MAUPIN, SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 1916

THE YEAR $1.50

Farewell Reception

Tuesday night a dance was given to invited guests in Shattuck's hall in honor of Walter Scott, one of the O. N. G., who was called to the Clackamas encampment for drill. After spending a couple pleasant hours at the hall Mrs. D. A. Moad invited all to her home where she and Mrs. Miller had beautifully decorated for the occasion in the American colors and served ice cream and cake. Mr. Scott was escorted to the train by his friends as the last number of the evening's program.

The Maupin Brass Band will go to Dufur Saturday to furnish music for the Colt Show.

W. E. Kurtz will be in Maupin on June 27 to 30 to buy hogs or cattle that are fat, and will receive and ship out on July 1st.
