Mr. and Mrs. King from Portland are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Herman Knopf.

N. W. Flinn who has been laid up for the past five months with a crushed limb, is getting along very nicely, but it will be several months yet before he will be able to get along without the aid of his crutches.

Mr. Dodge is up at Cedar Swamp at present making posts.

Criterion Chronicles

Arthur Henderson and family came home from Yakima on Friday.

Misses Bertha Herrling and Gertrude Mattes visited Maupin Saturday last.

At a special school meeting Saturday evening, a motion was carried to paint school house white and the roof green. This commendable, as a building well painted with a good quality of paint is always a good investment.

Rev. Ellis expects to begin special meetings at this place on next Wednesday evening.

Among those who have recently finished fall sowing are D. B. Appling, Ed. Herrling, W. M. Snelson, Dale Bonney, D. L. Rutherford, R. H. and Laco DeCamp, C. A. Duus, W. E. Hunt and Chas. Skogsberg.

C. A. Duus has just completed a building to house his threshing outfit. He will also build a tool and wagon house. Such improvements will pay any farmer large dividends.

C. E. Tanison and wife came over Saturday for a short visit with the family of their son Earl.

Pleasant Gathering

Our neighborhood had another of their famous good time gatherings at the school house on Monday.

The occasion was especially pleasing to our citizens and the school as County Supt. Bonney in a suitable address, presented to Miss Herrling and her pupils the banner for being the first standard school in the county.

Prof. Harrington gave a very fine stereoptical lecture on industrial club work by Oregon pupils.

At noon every one tried to outdo his neighbor in filling to their capacity of the splendid banquet which was furnished by the ladies of the district.

After dinner the time was spent listening to a program of recitations, songs and impromptu speeches.

All present voted the day very profitably spent.

Smock Items 2

Mrs. John Howell and Mrs. Minnie Bargainholt were Wapinitia visitors last Friday.

Chas. Ross and bride have taken up their abode at the Barlow Gate ranch. The writer and many friends extend best wishes and the future holds many bright years for them. Mr. Ross is very much respected by all who know him.

EDUCATIONAL MEN HERE TUESDAY

Industrial Subjects

(School Notes)

To anyone interested in the improvement of the community, it was quite gratifying Tuesday evening to see the fine audience at the school house, the new schoolroom being filled beyond seating capacity.

County Supt. Bonney gave an interesting account of work being done in various schools of the county, especially in standardizing and industrial subjects.

Mr. Pitman of the State Normal School lectured on Community Conversion along five lines: Good roads, improved methods of work, changed political and religious views, and changed schools. His main thought was, get out of the old ruts and onto new and better ways, and was replete with wit and good humor throughout.

Mr. Harrington of Oregon Agricultural College, aided by Mr. Bonney, gave a stereopticon lecture, showing views from all parts of the state, chiefly of industrial project exhibitions at local county and state fairs, and

The Times is this week printing its first full page ad which is on the last page of the paper in usual place for the locals which appear this week on the third page.

This page, eight, which is devoted to the Tum-A-Lum Co., contains five half tone cuts, on which much care has been taken to make them look as well as it is possible for them to, printed on an Armory hand press. Having now demonstrated that a full page advertisement is possible even for the Times, we will expect others ere long.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Haines are now residents of Maupin and plan to in the near future erect a cottage on the lot adjoining the parsonage.

of groups of project workers and individual prize winners who all came from rural or village schools.

All joined in singing The Star Spangled banner at the opening. The Battle Hymn of the Republic between the lectures and Home, Sweet, Home at the close, and seemed to feel they had spent a pleasant and profitable evening.
