Dignities of Office.

This story—which is perhaps true and perhaps not—is being told in many Italian mess rooms. On one of his royal tours King Victor Emmanuel spent the night in a small country town, where the people showed themselves unusually eager in caring for his comfort. So when he had gone to bed he was surprised to be awakened by a servant who wanted to put clean sheets on his bed. However, he waited good-naturedly while it was done, and wished the servant good night. He had dozed off to sleep when he was roused for the second time by a rap on the door and the servant reappeared, asking to change the sheets again.

Naturally the King asked why the change was made so often. The servant answered reverently: "For one's self one changes the sheets every week, for an honored friend every day, but for a king very hour."

Made since 1846—Hanford's Balsam. Adv.

Cruel.

A young man who has theatrical aspirations loves to boast of his connections with the stage business. In company with some traveling performers in the lounge of a hotel, not long since, the young man carelessly observed:

"Oh, yes, I took a show out once." But the wind was knocked out of his sails when one of the actors asked him:

"Who brought it back?"—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

FERNS ARE GOOD TO EAT, SAY UNIVERSITY JAPANESE

Considered Great Delicacy by Nipponese, Who Eat Puget Sound Plant Like Asparagus.

University of Washington. — The common fern or brake that grows in the Puget Sound country is good to eat, according to University of Washington Japanese students. Several Japanese families have been gathering the stems of the plant on the campus recently. They are boiled and eaten like "fukui," the Nipponese rhubarb, or the American asparagus.

To take out the acid taste of the fern, the stems are boiled in water, to which ashes are added. When nearly cooked the water and ashes are poured off. Clean boiling water is then poured on and the cooking is called "warabi" and is considered a great delicacy. Warabi may be eaten at once or it may be dried and stored away for winter use. When mixed with oysters it is called "sho-yu," which means oyster sauce. The food can be mixed with most meats, shellfish and vegetables.

YOUNG WOMEN MAY AVOID PAIN

Need Only Trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, says Mrs. Kurtzweg.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"My daughter, whose picture is herewith, was much troubled with pains in her back and sides every month and they would sometimes be so bad that it would seem like acute inflammation of some organ. She read your advertisement in the newspapers and tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She praiseth it highly as she has been relieved of all these pains by its use. All mothers should know of this remedy, and all young girls who suffer should try it."—Mrs. MATELDA KURTZWEIG, 629 High St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Young women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by this root and herb remedy.

If you know of any young woman who is sick and needs help, please write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Only women will receive her letter, and it will be held in strictest confidence.

NOT YET IN DISCARD

HORSE STILL A QUANTITY TO BE RECKONED WITH.

Figures Show That Development of the Automobile Has by No Means Done Away With Man's Always Faithful Servant.

The horse still is king. The advent of autos has pushed him off some of the city streets as a pleasure horse, but his family is larger today than it was 25 years ago, when automobiles were unknown. Statistics compiled by government bureaus show that 85 per cent of transportation throughout the United States is done by the horse.

Discussing the situation, Irving Parmenter, secretary of the New York State Association of Horsemen, said: "The reports of the federal department of agriculture show 21,000,000 horses on the farms of the United States at the present time against 14,000,000 in 1890. The value of the horses on the farms alone is estimated at more than $2,000,000,000. All the automobiles in the United States are rated at $1,200,000,000.

The Commercial Car Journal admits that government statistics show 85 per cent of the nation's transportation is done by horses.

"While it is true that the estimated number of horses in this state has shrunk 6,000 in the past year, due probably to war exports, farm horses have increased, according to federal figures, from 591,008 as shown by the 1910 census, to 609,000. In 1909 the value of 710,000 horses on New York farms was placed at $80,940,000. Today 609,000 animals are valued at $84,851,000.

"More horses are trucking on New York's streets today than two years ago.

"Despite the importance of the horse industry those interested in it failed to organize until the horsemen were the only class not represented by some amalgamation. As a result their interests were neglected. Highways were built unit for a horse to travel; no proper provisions regulating stallions in service were made, and breeding has declined until military and police authorities have difficulty securing mounts, and fire departments recommend motor tractors because of the scarcity and cost of high grade horses.

