MAUPIN, SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1915

THE YEAR $1.50

SENT IN BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Tygh Valley 2

The weather has been quite gloomy for the past week or so, and a good stiff blow would dry up this mud.

Tom Swift moved to Tygh to school his little daughter Wanda. They live in some of the rooms in the old hotel.

Mrs. Shannon has been having lambago for the past week or two.

Grandpa McCorkle is as well as usual, looks well, sleeps well and is as fond of head cheese as any of his neighbors.

J. T. Harper is on deck once more and every one is glad to see him.

Tom Swift met with quite a painful accident Saturday while coming from Friend with a load of freight for the Wamic store. He fell from his wagon and a front wheel passed over his legs hurting him quite badly, so bad in fact that Tom said he didn't know which foot to limp on so he compromised by limping on both.

Mrs. J. T. Harper is on the sick list. Dr. Shannon is attending her.

C. J. VanDuyn is assisting in the store while Mrs. Harper is sick.

The lagrippe seems to have Tygh in its gripp alright.

The basket social and play last Friday night was quite a success over thirty dollars being the receipts of the evening. This goes to pay for the new swings that have been put up for the use of the school children. We did not know there was so much money in the country. Now that goes to show what a community can do, have their own entertainments and the money is left here at home, but where a traveling troop comes along, they take our money away altogether, so why can't Wamic or Tygh or some of these other small places, get up an entertainment for Christmas.

Girls do you bear in mind that next year is leap year? Well it is and I want you to astonish the natives by giving some leap year parties and dances, and remember if you propose to a young man and he refuses you, you are entitled to a new silk dress at his expense.

Someone said wait 'till Clyde Oliver breaks his mules and then we will see some fun.

Wapinitia Items

Grandpa Evick is able to be about again after an illness of about three weeks.

Chas. Delore and family spent several days of last week at the home of John Ward.

Clinton Knopf and Bill Maynard made a business trip to Maupin last Friday.

Miss Vida Evans, the teacher of the Batty district and pupils are preparing a play to be given on Wednesday before Christmas.

If signs of the times doesn't fail us, "wedding bells" will be ringing in this vicinity in the near future.

Edd Davis is suffering from a severe attack of the rheumatism this week.

Jackson Rice is engaged hauling wood from the mountains this week.

Criterion Chronicles

Several nights ago our peaceful hamlet was thrown into intense excitement by a heavy bombardment which came from the west. For a time people thought that some European war god had strayed into this land of peace to do terrible havoc among us, but after investigation it proved to be a slide of rocks and earth which had rested on the railroad along the Deschutes, and the canonading was, caused by workmen engaged in clearing the right of way.

House moving has again claimed two more victims, W. F. Sinclair and Frank Buzan being the latest to enlist in the ranks of those dissatisfied with their former locations.

Mrs. W. M. Hunt recently received the sad news of the death of her youngest brother, who had been living in Montana.

L. B. Haines of Maupin spent a few days in our community last week with friends and relatives, remaining for the Sunday services.

J. E. Miller returned home with his brother T. O. Miller, near Shaniko, last Wednesday.

Aura Buzan is here for a visit with his brothers.

John Grossman of Tygh, was visiting friends here for a few days recently.

Dale Donney and wife were visiting home folks at Tygh for a few days last week.

J. B. Kidder was at Maupin Wednesday.

L. B. DeCamp is engaged with Supervisor Fryman on the public roads.

C. A. Duus was a visitor at Maupin Saturday.

One of the most successful revival meetings was closed at the school house Sunday night by Rev. Ellis. The great amount of good resulting therefrom to this community cannot be over estimated. Nineteen persons were converted and a society known as the Criterion Christian Union, with a large membership was formed, and ten persons were taken into membership with the Maupin church. Besides the regular Sunday school session, three meetings were held Sunday and a basket dinner was one of the enjoyable features of the day.

Ridgeway Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Bleakney are visiting at Bakoveu this week.

Mrs. Cora Mitchell spent the early part of last week at Shaniko and Antelope, making final proof on her homestead and incidentally visiting friends there.
