

Supplement to The Maupin Times, Vol. 2, 31

Maupin, Southern Wasco Co., Ore., Friday, May 12, 1916

Wapinitia

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Menner left here last Tuesday for Portland.

Mrs. Annie Smith returned home from Jake Davidson's last week and started to work for J. E. West last Monday.

V. B. Tapp and sons Archie and Johnie and daughter Sophia, are camping at their upper place putting in their spring crop.

C. B. Doyle made a trip to Maupin last week.

Ernest A. Hartman and wife and daughter Crystal, made a trip to Maupin last Saturday.

M. H. Staines made a trip to Shaniko last Friday, returning Sunday, attending the teacher's institute held at that place.

W. B. Keene, of the Clear Lake Irrigation Co., after spending the winter at Gresham, is now with us again, and expects to begin work on the ditch in a short time.

G. E. Wood arrived home last Friday from Portland.

Chester Rice was employed at the Calvin McCorkle ranch a few days last week.

James Harphan was up from Maupin Sunday.

The Jansen well drillers, who have been drilling a well on the R. W. McCorkle place, struck water at a depth of 255 feet. While there seems to be plenty of water yet they are not sure that it is permanent, but a pump has been ordered by which it will be tested.

Mrs. Annie Smith made a trip to Maupin Tuesday taking little Anna West, who has been quite ill, to see the doctor. F. M. Walters took them in his car.

Joe Cabel made a trip to Maupin last Saturday after his mother, Mrs. Frank Gabel, who has been at The Dalles the past week.

Virgil Richardson made a trip to Maupin last Tuesday.

Mrs. A. F. Eviak arrived home from The Dalles last Tuesday. Mr. Eviak met her at the depot.

Jim McInure was a Wapinitia visitor Tuesday.

The Ladies Aid of this place held a sale and also sold ice cream in connection with Miss Cowgill's stereopticon lecture and demonstration of canning, held at the school house last Thursday evening. A large crowd was present and it was enjoyed by all. Miss Cowgill is an industrial field worker. Supt. Clyde Bonney accompanied them.

J. S. Brown made a business trip to Maupin Tuesday.

B. L. Forman is the first one to get his springs plowing done, having finished Wednesday.

The missionary meeting that was to have been held last Tuesday afternoon, was postponed until a later date.

"Mother's Day" will be observed next Sunday morning at the United Brethren church. There will be special music and an address by the pastor. In the evening, the Christian Endeavor will have charge of the service. This is anniversary day and a special program is announced.

L. D. Woodside and Mack Hollamon went fishing on the Deschutes river, last Friday catching 45 beauties, some of them measuring as much as 14 to 16 inches.

The base ball game played here last Saturday between the Indians from Synnasho and the high school boys and a few outsiders was very interesting, the high school boys losing badly.

Hode Swift and Mrs. Myrtle Smith left here Friday for The Dalles where they were united in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Davidson took them in their car and witnessed the ceremony. They returned to Wanic Sunday.

W. J. Patterson made a trip to Smoek last week, returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Woodside and Lloyd were Sunday visitors at the L. M. Woodside home.

Earl Barzee and John Heckman were fishing on the Deschutes river Sunday.

Joe Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Wright, and Mrs. Earl Barzee motored to Maupin last Sunday to see the ball game.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Vanderpool motored over from Dufur Wednesday morning and are guests of their daughter, Mrs. A. C. Moad and sons, G. W. and W. C. Vanderpool and family.

Go to Talcott's for confectionery and ice cream.