THE YEAR $1.50

Native Girl Wed

A quiet home wedding occurred at noon New Year's day at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crabtree when Mr. William Barnett and Mrs. Vida Grossman were united in marriage, Justice Harper of Tygh, officiating.

About twenty-five relatives and friends were present and enjoyed a luscious New Year's dinner.

The bride was tastily gowned in a white flowered net trimmed in white ribbon and blue sash. The groom wore dark brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett went to Dufur Tuesday to visit the latter's sister there a short time before going to their farm home near Kent. The Times joins their many friends in wishing them a long, happy life.

Dr. Stovall and family returned Monday from Philomath.

Wamic News

Wamic, January 1, 1917.

The play, Down in Dixie, given by the Dramatic Club Saturday night attracted a large crowd who showed their appreciation of the splendid performance by their frequent and hearty applause. Many came from distant places to see the performance and all seemed to feel that they were well entertained.

Mike Urban had a disastrous run-a-way last Tuesday; the horses becoming badly frightened ran some distance when the buggy was upset, throwing its occupants, Mr. Urban and John Hanna out, dragging the former some distance and badly demolishing the buggy. No serious mishap befell the men.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Duncan left for Kent.

F. A. Duncan and J. R. Woodcock made a trip to Sherar Saturday.

Mrs. Veva Driver returned Saturday after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Stogsdill in The Dalles.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Mayfield who were married in The Dalles last week are congratulating them and wishing them a long happy journey of married life.

The case of little Claris Zumwalt thought to be measles, proved not to be anything so serious. It was chicken-pox, perhaps. Other children in the neighborhood have been similarly affected.

Cecil Woodcock who spent a part of the holidays here returned to The Dalles Friday. Mr. Woodcock was on the train when a car jumped the track on the Deschutes road, and the train being too late to catch the train for this place, he went on to Mapin before reaching his destination.

Hammie Patison left Tuesday for Portland.

Miss Francis Morrow spent last week with her home folks.

No mail reached this place Tuesday. A derailed car made the train too late for the stage connection.

Very cold weather prevailed here the latter part of last week, the mercury dropping to eight above.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruff McCorkle of Juniper attended the entertainment Saturday night.

Jesse Parker of Bandon is visiting his sister Mrs. Nellie Magill.

A girl baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Frestus Swift Sunday was buried here today.

Mrs. Sarah Kennedy served New Year's dinner to a number of invited guests. Those present were J. E. Kennedy, Mrs. Veva Driver, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Driver, Marion Burlingame, Emma and Alma Driver, the hostess and her husband, Mike Kennedy.

A dance was given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Julia Sheplin at their home in the edge of the timber. About forty were present and everybody enjoyed a fine time. Unfortunately, however, one gentleman who lives with Mr. Sheplin, having a natural fear of 'women folks' made his escape to Dane's mill before dark.

The New Year's dance given in Shattuck's hall Saturday night was one of the best of the season. Many took advantage of the masquerade regalia gotten in specially for the occasion by Shattuck Bros. which was of high class material, some of the costumes being very elaborate and beautiful. Mrs. T. A. Connolly, representing Columbia, took the ladies' prize for best sustained character, and Van Moad was adjudged the most stunning page boy of the evening.

Among business visitors over from Tygh yesterday were, Elmer Munier, John Morrow and family and Mrs. F. C. Butler.

J. A. Lake purchased the lot adjoining his store of W. H. Williams Wednesday.

640 ACRE TRACT HOMESTEADS

Realization

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives of U. S. A. in Congress assembled, that from and after the passage of this Act it shall be lawful for any person qualified to make entry under the homestead laws of the U. S. to make a stock-raising homestead entry for not exceeding 640 acres of unappropriated unreserved public land in reasonably compact form: Provided, however, that the land so entered shall theretofore have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as "stock-raising lands."

That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, on application or otherwise, to designate as stock-raising lands subject to entry under this Act lands, the surface of which is, in his opinion, chiefly valuable for grazing and raising forage crops, do not contain merchantable timber, are not susceptible of irrigation from any known source of water supply, and are of such character that 640 acres are reasonably required for the support of a family: Provided that where any person qualified to make original or additional entry under the provisions of this Act shall make application to enter any unappropriated public land which has not been designated as subject to entry (provided said application is accompanied and supported by properly corroborated affidavit of the applicant, in duplicate, showing prima facie that the land applied for is of the character contemplated by this Act), such application, together with the regular fees and commissions, shall be received by the register and receiver of the land district in which said land is located and suspended until it shall have been determined by the Secretary of the Interior whether said land is actually of that character. That during such suspension the land described in the application shall not be disposed of; and if the said
