WAPINITIA MAN DIED TUESDAY

The funeral of F. O. Stall, a rancher about five mile above Wapinitia, was conducted at the Kelly church, the I. O. O. F. order of Maupin having charge of the services at the cemetery.

Mr. Stall was 38 years of age, a resident of this state eleven years, having resided a number of years near Wapinitia, coming to Oregon from Nebraska. His parents live at Garfield, Wn., he also leaves four or five brothers and two sisters.

Mr. Stall had been ill a number of days, but being possessed of a courageous disposition, could not be persuaded to leave his work or receive medical aid until it was too late. Dr. Shannon was called Saturday and took him to The Dalles hospital, where death came Tuesday noon Bright's disease being the cause. The body was brought home by the I. O. F. of which he was a member.

the state veterinarian was in this locality Monday and Tuesday on official business.

Gets Arm Broken

Wednesday, while Mrs. Edwin Mays and her mother, Mrs. Ainsworth were returning home after taking Mr. Mays to meet the morning train for Portland, a serious accident for Mrs. Mays occurred. They were at point on the grade not far from where T. A. Connolly was looking after some sheep, when a slight interference made it necessary for Mrs. Mays to 'crank' the machine. The crank 'kicked' back, breaking her arm just above the wrist. Mr. Connolly came to their assistance, taking them back to Maupin where Dr. Elwood dressed the wound, and then took them home.

Wamic News

Mrs. Albert Oakerman arrived Sunday from Reilly, Harney county. Dick Savage, her brother, met her at the station. Miss Jane Savage accompanied Mr. Savage to Sherar.

Cecil Woodcock of The Dalles spent several days here last week. A piano tuner from The Dalles was here Wednesday.

Several of the men engaged on the road work boarded with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Harvey last week.

The girls' department of the industrial work is accomplishing much in the way of bread making.

Mrs. J. L. Illingsworth met with an accident Friday that came near proving fatal. While reaching for a nest of eggs in a hay chute, she lost her balance and fell headlong into the narrow chute. She had lain there thirty minutes and was unconscious when help arrived to lift her out. But for the screams of her little grandson which finally reached Mr. Illingsworth and John who were constructing a fence some distance away, the woman would surely have died.

Willis Norval had a serious runaway Sunday while going down Tygh hill to the ball game. Mrs. Norval was thrown out by the wagon being over turned and received severe bruises on the face.

Rev. George H. Harrison of Tygh preached a pleasing sermon in the church here Sunday evening. Mrs. Harrison accompanied him. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harper brought them in their car.

Come and see my new hats. They will be on display Friday and Saturday, April 28th and 29th at Wamic—Miss Hauser.

MORE BUILDING MAUPIN BOOMS

Ralph Kaiser purchased a lot just east of the pool hall this week and already has a small building well under construction in which he will in a short time open a barber shop.

Mr. Kaiser will put up a residence a little later and move his family over from Dufur.

The basement of the Shattuck building is now completed and the framework for the first floor is up. Carpenters are making every effort to get it completed as soon as possible.

was a complete victory for the Wamic boys, the score being 13 to 0.

Miss Hilda Lake and Belvie Patison attended the ball game at Tygh Sunday.

Elmer Munier and Miss Fern

Good Road Work

The road crew with P. J. Olsen have been on the upper part of the grade the past few days. The 2,929 feet between the watering trough and the steel bridge is practically completed. 1,800 feet of it has been graveled, 429 feet of rock taken out of the grade has been laid, and the balance of 500 feet should have gravel. Mr. Olsen stated that one day's work with the grader and two men ditching and finishing culverts would leave this part of the road in fine shape.

Lists and figures of those donating work and funds toward the construction of the road will probably be given about the 12th of May.

Fralely of Tygh, were here a week ago Sunday to witness the ball game.

Mrs. Ralph Chandler and son Leonard visited Mrs. J. Johnson at Tygh last week.

ODD FELLOWS INITIATE SIX

TUM-A-LUM PRICES STILL LOW

("Tum-A-Lumber" A Buy Word for Good Lumber)

You never had a better chance in your life to close up deals that have been hanging fire. If there ever was a time to build IT'S THIS SPRING.

It is very unlikely that lumber will ever be as cheap again as it has been the past two or three years. With the Panama canal open to get Western lumber to the hungry Eastern market—with Europe clamoring for lumber the minute the war is over—in addition to the great business awakening taking place all over our country, due to the fact that conditions are RIGHT and that America IS prosperous—

Well our best advice to you is to

HURRY ALONG YOUR BUILDING

Many of our customers are using the complete blue printed plans with our correct estimates on material costs prepared and furnished by our Architects and Engineers—on Homes, Barns, Silos, Hogsheds, Granaries, Elevators, and all other buildings.
