VILLAISTAS FLAYED IN RUNNING BATTLE

U. S. Troopers, Under Colonel Dodd, Attack 500 Bandits.

THIRTY-ONE DEAD IN SURPRISE FIGHT

Villa, With Hip Shattered, Escapes in Wagon - End of Gang Seems Near — 4 Americans Hit!

El Paso - Four hundred American cavalrymen, under the command of Colonel George A. Dodd, whirling down from the granite slopes of the great continental divide, have fallen like a thunderbolt on the main body of Francisco Villa's bandits at the San Geronimo ranch, scattering them like chaff in the wind, and driving the bandit chief, wounded and crippled, to seek a hiding place in the mountains over which he has ruled for so many years. Villa was hurried from danger in a carriage

The battle opened at 6 o'clock in the morning of March 29. The news of the brilliant exploit of the American troopers was flashed over the Mexican wires into Juarez Saturday and sent a thrill along the border. For 17 hours the veteran Colonel Dodd and his picked riders of the Seventh and Tenth Cavalry drove down the valley of the Santa Maria river. At the end of a 55-mile ride they burst upon the unsuspecting camp where 500 bandits were celebrating the massacre of 172 Carranza soldiers two days previously at Guerrero.

Villa, shot through the leg and with one hip shattered, was hurried from the scene barely in time to escape the onslaught of the soldiers of the North.

The bandits made a brief but hope-less stand before the fierce charge of Colonel Dodd and his troopers. Then they broke and fled, leaving 31 dead on the field, including their commander, General Eliseo Hernandez. Two machine guns, several horses, rifles, ammunition and equipment fell into the hands of the victors.

Among the known wounded is Pablo Lopez, Villa lieutenant in the Colum- In addition to the 17 unwounded priswere four privates wounded,

Washington, D. Every agency open to the State department is being employed in an partment is being employed in an effort to gather an unimpeachable array of facts regarding the explosion which damaged the British channel steamer Sussex, the sinking of the British ships Manchester Engineer, Englishman, Eagle Point and the Dutch steamer Tubantia and the alleged firing of a torpedo at the French passenger ship Patria.

All of these ships carried American citizens and all apparently were attacked in violation of Germany's recently assurances to the United States. The next step of the United States is said authoritatively to have been de-termined upon. Unless Germany in reply to the inquiries through Ambassador Gerard makes some statement to cause the State department to change its present intentions, it is understood that all the recent aggravating incidents will be combined in one general formidable indictment which will bring the entire subject to a clear cut issue. Should Germany admit responsibility for any of the attacks and attempt to satisfy the United States by saying that a mistake had been made, offer to make reparation, and to punish the submraine commander, the issue would not by any means be disposed of. It is regarded as certain that the United States will not accept such an explanation as satisfactory, at least until time has shown what punishment actually was meted out to the offending sub-
