Criterion Chronicles

Last Friday evening Rev. Ellis preached on Unity to an appreciative audience at the school house. Our people are looking forward with much pleasure to the regular weekly visits of Rev. Ellis who has consented to minister to us in the future.

Wilson Bros. threshed Roy Castor's crop last week. The work of their outfit is par excellence.

Frank Buzan, wife and son returned home Thursday last after several week's stay at Wapinitia.

Isaac Winifree has returned home after a two months' harvest season.

Misses Grace Tunison and Hilda Castor came over from Flanagan Saturday returning Sunday.

The jump in wheat prices is a matter of much satisfaction to our farmers who rightfully feel that they are entitled to a good price for their product.

Rain would be acceptable to nearly everyone as the ground is getting very dry and farmers are anxious for grain to get a good start before the winter season.

A little girl aged 4, who was visiting with her mother at a neighbor's recently, enjoyed the treat of being weighed as did several other children. On returning home she said to her father, "Papa, they scaled us over there."

E. H. Taylor and family are preparing to spend the coming winter in The Dalles.

Wapinitia Items

Julius Delco has been quite sick the past week and cannot be reported much better at this date.

Mrs. Price is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Batty.

Little Olga Abbott came very near having a serious accident last week when falling on a sharpened knife and receiving quite a gash in her chest.

Mr. Techner has been hauling lumber for the new hotel. The carpenters employed by Earl Barzee are Frank Pierce, Arthur Pechette, and Hank Harphan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harphan and Nell were Wapinitia visitors Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. John Lewis and family moved back to town last week. The girls, Anna and Mable will attend school here this winter.

Victor Hartman is one among the new students starting to school last Monday.

Paul Lewis who has been sick off and on nearly all summer says he feels much better in town than he did up on the hill.

The Gabel residence on the Natural Pasture is nearly completed and the newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gabel will move in this week.

Hatman's sawmill is in full sawing now with a good sized crew.

Rev. Goodrich, Supt. of the U. B. church, held services here Sunday morning and gave a fine lecture Monday evening.

Archie Tapp made two trips to Maupin this week to have dental work done.

Dr. Hatfield will be in Wapinitia to remain a few days.

Silva and Bernard Huston are employed at the Hartman sawmill.

Smock Items 2

The Farlow Bros. purchased a load of White River flour and gave the neighbors the advantage of laying in their flour for winter use at a bargain price. Flour delivered at Maupin.

F. E. Spoor returned from Portland Saturday via Maupin, calling his son Wayne to meet him at that place.

Mrs. Agnes Pierce is helping Mrs. Johnson this week at the Tygh Valley hotel.

David Mayfield is hauling lumber from Mulvaney & Sons' sawmill for a large barn on his ranch near Wamic; Geo. End is doing the building.

Smock was well represented at Maupin last Saturday, all going to get flour, as follows, Grant Ledford, John Ayres, Roy Fleck and Whitcomb Bros.

Terry Jones and mother have moved on their ranch, Fred Bichsel hauling their goods from Wamic last week.

I. T. Courtwright returned last Friday from a business trip to Portland.

Chas. Cline was a Wamic busi-

MANY ATTEND FAIR AT TYGH

The Southern Wasco County fair at Tygh Valley in now on and is attracting many visitors, every section of the county being represented. A large number are taking advantage of the inviting camping grounds for an outing as well as the fair.

Some refreshing rainfall Tuesday night looked for a while as if the season's festivities would be seriously interrupted, but the clouds cleared back, and soon the grounds were in fine shape, the dust being well settled.

Among those from this place attending all or part of the three days are: G. W. and W. C. Vanderpool, A. C. and D. A. Moad, D. M. Shattuck, B. D. Fraley, H. J. Styer and their families, Mrs. Oakley, Dr. Francis, and Mrs. Job Crabtree, John Muir and Clem Mathews are also there to carry off their shares of the prize money.

ness visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Cpra Smith took her little son Elwood to Tygh Valley Friday for medical aid of Dr. Shannon.

Chas. Jewell of Kent, Oregon, is a guest at the home of his cousin, Mrs. T. B. Farlow.

The road supervisor, Mr. Wm. Woodcock and Percy Driver are blasting the rock on Rock creek grade, and are doing fine work, making the road a good width.

Mrs. Leone Hull and Mrs. T. J. Whitcomb were callers at the home of Miss Ella Syron last Thursday.

Robert Vouce is at home for the winter and will make improvements on his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morgan entertained Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ledford and children Sunday.

