Tygh Valley

(public school paragraphs) The school has won a standard school pennant but it has not yet been decided which room will have the honor of holding it.

All high school grades have been having examinations during the week, the last for 1915.

Fire drill having been recently introduced in the school, Tuesday morning while all were busy with their books, the gong pealed out an alarm. There was a mad rush for the landing, a hurried march down the stairs, when it was discovered that one of the young ladies was missing. One of the young men immediately went to rescue her and found her quietly sitting in her seat studying latin. He snatched her from the place of danger and bore her gallantly towards the landing when the Professor—

Wednesday evening a party of young ladies met at Prof. Brown's home and spent the evening preparing the candy, nuts and popcorn for the Christmas tree to be held in the hall Friday night. After an evening of fun and music, Mrs. Brown assisted by Miss Gertrude Brown, served whipped cream cake and hot cocoa. The girls report a fine time. Those present were Misses Gertrude and Lola Brown, Fern Fraley, Marjorie Tillotson, Edna and Leal Doering, Naomi Young, Roma Morrow and Louise Morgenschen.

Jesse and Harry Ayres, the proprietors of Bachelor Hall on Main street, will be spending the holiday vacation with their parents at Smoek.

The pupils of all grades are ready for the weeks vacation promised them between Christmas and New Years.

Miss Benney invited the pupils of the intermediate and high school grades to their Christmas tree held in the primary room Thursday afternoon. The program was very nice and they were to give it again in the hall in connection with the tree held there Friday evening.

Tygh Valley public school owns a large new flag as fine as one as floats from any school building in Southern Wasco County but something is out of order with the flag staff so it is impossible to raise the flag. We hope in the near future to have the pleasure of floating our flag with the rest of the schools. In the mean time we will take care that it is not trampled in the dirt.
