Paul Lewis Passes Away

(From Wapinitia)

The death angel entered our midst Monday morning, January 4th, and took from us our beloved friend and school mate, Paul Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis.

Although the end was expected at any time, as he had been a sufferer for a long time, and had been very low for about a month, yet our hearts are sad. He leaves a sorrowing father and mother, three brothers and two sisters, and a host of friends and neighbors to mourn his loss.

Baptismal Services

The quarterly meeting occasion here at Maupin was a splendid success all through from the most excellent sermon delivered by Rev. W. N. Coffee, to the baptismal service, the sacred rites of which were also performed by Bro Coffee, four being baptized by sprinkling at the church, and six more by immersion in the river at Chouinard's island. Mr. and Mrs. Chouinard kindly arranged for those who were immersed to change their clothing at their home, thus saving the inconvenience and possible danger of a longer exposure to the rather severe weather, as the snow was falling quite steadily at the time. Our Sunday morning service was well attended by nearly seventy people: Criterion, Bakeoven and White River being represented besides our home people, at which time one member was received into our fellowship from the United Brethren church. Immediately after the morning service a large part of the congregation enjoyed the basket dinner, made necessary by the long distance from which some of the people came, and while everyone enjoyed the dinner we much more fully enjoyed the feast upon the bread of life broken unto us by our beloved District Elder W. N. Coffee.

Mr. Austin Injured

Yesterday morning A. R. Austin who is contractor and driller on the well now being drilled for the Slusher Bros., slipped and became entangled in the machinery of his gasoline engine. As a result he was knocked unconscious and sustained a broken wrist and one shoulder was strained quite badly.

Frederic Swift who is employed with A. R. Austin, drilling a well for Slusher Bros. was in Maupin Thursday morning.

SENT IN BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Criterion Chronicles

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley returned to their Bakeoven home last Friday.

Edwin and Ida Kidder returned to The Dalles Sunday to resume their high school work.

John Grossman of Shady Brook is here looking after Henry Kramer's interests while the latter is at Vancouver.

Miss Clara Miller went to Maupin Friday for a few days visit.

Earl Tunison and family visited Maupin last Wednesday.

Chas. Skogsberg failed to get a load of fine hogs to the station in time for shipment Wednesday, and in consequence sold them at quite a discount from the market price.

Regardless of the storm and cold Criterion folks spent an enjoyable day at the quarterly meeting at Maupin Sunday, several staying for the evening service. Those going were the families of Wm. Snelson, R. H. DeCamp, C. A. Daus, C. E. Tunison Jr. and A. A. Canfield. Misses Bertha Herling and Gertrude Mathes, Messrs P. J. Kirsch, B. McCready, L. C. DeCamp, Arthur Miller and Ray Baxter.

J. G. and Chas Skogsberg are wrestling with the lagrippe.

The "furniture" incident from the Bidgeway scribe is a matter of no little interest to the people of this section. We expect to have several items of like importance shortly, as coming events seem to cast their shadows before.

Criterion people wish to thank Mr. Mayhew and Mr. Chouinard for special courtesies shown them on their Sunday visit at Maupin.

J. B. Kidder and family went with the young folks Sunday to "see them off" on their return journey to The Dalles.

Numerous New Years' resolutions, many worthy of merit and others questionable, are now on record.

Smock Items 2

(too late for last)

G. W. Bargainholt was very busy moving a couple of our prominent bachelors, one from the east and one from the west. It was a late hour before he reached the destination with the one from the west. He left them comfortably located in their new quarters on the banks of Gate Creek at the Bargainholt home-stead. You should have heard the noise they created Monday evening blasting out rocks on the new grade crossing Gate Creek near their destination. They and several others are very busy.

John Ayers and family entertained Mrs. Ayres' sister and family J. W. Farlow's on Christmas day.

Miss Ida Duncan is entertaining the Misses Mae and Grace Miller of Dufur.

Willis Farlow and Evans Parsh were helping Marion Farlow butcher his hogs Tuesday.

