Tygh Valley 1

(too late for last week)

Mr. Morrow of Wamic moved to our burg Monday, occupying the Milt Morris house.

Joe Wing and family who have been occupying rooms at the hotel have moved back on their place at the top of the McCorkle grade.

Mrs. Luella Johnson has moved back from Wamic to take charge of the Tygh hotel.

Mrs. Mollie Morrow has been in charge of the hotel during Mrs. Johnson's absence.

station. Charley Wing went to Dufur last week bringing over a family who are residing in one of the A. M. Young houses, and are running a confectionary and barber shop.

Grandma McCowan came out from The Dalles last week and is visiting with her children.

The Hi Jinks club gave what they say is their last dance of the season Saturday night. There was a large crowd and everyone enjoyed the evening so well that they hope to have at least one more.

Mr. Gibbs lost one of his horses this week.

Mr. Hauser and C. W. Wing are hauling hay from Tygh Ridge. There seems to be such a scarcity of hay and every where there are so many out of feed that they sit up and take notice of the snow.

Mr. Q. C. Morrow is visiting his parents this week.

A. J. McMurry and family of Lyle, Wash., were visiting his sister Mrs. Rowan last week.

J. T. Harper lost his valuable Aredale last week. In attempting to ford the creek it got caught in the current and was washed under the ice and was drowned.

Q. C. Morrow moved his family down on his father's place on White River and is going to work there for the present, the snow being too deep in the hills for pleasure.

Mark Collins has stopped work in the saw mill and laid off the crew in the timber during this stormy weather.

The Shady Brook school has been discontinued for a few weeks, the teacher, Mrs. Norton, going back to Portland where she was called recently to see her mother who was very ill. They will employ another teacher and finish the term as soon as the weather will permit.

Miss Francis Morrow has been suffering from an attack of tonsillitis causing her to miss a few days of school.

The primary room has four new pupils this week.

The constant dropping of water wears away the hardest stone, the constant gnaw of Towser masticates the toughest bone, the constant cooling lofer carries off the blushing maid and the constant advertiser is the one that gets the trade.

While local bread dealers and customers were disappointed last week in not receiving any bread due to the delay of the O. W. train snowbound near Cascade Locks, the passengers on that train were fortunate to have sixty loaves of bread with which to appease the wolf during their six hours vigil.

Brenton and Glover Shisher and Hugh Mulkins who came over from Dufur last week attempted to make the return trip Saturday around by the Shearer-grade which has been used some for travel during the recent snow, but were unable to get as far as the power plant at White River, so abandoned the idea and came back to remain until the roads are better cleared of snow.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 3/4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.

An Editor's Troubles

The editor is rather run down. The other day a correspondent wrote to him for advice on journalism. He was told, among other things, that he must write only on one side of the paper. And now he has written to ask which side. - Exchange.
