

Criterion

Bert McCready went to Maupin Sunday and returned Monday with a lady from Centralia, Washington.

Fred Hornquist is convalescing from his recent indisposition. Ask Fred for further particulars.

J. E. Miller made a trip to the county seat last week, supposedly on official business, but his report was rather vague. We are looking for further developments in his case.

Mr. and Mrs. Kidder made a trip to Maupin Saturday.

Peter Kirsch waits for "pleasant weather" when he wants to haul lumber. P. J. hauled a load from Maupin Saturday.

Rev. Ellis was out Sunday and preached morning and evening. Regardless of weather conditions Mr. Ellis never fails his appointments.

D. L. Rutherford and Henry Kramer were business visitors at Maupin Monday.

Laco DeCamp enjoys being on the move. He has just finished moving his buildings the second time. A fine horse belonging to Dale Bonney was badly cut in the wire Saturday night.

Mr. and Mr. Painter and niece Miss Agnes Easton of Dufur and Mrs. Henderson and daughter Miss Anna Henderson of Portland, sisters of Duke and Dolph Mood, motored out Monday to spend the Fourth with their brothers.

The Tunison Lum Co. received a car load of brick here this week and suggest that this is a good time to guard against your house burning by building a fire.

Joe Graham, Mrs. Dee Wright, and Mrs. Kate Amen motored down from Maupin Wednesday evening.

The McAllen, Fawcett, Roberts and Russell families had a party dicker and fishing expedition at the mouth of Baker on the Fourth. They report one fish 20 inches long and enough more to make three good meals.

Through an error in deciphering our notes last week we neglected to mention that Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davis of Estacada, are here visiting Mrs. Davis' children, Mrs. Job Crabtree and the Hammer boys on the Flat.

White River

Mrs. Joles and son Cainus attended the campmeeting Sunday. It is being held in the church during the stormy weather.

Miss Ella Kirby is visiting Daphne Canley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampson left Saturday to complete their journey to Bend.

Mrs. J. G. Tunison is camped at Tygh during the campmeeting.

Mrs. Joe Kistner was a caller at the Kinyon home Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Hansen and children have been spending the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown.

Elder Burns of the campmeeting spent a day or two in the neighborhood.

Cecil Tunison came home after an absence of six weeks.

Jas. Brown moved his race horse camp to Wapinitia last Saturday.

Mrs. Wilson, Ruby and Don were visitors at the Ray Tunison home this week.

Mr. Powell and children have been at the Jim Brown home, Mr. Powell riding for Mr. Brown.

The recent heavy rains played havoc with quite a few of the ranches in this vicinity and tomorrow's thought they were doomed as the water rushed down from the Frank Chastain place, doing quite a lot of damage.

A motor party went from here to Wapinitia the Fourth including Mr. and Mrs. Coberth, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson and son Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Webb, Mr. and Mrs. York Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright.

Owing to three slides near Sherar station several trains were tied up for hours waiting for the ditcher to come from Pasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Muller had a stand on the camp ground at Wapinitia the Fourth.