SAVING THE SOLDIER

WONDERFUL ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF MODERN SURGERY.

German System So Perfect That Separately Wounded Men Are Restored to Service in Comparatively Short Time.

With their characteristic thoroughness the Germans have set themselves to the task of saving every wounded soldier sent back from the front who is not beyond their aid. They are accomplishing wonderful results and thousands of disabled soldiers are soon restored to health and sent back to the firing line, who might have perished miserably were it not for the scientific management of German hospital work.

There is no neglect of the wounded. From the time a man is hurt on the battlefield until he is installed in a hospital, perhaps far away from the scene of his injury, all that could possibly be done for him before he reaches the hospital has been accomplished by skilled hands and when he reaches his destination competent surgeons, who specialize in the kind of wound he has received, begin the final work of healing. Instead of being the most common operation in war surgery, amputation is not practiced now, except as the last resort. Antiseptic treatment has so minimized the danger of infection that the most desperately wounded soldiers are saved and dismissed from the hospitals with their full complement of limbs.

Not only are German surgeons doing splendid work, but American, French, English and Austrian surgeons are every day performing remarkable operations. Recently an operation was performed by Prof. Albert Tietze on a soldier who had a serious wound in his head. After a large fragment of shell had been removed the X-rays showed that a small piece of shell remained. Professor Tietze said this particle could not safely be left in the skull because it might become dislodged in future years and cause instant death.

It was suggested that a magnet be used to draw out the splinter. There was no instrument of the sort available, but engineers of the telegraphic division soon made an electro-magnet. A motor, formerly used for running a threshing machine, and a dynamo were requisitioned. The physician took an iron wand, highly polished, and connected it with a coil. The wand was inserted in the soldier's skull and the fragment of shell was easily withdrawn as it clung to the end of the iron.

Properly Named.

Not all of the good negro stories come from the South. For instance, there is the one told by John Poucher, Jr., now of Omaha, though formerly of these parts, who has been visiting his brother-in-law, "Heathen" Wood, in Louisville recently. John was a newspaper man once, but he is preaching now.

He says there is an old darkey in Omaha, who, strange as it may seem in that latitude, never was a slave. The old man does odd jobs of hauling, for which purpose he uses a gigantic mule of tremendous strength and equal deliberation and determination. One day John asked the old man the mule's name.

"Dat mule am name Co'poration," was the answer.

"What on earth ever made you give him such a name as that?" John asked.

"Jes 'cause dat am re nachel name fo' 'im," said the old man. "Dat ar mule he kin stan' mo' 'buse an' go right alhaid havin' 'is own way dan any wite pusson, yo' eber see."—Louisville Times.

Bad Opera Kills Good Hound.

Held before a canned music machine, a big collie belonging to Miss Jane Detrick of New Market, Md., was called to dog heaven. The dog died in an hour after being forced to listen to the music. Miss Detrick had just purchased the machine and was trying it out, with a seven-dollar grand opera record, made by several great singers. She wanted her pet to hear the music and held the animal before the instrument. The dog whined pitifully and finally wriggled from the arms of his mistress.

After getting loose the collie raced through the house, chewing its paws. Thinking that the dog had gone mad, Miss Detrick sent for a veterinarian, who announced that the dog, which was a high-strung animal, had died from excitement and fright.

A Sure Thing About Wives.

C. N. Niles, the Rochester aviator who captained Carranza's flying staff in Mexico, said in a New York interview:

"Successful! I should say we were successful. Aeroplanes are just as sure to be successful in warfare as wives are sure to be jealous.

"I know a Rochester man who said warmly to his wife one evening:

"I saw Mrs. Brown today. By jingo, what a beauty! She doesn't look thirty-five, does she?"

"No, not now," his wife answered, coldly, "though I guess she did once."

Pretty Well Fixed.

"I was surprised to hear that you had married a man with no provisions for the future," said the bride's aunt.

"Oh, but we have, auntie," replied her bridelets. "We have nine cases of canned goods in the pantry."

HOME THAT IS TRULY HOME

its Creation is Wholly the Art of Woman, and Really Her Life's Best Work.

A home is not merely a house; it is an atmosphere; it is a place of beloved associations, where you can wear old clothes, and think old thoughts, and hear familiar voices without hearing them. You can be happy there, and be comfortably unhappy, be thoroughly unpleasant even, and know that those you love will think no worse of you than they do already. Luxury cannot make a home, nor can books, or pictures, or rugs, or bric-a-brac. A cat, a canary, two geraniums, a Bible and an old rocking chair may make one of the loveliest homes in the world. At the same time a home is not necessarily happy because it is the house of poverty, as some would have us believe.

The art of creating home atmosphere is wholly the art of woman, and she has none more charming. Mere care will not do it, or mere neatness and tidiness; indeed those things sometimes work the other way. The love of prettiness will not do it; good cooking will not do it, although it is a mighty help. Even being gay and merry, and kindly yourself is not quite enough, although it helps even more than the cooking. Success in homemaking, as in everything else, requires that you shall feel a real joy in your work. If it is a drag, if it is an irksome duty, if your mind is on a thousand outside things that are not home, you cannot make home what it should be. Not that the homemaker should think of nothing else. That is neither desirable nor possible. But the woman whose first pleasure is to create that beautiful thing, home, will be a precious and permanent influence not only to her own family, but to all her household, to all her guests, to the whole community in which she lives.—Youth's Companion.

