The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Godleup Tuschuer are quite sick with whooping cough.

Ed Young from Prosser, Wn., visited relatives here this week.

An oyster supper will be given here this week by the C. E. of this place.

The first real snow storm of the season dropped in on us Sunday morning; it came with a hard west wind causing it to drift very badly. The ground is bare in places, others, covered three or four feet.

Dr. Shannon was called Saturday to see 'Uncle' Gid Rains who is quite poorly.

E. M. Hartman has been on the sick list the past few days.

Earl Barzee and O. L. Paquet went to Maupin Friday. James Harphan returned with them and attended the dance.

G. E. Wood purchased 12 head of cattle of F. M. Conter last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sharp moved to their home in the Kelly gulch and are at home to their friends. Mr. Sharpe will cut wood this winter.

Misses Ruby Wilson and Winnie Tapp came out Thursday with Len and Sidney Wilson on their return trip from The Dalles. They returned to their schools Monday, going on the train on account of the storm.

It's reported that the Wapinitia Ditch Co. have bargained for a townsite of Chas. Cox and J. S. Brown, located in the edge of the timber, and along the main mountain road. We have not learned the name.

Word reached here a few days ago that Mrs. Annia White of Sanger, California, is lying very low with pneumonia following an operation, and that Mr. and Mrs. Ira White of Hood River have gone to Sanger to be with her. Mrs. White is an old-time resident of this section and well known by everyone. Mrs. John Powell of this place is a daughter of Mrs. White.

Ladies' Aid meets in the church next Wednesday afternoon. All ladies cordially invited.

Lewis, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blackerby, who suffered a fractured skull by falling in a 14-ft. cistern on a farm near Madras where they are employed, and who has been in The Dalles hospital, is getting along fine and recovered sufficiently so that he was taken to his home the last of the week. The Blackerbys are old timers here.

The matter of sending delegates from C. E. Society here to the convention at Salem Feb. 20, was taken up in the C. E. Sunday. It was decided that an entertainment will be given here in the near future to raise funds to pay delegates expenses. Announcements later.

The largest dance of the season was given Friday night in the Evick hall. About 100 people were present.

Mrs. V. B. Tapp has been calculating her dining room this week. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barzee left Sunday for a week's visit in Portland. Mrs. Dee Wright has charge of the hotel during their absence.

Lu Woodside is having lots of trouble with his drilled well. On attempting to pump water one day last week he discovered the suction rod was broken about half way down, and while raising the pipe, the machinery gave way and let it down against the side of the well. Mr. McShane is going the last of the week to try to raise the pipe. Dee Woodside's well is also out of commission and he is having to haul water.

Mr. Johnie Delco has been suffering from neuralgia this week. It's reported here that R. N. Dodge has purchased the Henry Delco farm of Calvin McCorkle.

A cottage prayer meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Alice Datty last Thursday evening. About 40 were present.

Word reached here a few days ago that rabies had made its appearance among the coyotes of the Reservation, that a number of dogs had been bitten, also some horses, and a crippled Indian boy attacked as he was trying to mount his horse. One day last week one of the mad animals tried to enter an Indian home at a window and was finally shot in a cellar. As the Indians are charges of the Government and each Indian has a number of dogs following him about, we believe that if reports are true, the proper official should be notified and the matter looked into.

Harry P. Spath returned a week ago Sunday from The Dalles where he visited relatives.

Miss Emma Heroun of Middlebrook was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodcock Friday night and remained Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Driver. Miss Heroun came here with the intention of going to Dufur with Prof. T. J. Skirvin and Mrs. Veva Driver to attend the institute there Saturday, but the heavy rains Friday night made the roads to muddy for auto travel. Henry Miller was to have taken them in his car.

Mrs. Annie Remington of Vale arrived a week ago and is visiting relatives.

F. A. Morrow who has been taking out oak grubs on his place near Badger creek, says the ground is very dry below the surface.

The burning out of the fire at the W. H. Magill home Wednesday in the early morning displayed brilliant fire works for the town for a little while.

Joe Xavier left a week ago Wednesday for Stockton, California.

No mail reached this place Thursday night on account of the delayed train.

Miss Emma Heroun of the Middlebrook school has instituted warm meals for her pupils by preparing soups, chocolates and other warm refreshments served at the noon hour.

Dr. Shannon was called to see Mrs. Nan Woodcock Saturday.

Miss Katie Spath is attending high school in The Dalles.

Lewis McCoy of Frieda visited at the J. H. Woodcock home Sunday.

Harry McMurry is learning to cook, but there is much conjecture as to whether he will follow that occupation very long.

Roy Johnson, who was called here Friday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Frank Wing, left Sunday for Rosalie, Wn., Emmit Zumwalt, Wilbur Wing, Geo. End and Walter Ledford accompanied him to Sherar, the two latter going to Portland.

After the heavy shower of rain that fell here Friday night and Saturday the temperature dropped to freezing and several inches of snow is on the ground, coming in squalls, making the weather very unpleasant.