"Now the horsemen have organized, representing the farms, the road drivers, the trucksters, the track—every branch of the horse industry, united for mutual protection, and support.

"The New York State Association of Horsemen has no dispute with the motorists. We desire to co-operate with the automobile organizations, for our aims are one. Unquestionably a new era is upon us.

"As the cities put the slow-moving vehicles to the curb, so should the state's trunk roads provide a smooth center for faster travel, and upon either flank there should be drives for horses, of a surface suitable for their requirements. The creation of such drives is one of our aims. The association hopes, also, to revive breeding, and to see that the rights of the horsemen are supported everywhere."

Curiosities of Antitoxins.

One of the latest discoveries in the field of antitoxins has been given the name of anaphylaxis; it was made during experiments in injecting into a dog minute doses of a poison secreted by sea anemones. The first dose produced very little effect on the dog; it was followed three weeks later by a similar dose. The experimenter found to his surprise that the second dose was fatal; the first dose had rendered the animal much more, instead of less, sensitive to the poison. It was found later that if an injection into an animal of even so harmless a substance as white of egg is followed after three weeks by a second injection, the result is fatal; but if the first injection is followed by further doses at intervals of a week there is no bad result. The cause of this curious fact is not known; but since it was discovered medical men have been very careful not to allow too long an interval to elapse between two doses of any albuminous compound.—Sir William Ramsay, in Youth's Companion.

Will Use Old Tin Cans.

Among the recent patents filed in England is the process for removing the solder, tin and chemicals from scrap and galvanized articles and for utilizing the base metals. The inventor is a South Wales tinplate worker, who has already secured contracts from several municipalities for treating down refuse such as tin cans, containers and similar metallic waste products.

Formerly large quantities of old tins were taken by continental dealers, practically at the cost of carriage, to be utilized in manufacturing cheap articles such as toy soldiers, novelties, mechanical toys, and a large assortment of nondescript articles usually found in penny bazaars, etc. The usual process in manufacturing such goods only necessitated a simple cutting or stamping and a light coating of enamel or paint.

Playing Safe.

"What's the idea?"
"By the time the firm finds out how easily they can get along without me the other fellows will be taking their vacations and my job will be safe until the summer is over anyway."

What to Do for Your Itching Skin
Eczema, ringworm and similar itching, skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment, that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need not hesitate to use, even on a baby's tender skin—that is, the Resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of Resinol ointment and Resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful, that thousands of other physicians have prescribed it constantly for over 20 years.

Resinol stops itching instantly, and almost always heals the eruption quickly and at little cost. Resinol ointment and Resinol soap can be bought at any druggist's, and are not at all expensive.

HOT WATER AND "ANURIC" BEFORE MEALS—AND HEALTH

All people in America and especially those who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit lime-salts in their arteries, veins and joints. They often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. Such people are not always able to exercise sufficiently in the outdoor air or drink enough pure water in order to sweat freely and excrete impurities thru the skin. Dr. Pierce has conducted experiments and thoroughly tested a uric acid solvent at his Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute which he is convinced is many times more potent than lithia—this he named "Anuric." It can be had at almost all drug stores by simply asking for Dr. Pierce's Anuric for kidneys or backache. It will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant need of getting out of bed at night.

Our grandmothers have told our mothers and our mothers have in turn instructed us that in case of sickness, resort to Dr. Pierce's dependable household prescriptions. These medicines as put up for sale by druggists have never been recommended as "cure-alls," but only as superior remedies for certain common and easily-recognized diseases. Had these medicines been adapted to all classes and forms of chronic diseases there would have been no necessity for organizing a competent staff of expert physicians and surgeons, to act in the treatment of difficult, obscure and complicated cases of chronic diseases, as Dr. Pierce maintains in his Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. Of his home remedies the most widely known are his "Favorite Prescription" for womanly troubles and run-down conditions peculiar to the womanly sex; his "Golden Medical Discovery," the greatest of all herbal system tonics and vitalizers, for stomach, liver and blood disorders, as well as his "Pleasant Pellets," the tiny, tonic laxatives, overcoming constipation and cleansing the system of poisons and accumulations in the bowels.