Mrs. McMillan and little daughter of Maupin attended Sunday School here. They were returning from the mountains and lamed one of their horses, so were obliged to spend Sunday as they could not drive.

Mrs. John Farlow and son Orrin went to Maupin Saturday and are spending a few days visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mulvaney spent the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Howell's, Sunday.

Tom Farlow and family were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ogelsby.

Fair, fair. Everybody is talking fair.

Ed Fawk came down from the mountains Sunday where he has been herding sheep.

Miss Ipha Howell came home from the Flat Thursday where she had been for several weeks at the home of Mrs. J. Davidson who has been suffering from an abscess, but is some better at the time of this writing.

School Notes

Louis Emmons was absent Monday on account of moving. The only day he lost last year was for the same reason.

John Moad went with the band to the Tygh Fair Tuesday and has been there ever since.

The High school room elected Nellie Harphan for leader in singing during October.

Lewis Derthick has been kept home for over a week on account of operations at The Dalles Hospital on his tonsils and for adenoids.

Earl Cunningham has been out a few days finishing some work on the ranch.

Ray Smith began coming to school Monday and hopes now to come regularly.

Semi-monthly oral spelling last Friday: Guy Fryman, Lela Chastain and Lillian Kessinger each spelled down the school.

Dewey Moss, lately from Mc-Timmonds Valley, Polk county, started in school here Monday. He is in the eighth grade.

The school report for month ending October 8 showed a total enrollment of 49, an average daily attendance of 43, and 9 cases of tardiness.

Miss Willamette Shively was a visitor in the primary room Monday.

Earl Locke, Theodore and Thomas Moss entered school Monday.

Clyde Williams enrolled in the 9th grade Wednesday.

Outside Mention

W. C. Walker of The Dalles spent Sunday at the Byrtner home here.—Dispatch.

Permit to wed was issued Monday morning to Lon Wing and Mrs. Lulu McGregory of Wamic, M. M. Morris, a Tygh Valley resident, was transacting business here Friday.

J. D. Driver was here from Wamic last week visiting and attending business matters.—Dispatch.

Wasco county is second in grapes, second in wool shipments and third in the production of melons. It is the home of the Warm Springs Indian reservation.—Journal.

J. M. O'Brien and family moved the first of the week to their farm on Juniper Flat, near Wapinitia, where they will reside in the future.—Dispatch.

C. E. Tunison of Maupin was in the county seat Monday.

Frank Woodcock, U. S. land office register, has a new Frank "six" automobile of which he is particularly proud. The car is handsome in appearance and attracts much admiring attention on the streets.

W. M. Young of Tygh Valley spent Tuesday in The Dalles.

J. W. Staats of Maupin is in the city.

The Tygh Valley fair will open Wednesday and continue for three days. It is probable that a large number of Dalles residents will motor to Tygh Valley to attend the fair. The industrial exhibits are said to be exceptionally good and the school display is far above the average in every way. Boosters of the fair say it is well worth a trip to Tygh Valley. A special feature of the fair will be the races which be held each day.

SOUTHERN WASCO WANTS BENEFIT Of Money Used

W. H. Staats of the Good Roads committee of the south end of Wasco county was detained at Dufur and Kingsley on his trip to The Dalles last week. Mr. Staats seems a favorite representative of the interests of the people of this end of the county at the county seat. Mr. Staats says this county is to be bonded for $250,000, the interest of, representing the taxpayers of Wasco county. The heavy taxpayers of this county are south of The Dalles and it is up to us to have a voice in saying where this money is to be expended. In our judgement as a representative of this part of the district, we the people of the south end of the county should have a certain portion of this $250,000 to be appropriated for the good roads to represent Wasco county. We are willing to have the appropriation but we must have a part of the money expended on the south end of the county, representing Dufur, Kingsley, Tygh Valley, Wapinitia, Maupin and Shaniko.

Grandma Cook 92

Guests of Grandma Cook Tuesday, her 92nd birthday, were Mrs. Jesse of Colorado, Mrs. Rice of Spokane, Wn., Ben Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCabe, James Cook, Mr. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Ellis. All enjoyed a good dinner followed by songs, Grandma's favorite Psalm and prayer led by Grandma herself. She was quite happy with her children and having received cards from other relatives and friends who could not be with her.

Paul Smith who has had the lease of J. L. Fraley's Juniper Flat farm will soon move to North Carolina, having purchased a farm in that state.

Mr. Staats will be willing to answer any questions that may be asked of the interest of the taxpayers of the county.
