MAUPIN, SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 1917

THE YEAR $1.50

Ray Home Burned

W. S. Kay arrived from Prineville this week and informed us of the destruction Sunday morning by fire of the Ray's Dell ranch residence. The fire occurred at 8 o'clock caught from a chimney, and swept down through the house with such sudden destruction that it was with quick effort that the children were saved. Mrs. W. T. Ray received painful burns on her hands and arms while throwing some trunks through a window.

The household property valued at $1500 was a total loss. Eight inches of snow lay on the ground and the family had not even a wrap

C. J. Livingston, the local O. T. agent will be transferred in a day or so to Whitcomb on the main line between Pasco and Fallbridge.

Home Talent Feb. 3

The pupils of our High School assisted by teachers and local talent will present "The Hand of the Law" at Shattuck's Opera House on the evening of February 3rd.

A splendid cast of characters has been chosen and no effort is being spared to make the show first class. T. E. Morgensen of Tygh Valley has been engaged to play the part of the old county Squire and those who have seen Mr. Morgensen in this part say that few amateurs can do as well.

Reserved seats have been on sale at Shattuck's store for the past three days at 35 and 50 cents. Curtain will raise promptly at 8:00 p. m.

B. L. Foreman was a business caller in town yesterday.

Walt Mason Says:

"When my singing makes me hoarse, which happens, as a thing of course, Stearns' Zymole Trokeys makes my throat produce a clear and golden note. These Trokeys are the finest things—a blessing to the man who sings, and to the orator, whose speech through hoarseness of becomes a screech. 'Be sure' I often tell my spouse, 'to have some Trokeys in the house, for every time I catch a cold I get so hoarse I cannot scold, and then I reach for one or two, and I'm again as good as new.'"

Walt Mason

Zymole Trokeys
For husky throats

The nation-wide popularity of Zymole Trokeys causes us to set aside this week for the purpose of introducing these little cherry-red, quick acting, throat soothers to those of our customers who at this time of the year are always bothered with hoarseness, throat itching and temporary loss of voice. When you see our Zymole Trokey display let it remind you to come in and get a package. Slip a Zymole Trokey under your tongue. You'll like its pleasant taste and it will bring quick relief to your throat. Take one on retiring. It will slowly melt in your mouth and allay that cough. New triplet package containing three little vest-pocket sized boxes—25 cents.
