MEXICAN BANDITS WRECK TRAIN, BURN TRESTLE AND KILL TWO

Brownsville, Tex.-Mexican bandits early Wednesday held up and robbed a St. Louis & San Francisco passen-ger train, killing two persons and wounding three others, near Olmite, seven miles north of here. The dead:

H. H. Kendall, engineer. United States cavalryman, name un

The injured: Dr. E. S. McCain, Cameron county physician, probably fatally shot. Harry Wallis, seriously wounded in Conductor P. E. Morgan, slightly destroyed.

This hindered the progress of the first detachment of troops which was sent in pursuit so that the bandits had ample time to flee into the brush.

Passengers who reached here on a relief train said that the train was derailed, that Mexicans poured into the coaches shouting "Viva Pizana" and commenced to shoot at the passengers.

Between $1100 and $1200 is involved in the annual tax payments by the reductions ordered in the circuit court.

The case is considered important in as-much as it opens the way for other big timber interests to fight for lower assessments. The county's figures are all based on the M. G. Nease cruise.

Pizana, the man the bandits were cheering, is supposed to be the leader of the so-called "Texas revolution" nurtured under the "plan of San Diego," which last year contemplated the seizure of border states and returning board.

Strange Tragedy Comes to Light.

Canyonville, Or,—How an old trap-per, with his leg caught in a big bear trap, perished alone and miserably in the forest 17 years ago, was revealed by the finding of a skeleton with a bone held in the rusted trap, on the Fortune Branch Creek, and reported nere Wednesday.

NEW DEFENSE PLAN

At Uncle Sam's Call.

Security of Positions and Earnings Is Essential Part of Proposition Now Interesting Officials.

Washington, D. C. — Employers throughout the United States—corpor ations, manufacturers, professional men, tradesmen and business men of men, tradesmen and business men of all classes—are to be asked to contribute as their share in the national defense permission for their employes to engage, without serious financial loss, in two months' military training during each of three years.

This is an essential part of the administration's plan for raising a citizen army of 800,000 men in six years, which, with the regular army of 140,000 men and 300,000 reserves, would give a trained force, exclusive of state militia, of about 1,200,000 in the event of war.

The success of the plan, officials admit, depends not on the appropriation of congress, for its cost will be comparatively small, but on the patriotic response of employers to whom an ap-peal will be made to furlough as many men each year, at different seasons, as they can spare and who wish to join the proposed continental army. Administration officials are confident that, even though it is proposed to enlist only 133,000 men in the year in the continentals, or a total of near-ily 800,000 in the first six-year period, more than that number would be at-tracted by the outdoor life of a milltary camp if they could be assured by their employers that their positions would not be lost and their earnings seriously decreased.

The proposed enlistment requires two months' service for each of three years and liability for service during the remaining three years only in event of war.

The army plans for more than 1,000,000 trained men in six years, and the navy' program of ten dreadnoughts and six battle cruisers within five years, both of which will be presented to congress with the indorsement of President Wilson, were the absorbing topics of interest here.

Mackensen No Scot.

The idea current in the Scottish press that General von Mackensen is a Highlander gone astray is quite erroneous. One finds on the continent occasional traces of Scottish names slightly transformed to fit their surroundings. They are common enough in Holland, thanks to the famous eighteenth century regiment of the Scots-Dutch, and we have an example in the Norwegian planist, Grieg, whose ancestors, Greigs of Arboath, settled in Bergen, in Norway. Von Mackensen is no sort of a Mackenzie. He takes his name from the village of Mackensen, on the Solling, a small agricultural spot in Hanover, not far from the once pleasant town of Hildesheim. Like most families who derive their names from the soil, General von Mackensen comes from a very old family, though its patent of nobility is entirely modern. - Manchester Guardian.
