Announcements of Candidates

Circuit Judge

To the Republican voters of Wasco and Hood River Counties: At the coming primary election my name will appear as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge of the Seventh Judicial District, comprising Wasco and Hood River Counties, and I take this means of announcing my candidacy, subject to the decision of the Republican voters of the two counties mentioned, as expressed at the primaries.

FRED W. WILSON

Assessor

To the Registered voters of Wasco County, Oregon:

I desire through this medium to announce my candidacy for the nomination of County Assessor, subject to a majority vote expressed at the Republican Primaries, on May 19, 1916.

If nominated, and later elected, I will continue, to the best of my ability, to do every thing tending toward raising the standard of the office, and to the best interests of the Tax Payers at large.

JAMES A. DAVIS

District Attorney

To the Republican voters of Wasco County:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of District Attorney on the republican ticket at the primary election May 19, 1916. If nominated and elected, I will execute and enforce the law, will faithfully and diligently perform all the duties pertaining to the office, and will at all times conduct the office in a courteous and economical manner and for the best interests of the taxpayers and the public in general.

Shearing On

Yesterday sheep shearing commenced for the season on the Fargher ranch across the Deschutes. A crew of twelve men are employed, nine of whom are clipping wool. The weight of fleece taken from each animal is said to average about eight pounds.

Smock Items

Mrs. Minnie Bargainholt is suffering with a felon on her thumb. Callie Duncan and C. A. Bargainholt are cutting logs on the Hull place for Mulvany Bros.

E. V. Parrish, O. B. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Mayfield and others motored to Maupin Sunday to see the ball game.

Prof. Patterson of Wapinitia was calling on friends here Saturday and spent Sunday with the Ayers family whom we are pleased to say are quite recovered from their siege of measles.

Henry Mayfield and son Mack worked on the new grade on Gato creek a few days last week.

The Farlow Bros are hustling their plowing by putting on four plows. The ground is getting very dry and the supply of feed is about exhausted.

Mr. and Roy Fleck attended the Sunday School here last Sunday calling on the Ayers family and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hargy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howell and daughter Ipha entertained at Sunday dinner E. E. Spoor, Mrs. Haveland and daughter Thelma and T. J. Whitcomb and family.

Grass hoppers are eating garden for Grant Ledford.

Miss Ella Syron visited Miss Ethel Ledford Sunday.

John Gordon, S. A. Mulvany and family were Sunday guests at the Grant Ledford home.

Miss Myrtle Mulvany is raising some young pet gray diggers. She has had the mother digger for over a year.

B. W. Morgan and I. T. Courtwright were transacting business at Wapinitia Monday.

F. E. Spoor and Mrs. Haveland and daughter were at Wapinitia last Monday.

Geo. Ledford is in Portland this week.

Those who took the eighth grade examinations were Ida Duncan, Eva Syron, Orrin and Leonard Farlow.

Blaine Dibrow has been more than a field hand in the Ayers family during their sickness. He has proven the old saying of "a friend in need is a friend indeed," as he has been caring for the sick as well as assisting them in the other work. There were eight of the family down with the measles at one time.