Mr. T. J. Whitcomb made a trip to Pendleton to see his wife who is at the Hospital. He reports her a little worse when he left her. He returned home Saturday, he being sick with lagrippe.

Geo. Duncan was transacting business in The Dalles Thursday and Friday.

Mrs Agnes Pierce was a guest at Mrs. Leona Hulls, Monday.

R. C. Younce is also a victim to the lagrippe.

The Sunday school organized a choir which consists of Cora Smith as organist and several voices. They intend to practice every Sunday and want as many as will to take part.

Cora Smith has been nursing Mrs. Hull during her illness. Her nursing and Dr. Shannon's medical skill, she is on the way to recovery.

Mr. Griffin and family spent Christmas at Calvin Syrons'.

Orrion Farlow and brothers and Geo. Ayres were enjoying skating on the pond a few days ago.

Cally Duncan took Max and Grace Miller to Wamic Monday.

Wilbur Mulvaney who has been quite sick with lagrippe is able to be out again.

A watch meeting will be held at the church New Years Eve. Everyone is invited.

Ring out the old year, ring in the new.

Mrs. Mulvaney has been very attentive during the illness of Mrs. Hull.

We failed to mention the names of our two bachelors who arrived last week from the east and west, C. V. Bargainholt and J. T. Courtwright are the parties.

S. H. Mulvaney and family were Sunday visitors at the home of Chas. Duncan making the trip by sleigh.

Work is progressing nicely on the new road considering the inclement weather.

Geo. Duncan with team and sleigh started for Tygh Valley a few days ago his team became frightened and broke the sleigh. He was obliged to return home to repair the breakage and make another start.

Last Wednesday Frank Tiltson and daughter Marjorie of Tygh Valley was guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Stakley.

C. A. Syron was out repairing the telephone line.

T. J. Whitcomb was at Wapinitia Saturday and took Mrs. Anna Smith and little daughter to their home. Mrs. Smith has been in charge of the home of Mr. Whitcomb for some time.

Dan Oglesby is now confined to the bed with lagrippe.

Mrs. Agnes Pierce was a caller at the home of T. E. Farlow Friday.

Walter Leadford has been entertaining his cousin Bertie Leadford of Hood River for the past week.

F. R. Spear entertained New Years day G. W. Bargainholt and wife, Mrs. Cora Smith and twins, Wilbur Mulvaney and T. J. Hill. A nice dinner was served and music and song was the past time.

C. A. Bargainholt returned just in time to save divorce proceedings being brought against him as he left his home at the closing of last year and did not return until this a. m., and Mr. Courtwright was looking somewhat anxious.

C. A. Syron and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Griffin on New Years' day.

Victory 4

When you can lovingly and patiently deal with any disorder, any irregularity, any nonpunctuality, or any annoyance—that is victory.

Church Notice

Services are now being held in the church every evening and will so continue until further announcement. Sunday services, Sunday School, 10 a. m., preaching, 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Come.

G. R. ELLIS, Pastor.

L. D. Kelly returned Saturday morning from Bend.

PROHIBITION AS IT STANDS

In Our State

Culver, Ore., Dec. 28, 1915

Believing that the general public are as a whole unfamiliar with the provisions of Chapter 141 of the Laws of 1915 which become operative at midnight on the night of December 31st 1915, and believing further that the public desire the enforcement of this law, as well as the other criminal laws, I am asking the County Press to assist in making public the following:

After midnight, Dec. 31, 1915, it will be unlawful for any person to sell or for any person to buy any intoxicating liquors within the state of Oregon except for medicinal, scientific, sacramental or mechanical purposes.

It will be unlawful for any person to keep or store any intoxicating liquors except in a private dwelling house, not in any way connected to any place of business.

It will be unlawful for any person to have in his possession at any dance hall or other public gathering any intoxicating liquor.

