SENT IN BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Criterion

C. G. Seegberg says that after five years in the cattle business he had the extraordinary good luck to find that one of the cows had brought a heifer calf. Congratulations.

Arthur Henderson's little boy has been quite sick with pneumonia.

The dance at J. E. Miller's last Saturday night was well attended and everyone reported a pleasant time.

DeCamp and Green have bought the Woolsey horse and intend to make the season at Criterion.

The Criterion school board accepted the well and paid over the contract price last Monday. The patrons can now have plenty of good water at the school. The well is 407 feet deep. With the completion of the well we have about as completely an equipped school as any in the county, a good horse barn, woodshed, woven wire fence, playing apparatus, as well as the first Standard rural school in the county.

FARM BOOK KEEPING URGED

Farm Management Specialist H. F. Keyes, who is representing both U. S. and State Government in that capacity, in company with County Agriculturalist Chase addressed a number of farmers and would be farmers Wednesday at the school house on the subject of account keeping on the farm as a method of discovering the 'leaks' in that line of business.

Mr. Chase said that about 100 farmers of the county are using an exact system of accounts, twelve of whom are in this locality.

Wednesday from Portland after visiting her mother and sister a couple weeks. She brought home a nice bright baby girl which she has adopted from the orphan's home.

A. J. Hill was a Wamic business visitor Thursday, Mrs. Hill and children accompanying him as far as Grandma Farlow's. Friday being her birthday, Mrs. T. E. Farlow entertained Mrs. Etta Large, Mrs. Edith Hill and sons, Grandma and Mrs. Marion Farlow.

David Mayfield is suffering with severe cold, chills and pneumonia symptoms.

Callie Duncan visited at Ernest Gash's Thursday.

Rain Saturday kept the would-be debate attendance home; Sun-

Will Carson Hurt

The Dalles, Ore., Jan. 29.—Special.—Will Carson, a brakeman on the O. W. R. & N., who was knocked down while making a coupling at Messner Station Saturday evening, and badly crushed, suffered the amputation of his right arm just below the elbow, which was so badly mangled that it could not be saved. He is also suffering from a fractured skull, badly lacerated face and internal injuries. He was brought here on a special train a taken to The Dalles Hospital. His condition is precarious, but he has a good fighting chance for his life.—He has been unconscious for only a few minutes, but as yet is unable to explain the accident.—Oregonian day, snow and blusterly and Monday blizzard.

Mr. Carson is a son of I. J. 'Kit' Carson of Maupin, who went to The Dalles the first of the week.

Cecil and Virgil Mayfield furnished music for the dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheplein on the Flat.

Spoor & Son are cutting logs for Mulvaney Bros.

Tygh Valley 1

Mr. and Mrs. Porting and Mr. Hauser made a business trip to The Dalles the first of the week. Clyde Oliver is cutting wood for Charlie Wing.

Mrs. Hamblet is visiting with her granddaughter, Mrs. Rowan. Dan Gibbs was butchering the fore part of the week.

Mrs. A. A. Bonney has gone to the hospital to undergo another operation.

Mrs. Frank Wing passed away after a very short illness and was buried at Wamic last Friday. The family has the deepest sympathy of everyone.

Mr. Miller who bought the Still well place moved in last week.

Tom Swift is hauling hay from C. W. Wings.

Many from here are intending to go to Maupin to the entertainment.

Tygh Valley 2

No mail was received at this place Friday evening, the train being late.

The movable school from Corvallis was here last Tuesday. The lectures given by the different speakers were much enjoyed by the farmers and their wives. At noon the speakers were pleasantly surprised, the ladies of Tygh having prepared dinner for them.

Mr. Chase and Mr. Keyes were in town Tuesday the 30th to give the farmers instructions about keeping their farm books.

Frank Wing, who has been occupying the Stillwell house moved his household goods to his ranch Sunday.

T. W. Neel's sale which was to have been held last Saturday was postponed until February 3.

Mrs. Pearl Freelove of Hurlington, Ore., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Grimes.

Lieutenant Swenson of The Dalles Salvation Army corps was here soliciting yesterday.

Callie Young passed the Eighth finals on a grade of 92 plus and Cleo Leman on 91 plus. Good work.

Mr. Mertz was over from Tygh when in Portland live at the Palace.

Miss Nellie Harphan returned home from Portland Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Annie Wing Dead

Wamic, Jan. 29.

Funeral services were held at the Four Corners cemetery Friday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Annie Wing who died early Wednesday morning at Tygh. Mrs. Wing had been in poor health for a number of years, suffering with tuberculosis of the lungs. An attack of lagrippe, coupled with her weakened condition, resulted in her death, after a few days of acute illness. She was confined to her bed but a few days. Annie May was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Johnson of this place. She was born at Eight Mile creek this side of The Dalles, in 1880 and came with her parents to this place in 1894. In 1901 she was married to Frank Wing, a resident of this place. Four children were born to this union, two boys and two girls, who with her husband and parents survive her. She leaves three brothers, Roy Johnson of Rosalie, Wn., William and Amos of this place, also three sisters, Mrs. Emma Wing, Mrs. Alice Zumwalt, and Mrs. Maggie Wing, all residing here. The funeral cortege left Tygh at one o'clock and arrived at the cemetery here about three. Rev. Harrison of Tygh conducted the burial rites. The pall bearers were her school mates and girl friends. They were Mrs. Nora Miller, Mrs. Georgia Norvel, Mrs. Vava Driver, Mrs. Lena Woodcock, Mrs. Katie Driver, and Mrs. Jessie Woodcock.

After the brief services, the snow white casket, containing all that is mortal of one who was much esteemed and loved for her kind and gentle disposition was placed beside that of her brother Johnnie and sister Edna who died a number of years ago. Many sorrowing relatives and friends attended the funeral.

ANOTHER FINE NEW BUNGALOW

Last week A. C. Moad has us wondering what was really in progress as he was commencing his new well showing up new house, but it is looming up into a neat bungalow built outside and on top of the present residence. The old building will be partly reconstructed and form a part of the new. When completed it will be second to no residence on this side in roominess, convenience and pleasing appearance.

Mrs. A. A. Bonney is in the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, where she has undergone an operation for appendicitis and other troubles. This is the second operation she has undergone since August. While she is very sick, her condition is said to be satisfactory.

A week ago today the deal was closed by which Ollie Bothwell purchased the farm of A. A. Derthick, four and a half miles west of here. Mr. Derthick is advertising a sale of personal property.

PHONE BOOSTERS GOT TOGETHER

Wednesday Evening

A meeting convened Wednesday evening at the drug store in the interest of the Maupin telephone system. The subject of a separate line for the business houses of the town was discussed. As the line is already up and in operation between the drug store and the depot, it will be only a matter of a few days until the business houses will have made connection and the line put into active service.

Two lines from Criterion and Ridgeway, consisting of some 40 phones are to connect with the Maupin switch board in a short time.

The people of the Bakeoven line sent a delegation down Wednesday stating that they had decided to withdraw from the Tygh switch board and come to Maupin.

At least two lines are expected to come in from Juniper Flat very soon.

Yesterday an endeavor was made to organize a residence line for local patrons in town.
