

Supplement to The Maupin Times, Vol. 2, 34

Maupin, Southern Wasco Co., Ore., Friday, June 2, 1916

Tuesday morning, while the excavations for the warehouse elevator were being made a human skeleton was unearthed, which, while badly crumbled by the slip-scrapers, is supposed to be that of an Indian. Since the warehouse is situated on the scene of the early day skirmishes of this city's name-sake, Mr. Maupin, with the Indians, the idea is suggested that possibly this is the resting place of our hero which which was disturbed.

Miss Ruby Russell returned to home here Saturday after couple months treatment at The Dalles Hospital for a splinted thigh bone.

Mrs. W. H. Williams was taken very sick Monday evening, having symptoms of typhoid, but with prompt medical attention, is recovering nicely. Mrs. Muir is assisting with the work there this week.

W. A. Westbrook left Wednesday for California, having secured a position as mechanic.

Frank Gabel is shipping this week from the O. T. depot, his annual harvest of wool, amounting to 37,947 pounds. J. P. Abbott commenced yesterday hauling his wool to Maupin for shipment.

Mrs. Locke and children were guests at the Dyer home east of here a couple days last week.

S. O. Hawkin of Walla Walla was a guest at the parsonage a few days this week.

Mr. McLeod and family arrived Sunday by auto and are at the hotel until they can get a residence. Three cars of wheat were shipped from the warehouse Friday, Saturday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew went to The Dalles Wednesday to bring home their sons Virgil, arrived there yesterday from the east, and Do'phus from The Dalles high school.

Miss Thrall is employed as book keeper in Shattuck Bros. store.

L. D. Kelly and family motored to Wamic yesterday.

Dr. Hafield has moved his office into the rear room of the Times building.

Mr. Morgan, wife and daughter arrived Wednesday from Spokane. Mrs. Morgan is a niece of Mrs. R. Johnson.