HOW TO COOK VEGETABLES

To Attain Best Results, These Worth-While Observances Should Be Kept Strictly in Mind.

1. Use the freshest vegetables that can be procured.
2. All fresh green vegetables should be placed in boiling salted water.
3. All dried vegetables, such as beans, haricots, lentils, etc., should be placed in lukewarm water.
4. The use of plenty of water in the cooking of all sorts of cabbage and sprouts is not only preservative of color; it is also advantageous in reducing the disagreeable smell which cabbage water always has.
5. Never allow vegetables of any kind to remain soaking in the water in which they were boiled; drain them at once when they are cooked.
6. It is waste of money to buy old, dried vegetables, and a waste of time to try to cook them.

Jelly Jumbles.

One-half cupful butter, one cupful sugar, one egg, one-half teaspoonful soda, one-half cupful sour milk, one-quarter teaspoonful salt, flour, currant jelly. Cream the butter, add sugar gradually, egg well beaten, soda mixed with milk, salt and flour to make a soft dough. Chill and shape, using a round cutter. On the center of one-half the pieces put currant jelly. Make these small openings in remaining halves, using a thimble, and put pieces together. Press edges slightly and bake in a rather hot oven, that jumbles may keep in good shape.

Maitre d'Hotel Sauce.

Make a teaspoonful of drawn butter; add to it the juice of a lemon, two tablespoonfuls of minced onion, three tablespoonfuls of chopped parsley, a teaspoonful of powdered thyme or summer savory, a pinch of cayenne and salt. Simmer over the fire and stir well. Excellent with all kinds of fish.

Vegetable Ragout.

Put one cupful each sliced turnips, potatoes and carrots into boiling water. Cook till tender. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in another pan. Stir into it one-half cupful of minced onion and fry brown. Add two tablespoonfuls of browned flour and gradually one pint of hot water. When smooth turn contents of saucepan into it, season to taste with salt and pepper, cook slowly 30 minutes, dish and serve. Just before sending to table sprinkle a tablespoonful of minced parsley over.

Old-Fashioned Lemon Pie.

Four lemons, chop the rind fine, then add the juice of the lemons, one quart of molasses, one pound raisins, chopped. Use three crusts, makes three pies. Bake in an old-fashioned brick oven, if you can.

Good to Try.

When the oil stove oven bakes too quickly on the bottom, as is generally the case, you can make it bake evenly by placing a piece of asbestos the size of your pan in the bottom of the oven.

Crafty Editor.

A Virginia editor threatened to publish the name of a certain young man who was seen hugging and kissing a girl in the park unless his subscription to the paper was paid up in a week. Fifty-nine young men called and paid up the next day, while two even paid a year in advance.

The Power behind the dough

You may use an old favorite recipe and the best of materials and make it carefully, the oven may be just right, yet you will have a failure if "The Power behind the Dough" is not the right one to leaven it properly and make it light, digestible, wholesome.

Good baking without good baking powder is out of the question. K.C. Baking Powder has wonderful leavening power, and the double action—in the bowl and in the oven—makes good results doubly certain.

Take no chances of failure—use K.C. and have "good luck" every time. At all Grocers.

Lost Curis Are Found.

In a picture show at a Madison street theater one evening a little girl and her mother were seated near me. A comic picture was on, showing a lady "making up" with paint, powder, false hair, etc. The climax came when the interested little girl cried out: "Oh, mamma, there's the curls you lost at Aunt Bell's party. Where do you 'spose she found 'em?"—Chicago Tribune.

Told Her About It.

Eugene attended the wedding of his Aunt Nan, which took place in church. The bridegroom and best man were waiting at the altar for the bride, who was slowly advancing up the aisle, to the strains of the wedding march, when Eugene's childish treble sounded clearly. "Hurry up, Aunt Nan, Mr. Abbot's waiting for you."

Sizing Up Baby.

"Which side of the house do you think the baby resembles most?" proudly asked young Popjoy. "Well—h'm!" answered Smith. "I can't see that he looks so very much like the side of a house."—Woman's Home Companion.

Her Waist Measure.

A teacher in one of the city schools—who, to say the least, is of rather generous proportions—was trying to explain to her scholars the correct measurements of the human frame. "For example," she said, "twice around my thumb, once around my wrist; twice around my wrist, once around my neck, once around my neck, once around my waist." Then she paused, and a shrill voice from the back of the room exclaimed, "Twice around yer waist, once around the city hall."

Some Progress, Anyway.

There are still many discouragements and backsets along the path of progress, but our memory goes back to the time when frequently one of the chief worries of a campaign manager was how to keep the candidate sober.—Columbus (Ohio) Journal.

Women Everywhere

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No woman who is suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex should rest until she has given this famous remedy a trial. ### Wonderful Case of Mrs. Crusen, of Bushnell, Ill.

BUSHNELL, ILL.—"I think all the trouble I have had since my marriage was caused by exposure when a young girl. My work has been housework of all kinds, and I have done milking in the cold and snow when I was too young to realize that it would hurt me. I have suffered very much with bearing down pains in my back and such miserable pains across me, and was very nervous and generally run down in health, but since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my back never hurts me, my nerves are stronger, and I am gaining in health every day. I thank you for the great help I have received from your medicine, and if my letter will benefit suffering women I will be glad for you to print it."—Mrs. JAMES CRUSEN, Bushnell, Illinois.

A Grateful Atlantic Coast Woman.

HODGSON, ME.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health.
