

The Maupin Times

Published Every Friday at Maupin, Oregon.

J. E. DISBROW, Publisher

Subscription: One Year, $1.50, Six Months 75cts, Three Months 50

Entered in the post office at Maupin, Oregon, as second class mail matter.

Friday afternoon A. A. Disbrow and Jessilene Disbrow motored to the home of the latter's mother on Upper Smock, returning Sunday evening. Before returning, in company with Mrs. E. H. Disbrow, Blaine and Vina Disbrow, a trip through the woods along the Keep's ditch survey was enjoyed. Mr. Disbrow left in his car Tuesday morning to visit Hood River relatives. While here he proved a valuable assistant in setting type for and getting out one issue of the Maupin Times and made the editor the proud recipient of a handsome Oliver typewriter.

Robt. Knox loaded a car with household goods at the O. T. depot Tuesday to be shipped to Joplin, Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Knox have had charge of the Simnasho Indian school but have secured a transfer to the Wind River reservation on the Wyoming border.

Dr. J. A. Fellows and son of Rochester, New York, arrived the first of the week for a visit with his brother, Dr. B. O. Fellows of this place. This is the first meeting of the two brothers in 43 years. Uncle Doc says his brother wants him to return with him, but he has not fully made up his mind to do so.

A transaction took place the first of the month whereby G. L. Harphan bought the confectionery fixtures of B. J. Styer and will occupy the entire building. Mr. Styer has moved his barber shop into part of the building occupied by Ray Smith's meat market.

That wonderful drink, Tallcott's nectar.

J. E. Overman and wife of Midland, Arkansas were guests at the home of their niece, Mrs. Bert E. Davis, on the Mays ranch last week. Mr. and Mrs. Overman are on a three months' trip in the West, visiting the Exposition city and other points. They expect to arrive home about the middle of September.

The Times would like to have a correspondent in every community of Southern Wasco county. If your locality is not represented send us a sample letter, with your name and address. We will send you stationery.

E. J. Fischer and Miss Dorothy arrived home Friday from their trip across the mountains accompanied by Miss Troutman of Forest Grove. Mrs. Fischer and Miss Phillis are visiting in the Grove.

Why not send the Times to some distant friend? It will beat writing letters all hollow and would be highly appreciated by the person receiving it. It only costs a dollar and fifty cents a year and will go to him or her 52 times.

Mrs. C. H. Francis wrote July 30 from Toronto, Canada, where she arrived that morning. "Everything fine; lots of rain all the way through Wy., Neb., Iowa, Illinois and Mich; not a bit tired."

Shattuck Bros. received three carloads of supplies this week; one each of gasoline, flour and farming implements. This speaks well for the prosperous condition of the meacantile business of Maupin.

Don't blame your clock—it needs cleaning. Emmons will do it for you and guarantee it.
