. P. Thornton took several crates of strawberries to Maupin Saturday.

J. W. Ayres made a trip to Tygh Valley Saturday and purchased a flock of Jersey cows. He says there is more money in Jersey cows than any other kind.

Criterion Chronicles

Wedding bells were never sounded more joyous than those which chimed for the happy event of the first Criterion wedding on Thursday, June 17, at 8 a. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. DeCamp, when their daughter, Dollie was united in marriage to Carl A. Daus, Rev. G. E. Wood of Wapinitia officiated in a pleasing and impressive manner.

Mrs. J. Arthur Gamber acted as matron of honor and John A.

CLYDE T. BONNEY,
County School Supt.

Daus, brother of the groom, as best man. Only immediate relatives of the family were present.

The bride was gowned in a dress of beautifully embroidered white organdy and wore a veil, and a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was dressed in the conventional black.

The happy couple stood under a large white wedding bell and the rooms were profusely decorated with white ribbons, pink roses and vines.

After the ceremony ice cream and cake were served.

The bride and groom went immediately to their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Daus are estimable young people and the whole community vie with each other in wishing them a happy married life.

Ernest Tayler and family have been on a ten days' business and pleasure trip to The Dalles and returned Friday last.

Dale Bonney and wife are sojourning for a few days at Tygh Valley and Warm Springs.

Frank Buzan is spending the week end at home.

John Daus of Estacada, Oregon, is visiting his brother C. A., for a few days.

Mrs. G. E. Wood accompanied her husband to the DeCamp—Daus nuptials.

L. E. DeCamp left Friday for an indefinite stay at The Dalles.

J. E. Miller attended election of officers of the Artisan order at Maupin Friday night.

Mrs. J. Arthur Gamber, after a few weeks' visit in this community left Friday morning for a visit to relatives at Portland and Seaside.

R. R. Crabtree is moving his house closer to water and otherwise improving his premises.

Vera Canfield and Paul DeCamp last week received their diplomas and letters of congratulation from Superintendent Bonney. Needless to say these young people are highly pleased over results of their examinations.

W. E. Hunt last week shipped a car of fat sheep to Portland (continued on last page.)

THREE MORE COUPLES WED

Harvey-Isenberg

Beautiful in every detail was the wedding of Miss Pearl Isenberg and Guy Harvey on Sunday, June 13, at the home of the bride's mother at Hood River, Oregon. The parlor had been made a bower of beauty, a large arch of pink and white roses encircled the double west windows, and green branches, bowls and jardinières were filled with the beautiful and fragrant blossoms. The dining room was decorated with white Shasta daisies.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. J. H. Woodcock sang in her sweet voice, "I Love You Truly," Miss Neva Harvey at the piano. Promptly at two o'clock, to the strains of Lohengren's wedding march the bridal party, led by Mrs. Howard Isenberg, as matron of honor, came into the room and took their places beneath the arch. The groom was attended by Howard Isenberg. The solemn and impressive words of the ring service were spoken by Rev. W. B. Young of Ashberry M. E. church.

The bride looked dainty and sweet in a handsome dress of white crepe de chine over white silk net, carrying an arm bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns tied with broad silk ribbon gatzte, long loops and streamers. The matron of honor was gowned in a handsome dress of blue silk crepe. The groom and best man were in conventional black. Dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The bride and groom took their departure for Portland and Forest Grove.

The bride's going away suit was a smart tailored brown Panama, with cream colored lace waist, white Panama hat trimmed in cream with white velvet pond lilies. They will be at home at Wamic, Ore., after June 30, where the groom who is a prosperous rancher, has a cozy home fitted for his bride. The best wishes of numerous friends follow them to their new home.

Davis-Overman

A very quiet but extremely pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening the 16th, at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ida Overman, 412 Fulton street, The Dalles, when Miss Mildred Overman became the bride of Bert E. Davis.

The bride wore a dainty gown of white dimity. She carried carnations and fern in a shower effect, Mary and Helen Overman, sisters of the bride, wore white lingerie frocks. They preceded the bride to the altar, strewn rose petals in her path. An improvised arch of pink roses and fern, capped with a lover's knot of tulle, was formed and under this the bride and groom took their places. The living room was decked with pink roses and fern and the other rooms were tastefully decorated with clusters of red roses.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. D. C. Towlie of Rufus, Oregon. Miss Elizabeth Altermatt of Rufus sang "A Perfect Day." The Rev. Nathan Evans, pastor of the Methodist church, read the impressive ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are domiciled at their home in the southern part of Wasco county where Mr. Davis owns a large ranch.—Optomist.

An account of the Daus-DeCamp wedding is given in the Criterion Chronicles on this page.

There will be a big three day celebration July 2, 3 and 4 at Antelope.

1915's New Home Building Standard

Every person who contemplates building a HOME should know that HOME BUILDING now ranks among the professions.

It is not enough to merely supply the necessary raw materials—today the real lumber merchant—the Professional Home Builder, if you please—must be thoroughly equipped to satisfy his customers in ways unthought of ten years, five years ago—yes, last year.

And in all of these ways the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company is fully equipped. Our Plan Book of HOMES is beyond question the most attractive ever placed before the public.

The qualities and properties of every desirable material are fully explained and demonstrated, and various combinations of construction material, finish, hardware and color schemes are presented for approval.

We supply complete data about that new HOME—no trouble—no worry—no "figurin" and no delay.
