Cars Jump Track

Tuesday afternoon the O. T. day freight while rounding a curve between Coleman and Mecca, derailed the three rear cars, they tipping over. The cars were loaded with lumber and no one was hurt. However, six 'pilgrims' were discovered to have been riding safely to the next car ahead.

The wrecker arrived from Fall bridge and cleared the track before the night train.

Note the date opposite your name on your paper for expiration of subscription.

More Building

B. D. Fraley, W. C. and G. W. Vanderpool, R. G. Weisback, A. C. and D. A. Moad compose the crew of carpenters who are making quick work of the garage building which is being put up this week in connection with Mr. Fraley's blacksmith shop and will be occupied by W. C. Vanderpool, who will start a general automobile repair shop.

At 10 o'clock January 20, there will be a meeting held at Smook school house for the purpose of organizing a Farm Loan Association. Everybody invited, by Committee.

(from last week)

ages to crops or other tangible improvements to the owner thereof, where agreement may be had as to the amount thereof; or, third, in lieu of either of the foregoing provisions, upon the execution of a good and sufficient bond or undertaking to the U. S. for the use and benefit of the entryman or owner of the land to secure the payment of such damages to the crops or tangible improvements of the entryman or owner, as may be determined and fixed in an action brought upon the bond or undertaking in a court of competent jurisdiction against the principal and sureties thereon, such bond or undertaking to be in form and in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior and to be filed with and approved by the register and receiver of the local land office of the district wherein the land is situated subject to appeal to the Commissioner of the General Land Office. Provided that all patents issued for the coal or other mineral deposits herein reserved shall contain appropriate notations declaring them to be subject to the provisions of this Act with reference to the disposition, occupancy, and use of the land as permitted to an entryman under this Act.

That lands containing water holes or other bodies of water needed or used by the public for watering purposes shall not be designated under this Act but may be reserved under the provisions of the Act of June 25, 1910, and such lands heretofore or hereafter reserved shall, while so reserved, be kept and held open to the public use for such purposes under such general rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe. Provided, that the secretary may, in his discretion, also withdraw from entry lands necessary to insure access by the public to watering places reserved hereunder and needed for use in the movement of stock to summer and winter ranges or to shipping points and may prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper administration and use of such lands. Provided further, that such driveways shall not be of greater number or width than shall be clearly necessary for the purpose proposed and in no event shall be more than one mile wide for a driveway less than 20 miles in length, not more than two miles in width for driveways over 20 and not more than thirty-five miles in length, and not over five miles in width for driveways over 45 miles in length; Provided further, that all stock so transported over such driveways shall be moved at an average of not less than three miles per day for sheep and goats and an average of not less than six miles per day for cattle and horses.

That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations in harmony with the provisions and purposes of this Act for the purpose of carrying the same into effect.

Subscribers, if you fail to receive a copy of this paper regular, please let us know, and if possible the lost paper will be replaced. It has always been our intention to send all subscribers their papers each week, and will try to replace copies lost in delivery.
