PETER GODFREY KILLED TUESDAY

While rounding a sharp turn in a grade near the Jack Hillman ranch eight miles southeast of this city an automobile being driven by Peter Godfrey overturned and seriously injured the driver, and he died soon after being taken to The Dalles hospital.

Mr. Godfrey is a well known rancher residing five miles south of The Dalles. The accident happened Tuesday morning and there were no eye-witnesses. Ira Waterman who works for Mr. Hillman heard the crash and upon investigation discovered the overturned car with Mr. Godfrey pinned underneath. The motor was still running. With a stout pry the car was lifted off the injured man. Dr. Thompson was summoned from The Dalles and brought Mr. Godfrey to the hospital where he died soon afterward without regaining consciousness. His injuries consisted of several broken ribs, which punctured one of his lungs.

Mr. Godfrey is survived by a wife and daughter.

John Staats expects to do some special work in the Forest Service for a few days commencing soon.

Dr. Stovall made a professional visit at H. M. Green's at Criterion Tuesday.
