Some warm weather this week. Threshing is pretty well over on the Flat and a number of the farmers have commenced fall seeding.

N. W. Flinn and family returned Friday from a two week's stay near Mt. Hood. They report a splendid trip and lots of little berries.

Mrs. Julia Endersby is on the sick list at present. Dr. Shannon is attending her.

Mrs. M. H. Staines is the proud possessor of a fine new piano which arrived Saturday. Jackson Rice made a trip to Maupin after it.

V. B. Tapp lost a fine horse last week. There seems to be quite a bit of sickness among the horses here. Frank Batty also lost one lately.

Most everyone around attended the fair at Tygh last week, all reporting it as good.

Mr. and Mrs. Satell of The Dalles passed through here Tuesday returning from the mountains. Wes Ray and Mrs. Deleo and family passed through here Tuesday on their way to the Summit where Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Mamie Smith are camped.

Robert Tapp took a load of household goods to Dufur Monday. Jackson Rice went to Maupin Monday bringing home a load of fruit from the Johnson ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown made a trip to the ditch camp Tuesday.

Geo. Magill's thresher laid off two days last week in order for the men to attend the fair.

Misses Ivy and Celia Flinn were visitors at home during this week. Miss Stevens from Wn. is visiting at her uncle's home here. Rev. M. H. Staines.

Miss Hazel Williams of Vale, Ore. is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Huston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huston, Bernard and Miss Ines Hartsman left Thursday for the mountains.

Walter Woodside and son had a little excitement last week while on their way to Maupin with a load of grain. Mr. Woodside saw what he at first supposed to be a large hog, but on looking closely discovered it to be a large bear. He stopped at a neighbor's house and phoned for his brother Lewis who was at Driver's, to bring a gun to shoot it. They chased it down near Jack Kelly's and there shot it. This is the first bear that has been known of on the Flat for years.

E. A. Hartman and family returned home Sunday from Tygh where they run a stand during the fair.

The O'Brien thresher finished his run and pulled in last week.

Howard Blackerby and Earl Bentley passed through here Saturday, on their way home from the Agency Plains country to The Dalles. They are both former residents of this place. Mr. Blackerby went home to get his family and stock and is going to move to the plains where he will have charge of a wheat ranch.

School commenced last week in the Batty district with Miss Lena Peoples of the valley as teacher.

Rev. G. E. Wood preached at the church here Sunday in the absence of Rev. Staines who went to The Dalles to attend institute.

Mrs. Lu Woodside is experimenting on what can be done with strawberries here. She reports that on July 5th she set out the plants and now some of the vines are blooming and some have berries on them that will be ripe in a few days.

Ben Foreman commenced hauling wheat Wednesday.

Joe Graham was out from the mountains Monday.

Old Mt. Hood flashes light as well as talks. One of the rangers has been stationed there all summer and has a telephone. Geo.

Ledford who had been on the mountain since Friday flashed a light message to his wife on Smock. We took a small mirror and got in direct line of the top of the mountain and threw the light from the sun and instantly we saw them flashing back to us several times.

Wamic News

A most successful and interesting event was the fair held at Tygh last week. The board of directors the fair association deserve much praise for the splendid arrangements which were so satisfactory to the large crowd in attendance. The Warm Spring Indians are worthy of credit for their assistance in making up the features of the entertainment.

A sad thing occurred in the mountains Saturday when a woman administered carbolic acid to her infant twins, then turned and swallowed the poison. The cause of the deed has not been learned here. She was formerly Mrs. Geo. Mallatt, and lived on Smock where she has several relatives.

Yesterday and today saw the teachers from the schools depart for The Dalles to attend institute.

W. H. Magill left Friday with his thresher for Madras where he has quite a run of threshing. The greater part of his men went from this place and consisted of Marlon Duncan, Ed Woodcock, Don Miller, John Illingsworth, Jimmie Kistner and a number of others whose names we did not learn.

W. E. Woodcock started up his sawmill with a full force today.

Miss Beatrice Coffey and Miss Gladys White who spent last week with Miss Hilda Lake, returned to The Dalles Saturday. Miss Lake accompanying them.

Henry Miller and family made a trip to The Dalles Saturday. Miss May Miller accompanied them from Tygh to Dufur.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe Grimes of Tygh and Mr. and Mrs. J. Barnett, of The Dalles, visited this place Friday, calling on old time friends. Hewie Swift, of Cour da lene, Wn., visited at the home of his uncle, A. J. Swift, Saturday night.

Peter Peters came over from Kent Saturday night, bringing Mrs. Bessie Chandler and two small daughters, Velda and Caroline. Mrs. Chandler has been employed at the Peters home during harvest time.

Bakeoven

(too late for last week)

Edwin Mays and Mr. Sutton came up Sunday to spend a few days on the ranch.

Mrs. Harry Wilson who has been spending a few days at Claud Wilson's left for Portland Tuesday. Three threshers and five combines are threshing on the flat at present.

Mrs. Bert Davis and baby returned home Friday from The Dalles.

Miss Effie Vandervem is spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. Jerome Buzan.

Mrs. Kathleen Van Hoomison arrived Sunday from Portland to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan a few days.