The term "intoxicating liquor" as defined in the law is all spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or other intoxicating liquors; and all mixtures or preparations reasonably likely or intended to be used as a beverage, which shall contain in excess of one-half per cent of alcohol and all mixtures or compounds whether liquid or not, which are intended when mixed with water or otherwise to produce an intoxicating liquor, come within the definition.

Liquor may not be received in this state from any one other than a common carrier and then only upon affidavit of the person receiving the shipment and no person or family may receive over two quarts of spirituous or 24 quarts of malt liquors in any one month. If one member of the family received liquor, then no other member of the family may lawfully receive any shipment during the month. A family is held to mean all the persons living together as a family, whether of age or not, and before receiving liquor from a common carrier a person must make affidavit that neither he nor any member of his family has received more than two quarts of spirituous or more than 24 quarts of malt liquors during the past month and must state the purpose for which it was received. A person or family can not receive both spirituous and malt liquors during any one month but must make the selection of one or the other.

It will be unlawful to advertise or assist in advertising by distributing circulars or other printed matter pertaining to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

It will be unlawful to give away or furnish any intoxicating liquor for the purpose of evading the law and in a prosecution for unlawful selling it will not be necessary to prove a payment, but giving away and delivery shall be sufficient and prima facie evidence of the sale.

It will be unlawful for any one addicted to the use of narcotic drugs or an habitual drunkard to buy intoxicating liquors or to receive them from a common carrier.

All affidavits made by those receiving intoxicating liquors either from a druggist or from a common carrier are public records and will be filed with the County Clerk and subject to the inspection of any person desiring to see the same.

Any false statement in the affidavit will subject the maker to the penalties of perjury.

Any false statement in the affidavit will subject the maker to the penalties of perjury.

A third violation subjects the violator to a term of two years imprisonment at hard labor and the Court cannot suspend sentence.

It is as such a violation of the law to receive liquors unlawfully as to sell or deliver them unlawfully and subjects the person so receiving them to the same penalties as those unlawfully selling. Any further information will be gladly furnished upon request and I ask all good citizens to assist us to enforce this law by informing me of any suspected violation of the law.

Respectfully submitted,
W. P. MYERS,
District Attorney.

Party at Mrs. Smith's

A number of invited guests spent a few pleasant hours with Mrs. R. F. Smith Sunday evening.

After a short time spent in social converse an elegant supper was served after which two tables of poker were the diversion for the remainder of the evening.

Those present were: Mrs. B. F. Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mayhew and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Statts, Mrs. Nettie Muir, Miss Estal Emerson, Van Moad, H. C. Harphan, Fred Covey, Tom and John Muir, E. A. Chapel, Louis Emmons and Geo. Cunningham.

well known to Mr. Philmlee. He returned home the same day with his team which he found here.—Sun, Jan. 2.

R. H. Drake, who has been in Dufur for the past six weeks working in the interest of the United Artisans, has finished his work and left last Friday for his home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Jones, who left here about three months ago for Oklahoma, expecting to make that state their future home, are back, having arrived a week ago.

They went overland in their automobile and after thoroughly investigating conditions in Oklahoma and other states, decided that Oregon was best of all. They also returned in their auto, the speedometer on the car having registered more than 7,000 miles since they left here.—Dispatch.

AND NOW:--

Just before old Father Time blows out the candle in room No 1915, we have a few words to say.

We made mistakes this year and we're not going to offer any "explanations"—our friends won't need them and other people won't believe them anyhow. We took our medicine and we didn't make the same mistakes twice; also we're going to try and make still fewer mistakes during this coming year.

We've had lots to be grateful for—and some things happened that perhaps were blessings in disguise—and mighty thoroughly disguised at that. And our constant endeavor will be to make life here in Maupin still more worth living.

We intend in the future, as in the past:—
To deserve a reputation for fair dealing.
To give customers better than they bargained for;
To be content with a reasonable profit;
To treat everyone with courtesy;
To keep our promises.

We also believe that this holiday season will be but the first of a long series of continuously happier ones, and we extend to each and every one of our townspeople—to man, woman and child—our heart-felt greetings and our most sincere wishes for a Happy New Year.
