Tygh

Frank Morrow of Wamic is working on it.

Harvey McClain and wife returned to Tygh Valley after a long sojourn with Harvey's people who live in the valley; all were glad to see them back.

Dr. Brown went to The Dalles Saturday morning returning Sunday very late, Zene Watkins making a trip to The Dalles for him.

Did the boys chivari Lon Wing when he was married here a short time ago? All joy to Mr. and Mrs. Wing.

Roy Morris and wife have moved down on White river in Vince Steers' house. Mrs. Morris has asthma and the damp atmosphere is much better for her. They contemplate moving to the Valley.

Geo. Morris returned home Monday night from Sherman county where he has been at work.

How can parents expect their children to be dutiful and obedient and stay at home when the parents never think anything is going the child's way. Children have rights that parents are bound to respect. Let them have their amusements at home and their company too.

Some people think it is something dreadful to see a young man or woman work their way through school or college, but Elmer Munier is working at the hotel and Mrs. Johnson says splendid help he makes. Elmer is a boy of fine address, pleasant, affable and obliging and can play as good a game of Whist as the next person.

Tuesday night was solo night. Now is the time to begin work on the fair. Don't go to sleep but be up and doing next meeting to vote for officers. Why not invite the ladies to vote; they are interested too.

Smock Items 2

Miss Ida Duncan was a guest of Miss Vina Ayres Wednesday.

A few changes in real estate last week. T. E. Farlow 80 acres to John Gordon; David Moorehouse 160 acres to G. W. Bargainholt.

John Farlow killed some fine porkers Friday.

Willis Farlow was absent from school Monday on account of sickness.

School Notes

Harold Locke has been kept out of school this week on account of the arrival of a boy baby in his home. Harold has also a route for The Dalles Model laundry and is a good worker.

Leon and Merilda Chouinard, 12 and 10 years old, walked out to Mr. Woodruff's last Sunday, six miles, and brought back with them five little pigs.

Special school meeting at the school house, on Saturday, November 13 at 2 p. m.

Examination papers were returned to the pupils last Monday. The standing ranged from 28 to 100. Louis Emmons got 100 in Literature, John Moad 100 in Composition, Guy Fryman and Clyde Williams 100 in Medieval History, Naomi Smith 100 in Grammar, Wm. Fischer 100 in Introductory History, Thomas Cook 100 in Geography.

Co. Supt. Bonney sends word that the date of Harrington-Pittman lectures have been changed to Tuesday evening Nov. 9. Mr. Harrington's lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon views and Mr. Pittman's will be a selected lecture. Both are very interesting speakers, and it is hoped that the entire community will show its appreciation of these able men and of the Department of Public Instruction which they represent.
