To Subscribers—Owing to high prices charged us for the paper used in the ready print of this publication we shall probably at this week limit the size of the Times to a 4-page, 7-column sheet, trusting that this will be satisfactory to our readers who look mainly for the local news, than a raise in subscription rates.

Shattuck Bros. large machinery store room is now completed and occupied by a goodly lot of farm machinery, a car load of flour and other stock with a wide open floor space besides. The completion of this room make this the store of Wasco county with a capacity of floor space only exceeded by two or three of the department houses in The Dalles.
