School Notes

Those of the primary room who took the examinations and passed were Darrel Turner, Tom Smith, Mary Martin, Fern Mayhew, Laura and Vera Goetjen.

Harold, Helen and Earl Locke were visitors at the school Tuesday and intend to take in the picnic today.

John Moad and Louis Emmons passed in the ninth grade examination last week and are now ready and eager for tenth grade work.

The most of the pupils in the sixth grade passed. Several will have a chance during vacation to catch up.

The final examination last week shows that the school is strongest in grammar and weakest in spelling. The studies in the order of the standings are language, history, bookkeeping, mathematics, reading, literature, physiology, geography, spelling.

School closes today until September 13. All have worked well and are deserving of a good vacation. Both of the teachers think that their pupils are a lot of good hearted boys and girls, and they are glad to cooperate with the parents in the proper training of these hopeful future citizens.

During the school year 56 pupils were enrolled. Not a pupil was present every day and not late. Violet Miller was neither absent nor tardy for over seven months till she graduated; Vera Goetjen has not lost a day but was late twice; Louis Emmons was never late but lost a day and a half; Willie McClure was never late, but was absent only one day.

Miss Charlotte Thrall, sister of the primary teacher, came out from The Dalles Wednesday for a visit and will take in the picnic today.
