NEW CROP IS COMING IN

Wednesday of this week was the first big day of the season at the Hunts Ferry Warehouse, when about 3000 bushels of grain were delivered for storage, 2500 bushels of which being bulk and went through the elevator into bins.

The crops this year, while having looked poor the early part of the year, C. H. Crofoot informs us are unusually good, as well as bringing good prices.

Those making delivery of bulk grain to date are, C. H. Crofoot, F. S. Fleming, G. W. Mallatt, L. B. DeCamp; sacked grain, P. J. Kirsch, Tommy Norval, Vard Norval, Mrs. G. A. Ward, Frank Gabel.

Those employed at the warehouse at present are Willard and Chas. Cunningham, Van Moad, Ogden Elwood, R. C. Jory, V. B. Doty.

Monday seven cars spotted for the warehouse and are being loaded this week with last year's grain bought by Hauser for shipment to Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Minneapolis, Minnesota.

LUCKY ESCAPE POWDER EXPLOSION

Wednesday morning while tamping powder, preparatory to setting off a blast on the grade in the Gate creek canyon above Wamic, where the road is being widened and leveled to a passable condition for a threshing outfit, David Mayfield and T. J. Whitcomb had a narrow escape of landing where two sticks of dynamite could have sent them. They escaped more serious effects of the explosion than a badly lacerated arm and hands and burned face for Mr. Mayfield and some lesser bruises for Mr. Whitcomb. Dr. Elwood received a call from them later in the day.

Switch Board Here

The much talked of switchboard for Maupin is here at last and is installed in the Maupin Drug Store where it will remain temporarily. It is of sufficient size to accommodate twenty-six lines connecting in it and so arranged that several additional groups of ten lines could be put in when desired.

Slight change in the weather the last few days, mercury 95 to 98 in the shade.

E. L. Foreman made a business trip to Maupin Monday morning.

All who can get away are at the mountains, and the rest are planning on going soon. Rev. Staines and family returned home Saturday, reporting a fine trip and fishing good. Mrs. Mary Pechett, Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. G. E. Wood left Saturday for a 10 day's stay at the Summit house. Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Flinn and sons leave for there Wednesday.

N. W. Flinn and family returned Sunday from a trip across the Indian Reservation and Madras country. Crops are excellent on the agency and several combine harvesters are running, but no threshing yet. It is surely a productive territory. One can travel twelve miles across country and see nothing but solid wheat fields which will yield about 30 bushels to the acre. There in the last few weeks 27 new cars have been purchased, John Evick, an old time resident of this place, was among those purchasing last week.

Some Indians came out Monday with the first ripe huckleberries of the season. They are ripe only in the open ground, those in the timber being green yet.

Ira Flinn and family, Guy Dorothy and G. N. Flinn came from the Dalles Saturday, going to the mountains Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Tapp made a trip to Dufur Monday in their car to make the necessary arrangements for Robert, Vincent and Winnie to attend high school there the coming term.

Oliver Shields of Silverton, here formerly, visited friends Sunday, having crossed the mountains on his wheel.

Mr. Scott and family from the Valley visited the Hartman family last week. Sunday, they with Mr. and Mrs. E. M., Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. and Crystal motored out to Warm Springs and spent the day swimming and fishing. The Scotts were former residents of Tygh Valley.

Dr. Miller and two other men came out from Clackamas Lake Tuesday after supplies. He is planning on erecting a large Sanatorium at his home there.

G. L. Harphan and family are moving into their Fifth street residence today.
