Word comes from Alaska of the narrow escape of Wasco county people, when a small ship of which Ernest Steers was captain, capsized one night the latter part of November. The crew took refuge on a small boat which would have sunk with one more passenger, Captain Steers got into a canoe which immediately capsized, leaving him to ride it wrong side up, fastened to the other boat. They finally took refuge in a deserted Indian hut until the next afternoon when they went down the coast and were picked up by another boat. Peter Hull, who with his family is there, suffered a cold on his lungs. The ship valued at $5,000 and clothing and tools are entire loss.

Smock Items 2

Hermann Gesh and family of Wamic were Thursday visitors at the home of Mrs. Gesh's parents S. H. Mulvany.

Chas. Oline, F. B. Spoor, T. E. Farlow, Whitcomb Bros. and Bargainholt and Son were among those who butchered this week. Every family at Lapenville is sick with the lagrippe.

T. J. Whitcomb and children, and Mrs. Anna Smith and daughter visited his sister Mrs. Hull last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farlow were guests at the home of Mrs. Hull and brother last Tuesday.

Miss Ella Byron and baby sister are victims of the lagrippe.

G. W. Bargainholt and daughter Mrs. Cora Smith went to Maupin Wednesday. Mrs. Smith had some dental work done by Dr. Hatfield.

George Duncan is plowing for Chas. Ross on the Forest Ranger place. Mr. Ross and bride occupy the house on the Barlow gate ranch.

Grandma Farlow spent a few days visiting her son Marion and family last week.

Edward Disbrow returned home Tuesday after helping Geo. Thornton repair fence, cut wood etc. The Disbrow brothers are now cutting their winter wood.

C. N. Farlow drove several head of cattle to his ranch on upper Smock last week. T. J. Hill who was calling on the sick Sunday, need not have passed a door, for every one has some member of the family sick.

Mrs. Griffin is entertaining her uncle from Fossil this week.

Chas. Marlin had charge of F. E. Spoor's stock and ranch while Mr. Spoor was at Seattle.

The lagrippe caused quite a number of school children to be absent. There are twenty-eight enrolled, and a part of last week the attendance was fifteen.

Mr. Carsten of Middle Brook was a business visitor at N. E. Whitcomb's Wednesday.

Thursday Mr. Spoor took a load of dressed porkers to The Dalles.

C. W. Bargainholt was a victim of lagrippe last week.

Victory 2

When your good is evil spoken of, when your wishes are crossed, your taste offended, your advice disregarded your opinion ridiculed, and you take it all in patient silence, that is victory.

J. A. Underhill who is at Tygh Valley again for a short time from Prosser, Wa., was in Maupin Tuesday. He says it seems natural to be back here. Mrs. Underhill is just out of the hospital after a two months' illness, is recovering.

Mr. Underhill stated that 800 school children were out of school on account of the lagrippe in Prosser; he also says his brother had a narrow escape when he drove over a bomb with his harrow, which was completely wrecked. Neither he nor team were hurt.

A Beautiful Home for the Only Girl--It's a Duty

When you own your own home you know you have a refuge at all times. You take a pride in beautifying YOUR dwelling. Your children instinctively turn towards HOME against outside attractions.

Your merchant looks on you with favor, because he knows that a HOME-OWNER is permanent; that he will strive to keep his bills paid and his credit good; that his example will induce others to do likewise, thereby insuring greater communal permanence and stability.

Should reasons of business or health necessitate a change of location, you have a bankable resource to secure needed funds, which rent receipts, no matter how numerous, can never afford.

In your OWN HOME you can live as you want to live without interference from anyone, and without considering the whims of an owner who might have very different ideas from your own.

You are your own master--you are free to do as you will--and this this very independence of material conditions gives you an independence of thought that makes you a better father or mother, and a better citizen.

Two hundred designs of Modern, Convenient, Moderate-priced Beautiful Homes ready for your inspection, together with interesting information on HOME BUILDING.

This means no obligation on your part.
